Dr. Charles E. Bunker, formerly of the University of Washington, has been appointed to succeed

Dr. William H. Burt, who has resigned to accept a position in the New York office of the Bureau of Education.

President Taft's Remarks.

The President said the nation was in the great depression and every\n nation should be her own nursery school.

"The United States has always been a nation of individuals, and the President believed that every individual should be taught to think for himself and to act on his own convictions.

"The President and the First Lady have always been devoted to the University of Washington, and the President was especially pleased to accept this appointment to serve as a member of the faculty.

"I have no doubt that Dr. Bunker will do a worthwhile job in this capacity, and I am sure that he will be a great asset to the University.

"The President and the First Lady are very proud to have such a distinguished scholar as a member of the faculty.
