TO USE SCHOOL PLAYGROUNDS

RULING IN FAVOR OF BOYS OVER THIRTEEN YEARS.

At all city playgrounds, except those at the Ludlow and Stevens schools, boys more than thirteen years of age will hereafter be as welcome as those less than that age.
An announcement to the foregoing effect was the result of a conference in the Franklin School building late yesterday between Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, chairman of the board of education's committee on playgrounds and a member of the board of directors of the Washington Playground Association; Capt. James C. Oyster, president of the board of education; A. T. Stuart, superintendent of schools; and Henry S. Curtis, supervisor of playgrounds.

Two Yards Too Small.

The playgrounds at the Ludlow and Stevens schools were found to be too small to let the older boys play there. At the playgrounds at all the other schools named additional room will be obtained by cutting gates between the girls' and boys' schoolyards so the two can be operated as one playground. This arrangement will allow the separation of the older boys from the little children and let them play together.

THE THEATER.

"The Bohemian Girl."

The Aborn Opera Company will have reached the thirteenth week of the summer season at the New National Theater last Monday night, when they will receive Balfe's romantic masterpiece, "The Bohemian Girl," an opera that in last summer's season at this theater proved the greatest drawing card of the entire run.

Wednesday night of next week will witness the celebration of the one-hundredth performance, when a handsome souvenir program will be distributed free to each patron.

This opera is one of the most loved of the popular classics because of its many beautiful and easily remembered melodies, like "The Heart Bowed Down," "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls," "The Gypsy Bride," "The Fair Land of Poland," "Then You'll Remember Me," "Bliss Forever Past," "Gypsy Market," "The Second Act and many other tuneful gems.

In arranging the cast Messrs. Aborn have selected those artists who have made the most favorable impressions in the past in this and other grand opera offerings, a number of whom were seen here in the strongly dramatic character of "The Gypsy Queen" and "The Gypsy King," "The Gypsy Queen" and "The Gypsy King" will join for his amusing characterization of Florestine. Other popular artists in the original cast are: "The Gypsy King," "The Gypsy Queen" and "The Gypsy King" will join for his amusing characterization of Florestine.

LIKE REAL LEGISLATORS.

Students of Local University Hold "Session of Congress."

A mock session of Congress was held by several students of George Washington University last evening, they discussing the measure providing that the federal government guarantee deposits in the national banks. It was moved to lay the measure on the table.

Edward Percy Gates of Arkansas obtained the floor at 10 o'clock and started to make an eight-minute speech in order to keep the measure from being passed by the majority. Various expedients were resorted to to shut off Mr. Gates, but he continued his discourse on the national banking act, the tariff and various other political questions. He was relieved by Howard Stull of Pennsylvania, who gained the floor for a few moments to present to the chair an old gavel, which had been lost several weeks ago.

J. T. Kennedy of Pennsylvania moved that the house should adjourn at 11 o'clock. Although the majority voted a solid "No," the speaker arbitrarily declared the adjournment.

After the adjournment the majority reassembled, but falling in a quorum, they admitted the janitor of the hall as "the only elected member from Hawaii." The congress under a temporary suspension of rules proceeded to demolish the doings of earlier in the evening.

Mr. Gates, Mr. Pollock, Mr. Kennedy, Rexford I. Holmes, Mr. Stuhl, J. M. Graves, Pacla O'Brien, J. J. Hallow, Charles A. Sunderlin and F. F. Fravel.

The only available places they have for this enjoyment are the poolroom and the saloon. When they first go into the poolroom they intend to watch the other "pool sharks," as they are called, but sooner or later they acquire the same expensive habit themselves, and so become full-fledged "sharks" themselves.

In answering this some people would say, "Why don't they get together in some of the boys' houses and have their good times?" The simple reason they do not do this is because the parents of the boys do not want a crowd of boys sitting in their parlors every evening, and the boys won't stay in their own homes because they like to stretch themselves after a day's work.

As far as the harm derived from standing on the corners is concerned it cannot be compared with the enormous amount of harm forced upon the young generation by the policemen who drive them into the poolrooms and saloons.

A boy who has been molested in this way is not only injured in his mind and body, but he is also injured in his pocket.

Found But One Cure for Eczema

Many Different Remedies and Even Hospital Failed—Suffered 3 Years With Severe Itching, Scary Skin—Could Hardly Stop Scratching.

Thankful for Perfect Results of Cuticura. "About three years ago I was troubled by a severe itching and dry, scaly skin on my ankles and feet. I could hardly keep from scratching. In a few days large red patches appeared and after that pimples formed. I went to the hospital, and the doctors pronounced it a very bad case of eczema. I went to the hospital two months and obtained a very little relief, so I tried many different remedies for at least ten months, but none seemed to cure me. They would relieve me for a week or two, then my skin would be full of pimples, the same as ever. I finally decided to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I am very thankful I did, for, after using the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Remedies, I was completely cured. I had a cure that any one suffering with eczema should try. My skin is now perfectly clear. I have used the Cuticura Remedies, Miss Teckla Pugh, 1422 5th St., Highlandtown, Md., Jan. 14, 1908."
