IN AID OF PLAYGROUNDS.
Knights of Columbus and Chamber of Commerce to Play Ball.

A base ball team representing the Washington Chamber of Commerce will play a ball game with the Knights of Columbus team at American League Park, June 4. The proceeds will be devoted to the Playgrounds Association of this city.
Much interest is being taken in the coming game by the 2,000 members of the Knights of Columbus and the business and professional men members of the Chamber of Commerce, and the event promises to be a most interesting one. It is believed that a substantial sum will be realized for the worthy cause. The details of the day's sport are in the hands of a committee of the Chamber of Commerce, composed of Phil Kline, chairman; John Kreh, jr.; T. Hume, Walter B. Guy and Dr. Harry M. Kaufman, and a committee of the Knights of Columbus composed of T. Donovan, P. Flanagan and James A.
O'Shea, who are now working over plans to make the day an interesting one. The best players of the two organizations will make up the teams, and James A. O'Shea, who has been connected with the Capital City League for many years, will manage the Knights of Columbus team.

CHARLES GILMORE DEAD.
Employe of Government Printing Office for Thirty-Five Years.

Charles Gilmore, an employe of the government printing office for thirty-five years, died at his residence, 58 I street northwest, in Des Moines, Iowa, after a short illness. He came to Washington from Manchester, N. H., to accept a position in the employe of the government printing office headquarters building for twenty years, and was then transferred to the Treasury branch of the office. He was a member of Hopo Lodge, F. A. A. M., and of Typographical Union, No. 101. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. J. Muir, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, will be the officiating clergyman.

CALL ATTENTION TO BILL.
Commissioners Write Regarding Inquiry Into Electric Light Service.

In telling Representative Smith, chairman of the House committee on the District, that they have no objection to the passage of the joint resolution looking to an investigation of electric light service and the question of the District, the commissioners call attention to the bill now in Congress to confer the powers of a public service corporation on the Commissioners.
"If this bill becomes a law," says the return of the commissioners, "it would conduct such an investigation as is proposed by this joint resolution and consider other questions involving electric light and operations of public service corporations."

Congregation Well Attended.

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Steck was formally installed as pastor of the new Epiphany Lutheran congregation at 14th and E. streets last evening in Gunton Temple Memorial Chapel, on 14th street northwest, which was largely attended. Rev. John C. Bower of Baltimore was the presiding minister of the occasion, and introduced Rev.
W. E. Freas, president of the board of church extension of the Lutheran General Synod, who delivered the charge to the pastor.
Rev. Luther Hess Waring, pastor of the Georgetown Lutheran Church, followed with a charge to the people of the congregation. After which Rev. C. P. Wiles, pastor of Keller Memorial Church, and Rev.
Luther Frantz of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, made short addresses.
During the evening an elaborate musical program was given by the choir. It included "The Easter Story," "The Easter Bells," "Sing Alleluia," Miss Edith Stowell sang Gounod's "O Divine Redeemer." Russell Alden was in charge of the choir.

ORATOR MEDAL FITZGERALD CAPTURES FIRST PRIZE AT GEORGETOWN.

Second Honors in Law School Contest Awarded to John J. Speight of New York.

In the gold medal oratorical contest held in Gaston Hall last night among members of the Junior class, Georgetown University Law School, first honors were awarded to Thomas J. Fitzgerald of New York and second honors to John J.
Speight. The oration of the winner was on the subject of "Unrestricted Immigration into America." The other winners of the class competed for the medal, having been chosen from the preliminary trials held about a week ago along with Messrs. Fitzgerald and Speight.
Mr. Fitzgerald showed a complete mastery of the subject which he discussed, his manner of delivery was forceful and the argumentative portions of his address were handled in a commendable fashion.
He deplored unrestricted immigration in every class of foreigners as tending to lower the standard of citizenship. He devoted a portion of his address to the failure of Congress to remedy existing immigration conditions and incidentally attacked the national legislature as a body for conferring the power that exists in the Speaker.

Senator E. J. Burkett, Nebraska, of the Judges in announcing the winners paid a glowing tribute to the work of all the speakers, declaring it to be an inspiration for future efforts on the part of coming junior classes of the law school and an credit to the institution. The other judges were Representative Edmund H. Madison of Kansas and Representative Charles A.
Korby of Indiana. Nelson W. McKernan of New York, as chairman, presided.

COMET IS INOFFENSIVE

PILL BOX WOULD HOLD POISON, SAYS FATHER HEDRICK.

Astronomer Is Sure It Is Not Off
Its Path, and Deplores Alarmist Tales.

"There is no more poison in the tail of the comet than could be packed in an ordinary pill box.
"The average density of the head of the comet is equal to only one-sixth thousandth part of the density of the atmosphere of the earth.
"Although I have not been observing the comet regularly, I do not believe it is off its orbit.
"The nearest Halley's comet will come to Earth is 14,000,000 miles.
If its tail is long enough the earth will pass through it May 13. The only effect which may be noticed may be a few so-called shooting stars."
In these terse statements Father Hedrick, chief of the observatory staff at Georgetown University, today offered refutation of stories cabled from Paris regarding the declaration of French astronomers that the tail of the comet again showed signs of being poisonous.
Halley's wanderer, was off its path, and that the atmosphere of the earth might be infected by the gases arising from the comet.
Dr. Hedrick explained that cyanogen is the base of the hydrocarbon acid and other of the deadliest known poisons are secured. Since one inhalation of cyanogen is sufficient to terminate the existence of any animal member of the animal kingdom, it is evident that the atmosphere of the earth might
be infected by the gases arising from the comet.

MASSACHUSETTS GO HIGHER PERIL ON THE STREETS BIG EA, SAYS BRISTOW PURE FOOD EXHIBITION

TELLS EPWORTH LEAGUE OF GRAVE ISSUES PENDING.

This country is facing some of the most momentous problems of the age, and the people of this country are appreciating the gravity of the controversy which is being fought on Capitol Hill, according to Senator Bristow of Kansas, in an address at the closing session of the twentieth annual convention of the District Epworth League, in Hamline Church, last night.
"I call your attention to these things," he said, "to impress upon you the responsibility of the age in which we live." Amity of Alien Races.
In his address he traced the movement of the races of the world from the slopes of Asia in the beginning until the arrival in America and in China. Never, he said, has the world seen such friendliness shown between peoples so entirely different in their methods as those of the far east and the people of the western hemisphere.
As the senator concluded much enthusiasm was manifested. He was given standing ovations for his address and interest in the work of the league.

Old Officers Re-Elected.
All incumbent officers of the league were re-elected as follows: President, William A. Morris of Douglas Church; first vice president, Milton Thorn, Hamline Church; second vice president, Mrs.
E. E. Marshall, North Capitol; third vice president, Mrs. M. E. Mitchell, Vaughn; fourth vice president, Miss Nellie Roberts, Metropolitan; corresponding secretary, E.
H. Pullman, Goshawk; recording secretary, George W. Stiles, Junior; League superintendent, Mrs. O. B. Jennings, 1222 22nd street, northwest.

The officers were installed by Rev. J.
W. R. Sumwalt, District superintendent of the Washington M. E. Church.
A decision was made to hold the ganization in 1911 in McKendree M. E.

Declaring that the church people of the city should do more to get the masses to the churches, Thomas Nelson Page in an address at the closing session of the diocesan missionary meeting in St.
Mark's Church, Capitol Hill, last night urged greater effort to get those who outside the church to come in. He said that the church in this city is in a position to do much good, but that it is not doing it. He said that the church members, all of them from the Keystone the occasion a merry one. Many speeches, poetical and otherwise, were made, and a bountiful luncheon was served.

T. Lincoln Townsend, first vice pres-lined the purposes of the club and urged its members to lend their heartiest efforts to its upbuilding and success.

President Charles G. Prentiss, who has occupied by the National Press Club in the early stages of its existence.

SPRING FISHING IS OVER.
Prices Obtained for Shad and Herring Were Unusually High.

Except for a few traps and the nets being driven by the small fishmen, the spring fishing season on the Potomac has been a successful one. Fairly landing shore, the largest haul since shore on the river "cut out" yesterday. Capt. Will Neitay, Capt. George Neitay, William Sheffer, Clarence Sheffer and others left here yesterday aboard the power launch Benjamin M. for the shore and will pay off and discharge the crew today. The hauling of the seine at Chapman's shore also has been discontinued, and the men working there laid off for the season.
Taking it altogether, it is stated, the season just closed has been a successful one from a financial standpoint. While the catch of shad and herring was not large, it has been in many years past, much higher prices were obtained for the fish and the balance of the season will be on the profit side of the ledger.
It is stated that at no time this season has the shad been so scarce as it is now, and shad have kept well up in price. The fishing season does not close by law until June 1, and the sale of shad and herring in this city is legal until June 10.

President Charles G. Prentiss, who has been at the head of the club since 1902, looked along the same lines and pointed out the way in which Pennsylvanians living in Washington might keep in closer touch socially and politically with their brethren at home.
The new quarters of the club are on the third floor of the building and were occupied by the National Press Club in
the early stages of its existence.
The club, which was founded in 1892, was composed of T. Lincoln Townsend, chairman; William B. Cragg and S. K. Doughter, vice presidents; Charles G. Prentiss, secretary; T. Lincoln Townsend, treasurer; first vice president, Col. Jacob H. Dewees, second vice president, James C. Ash, third vice president, John H. Patterson, and John H. W. Thrush, recorder.

SPRING FISHING IS OVER.
Prices Obtained for Shad and Her-
ring Were Unusually High.

being driven by the small fishmen, the
spring fishing season on the Potomac
has been a successful one. Fairly landing
river "cut out" yesterday. Capt
