The chance of a lifetime--Standard Sewing Machine Co.'s stock at real sacrifice prices--Agency transferred to us

A clean sweep of all stock from the agency--sacrifice prices on all machines. We took over about 300 machines--some of them are rental machines--some are machines used for demonstrations, and others are new and perfect, with the exception of marred cases. We have had an expert finisher and machinist inspect them, and the first lot have been delivered. The price scale below is the most interesting one ever printed in this city about sewing machines.

Just think of such prices on the world's best machines==The Standard==Renowned the world over

And, remember, every machine is fully guaranteed. Look over the list--come and see the machines. Don't wait a moment if you have need of a machine. In all there are only about 300 machines, but there are several thousand women who have for years been wanting just such an opportunity. Note the quantities of each kind. Every machine in the following list is a "STANDARD," the various names distinguishing different styles:

Table with columns: Quantity on hand, Name of machine, Style of head, Standard's price, Sale price. Includes models like Favorite, MY OWN, Paragon, New Howe, Norwood, Rotary Grand.

SPECIAL NOTICE In this connection we wish to say that the former agency, at 602 9th st. n.w., will remain open to receive payments on outstanding accounts, to repair machines, and maintain the warrants on previous contracts, but not for the sale of goods. See special notice, page 3.

Table with columns: Quantity on hand, Name of machine, Style of head, Standard's price, Sale price. Includes models like Rotary Grand, No. 8, No. 2, No. 10.

We shall carry in stock a full line of needles and accessories for every machine, and all to be sold at less-than-heretofore prices--prices in keeping with our way of doing business. Come and see the machines tomorrow. This sale will be of especial interest to the hundreds of women who have wanted a STANDARD Sewing Machine, but never felt that they could afford one at the agency scale of prices. Every woman can afford one now, and especially during the clean-up sale of the stock taken over from the old Standard agency.

FERRYBOAT FOR CONSUMPTIVES

E. H. HARRIMAN'S DAUGHTER MAKES GIFT TO SUFFERERS. Craft Will Be Converted Into Open-Air Camp--Meals Will Be Served on Board. NEW YORK, June 24--Miss Mary Harriman, eldest daughter of E. H. Harriman, has taken one of her father's Erie ferryboats and turned it into a summer camp for consumptives. She has presented the boat to the Brooklyn committee on the prevention of tuberculosis and the Brooklyn Red Cross Society. It will go into commission as a part of the Red Cross navy July 1, when its flag will fly over an anchorage off Columbia street, Brooklyn. Arrangements on Shipboard. Hammocks, steamer chairs and other conveniences for out-in-the-air sleeping will be arranged for the accommodation of 300 men, women and children. Three meals a day will be served on the boat, and between meals the patients will get all the milk and eggs they are able to eat. For the commissary department Miss Harriman will forage on her father's country place at Arden, where the milk is famous and the farm products the best that money can command. A free bus will be run to the boat from Brooklyn stations for those who cannot pay car fare. It is the design to have the boat so anchored as to command the full benefit of the bay breezes, with a fine view of the entire water scape, in which the Statue of Liberty is the center figure.

HOUSED TO HIS DEATH. Man Who Hanged the 'Haymarket' Rioters Dies in Iowa.

MASON CITY, Ia., June 24--D. W. Nickerson, the man who hanged the Haymarket rioters in Chicago, was found dead in his bed at his Florida home, near here, at 10 o'clock today. He had been in bed for several days, and it was thought in connection with this death, caused from apoplexy, is the fact that both Sheriff S. F. Hanchett, who was at that time sheriff of Cook county, and W. H. Gleason, who was the chief clerk, both came from the same cause, and within three days of each other. This was about three years ago. Mr. Nickerson never spent a day without thinking of this affair. He left Chicago in 1892 and came to the prairies of the west, where he thought he could bury his haunting. But he was in constant receipt of letters from anarchists threatening his life, and he was literally hounded to his death. At the time of the Haymarket riots in that city he was acting as deputy sheriff, and in performing his duty in that capacity was executed for those who paid the penalty for the uprising, on the scaffold. Since that time he has been a marked man. Mr. Nickerson was a genial, affable man, and made friends of the entire community. By many he was regarded as an aristocrat because of his refined ways, which through many years of residence in the city had become a part of him. Prof. W. J. Rivers Dies Aged 87. BALTIMORE, June 24--Prof. William James Rivers, former president of Washington College, at Chestertown, Md., and for the last eighteen years a resident of this city, died at 10:45 o'clock Tuesday night at his home, 2305 North Calvert street, of old age. He had been ill a few weeks with a slight attack of grip, but his condition did not seem serious until a short time before his death. He was eighty-seven years old and formerly a prominent educator in South Carolina. A remarkable feature of Prof. Rivers' life was that up to the time of his death he had never been ill an entire day and never suffered the slightest accident. He came here from Charleston, but the greater part of his life was spent in his native state, South Carolina. He was born in Charleston, S. C., July 18, 1822, and received his preparatory education there. He was graduated from the University of South Carolina with the first honors of his class in 1841. He leaves two daughters--Mrs. Frank F. Tyler of Fredricksburg, Va., and Miss Lydia L. Rivers of Denver, Col. Dr. W. J. Rivers of Eastover, S. C., and Mr. Arthur D. Rivers of this city--and a sister, Mrs. Mamie R. Lucas of Charleston, S. C.

CAPT. SIDNEY T. TAYLOR DIES. Retired Revenue Cutter Officer Was a Marylander by Birth.

Capt. Sidney Thomas Taylor, United States revenue cutter service, retired, died yesterday morning of a complication of diseases at his home, 2207 East Baltimore street, Baltimore. Born in Snow Hill, Md., in 1835, he entered the revenue cutter service in 1861 and served on the cutter Reliance. He took part in several scouting expeditions in the civil war and afterward cruised in Alaskan waters. His last service was at Arundel Cove. In 1890 he married Miss Annie Olivia Baxter of Baltimore county, by whom he is survived. He also leaves four daughters. They are Mrs. Henry Huppel, Mrs. Laura Storke, Misses Ella and Mamie A. Taylor. He was a member of Wilson Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and Franklin Lodge of Odd Fellows. Different. "I thought you said May Nagget had married a good-natured man." "So she did." "Nonsense! I met him yesterday and he's a grouch." "Well, he's been married to May for nearly four months now, you know."

Attendants and physicians will be provided. Icy Camp for Sufferers.

The boat will afford a day camp for sufferers who are not able to get out of town, and there will be started on it the first open-air school for the children of Brooklyn who have been kept away from school during the term by reason of the disease. The Red Cross Christmas stamp committee, of which Mrs. St. Clair McKelway was chairman, has raised $4,000 to aid in Miss Harriman's generous purpose. Miss Harriman intends to sail next week for Europe, where she will join her father and mother. She first became interested in the movement through the old Staten Island ferryboat Southfield, which is anchored near the foot of East 26th street. All last summer she supplied milk for the boat from her father's farm. Mrs. Sallie T. Lakes died of heart disease at Lynchburg, Va.
