FOUR HURT AT FIRE

Battalion Chief Keliher Is Struck by Stream.

THREE FIREMEN INJURED

Fierce Blaze Does $20,000 Damage in Big Feed Store.

TWO ALARMS ARE TURNED IN

Spontaneous Combustion Believed to Have Caused Fire—Street Car Traffic Held Up Some Time.

Injured in Fire.

Battalion Chief James Keliher, injuries to his abdomen and hemorrhage of right eye. Confined to his home.
Ernest Hoolidge, engine company No. 3, struck on head by falling timbers.
W. C. Rice, truck company No. 4, struck on head by falling timbers.
E. G. Burch, engine company No. 6, overcome by smoke.

Battalion Chief James Keliher and three other members of the Fire Department were injured yesterday afternoon while fighting a $20,000 fire in the feed stores of H. P. Pillsbury at 54, 56 and 58 H street northeast.

Chief Keliher was directing the work of the firemen on the inside of the building, when a full stream of water suddenly struck him in the abdomen. He was hurled to the floor. Firemen picked him up and assisted him to the front of the building, where it was discovered he had also sustained a hemorrhage of the right eye, where the water had also struck him. He was removed to his home, 733 North Capitol street, in the second precinct automobile patrol.

Privates Ernest Hoolidge and W. C. Rice were standing near the place inside the building, where Chief Keliher sustained his injuries. When the fire fell from the roof and struck them on the head. They were carried out of the building by firemen and removed to the Casualty Hospital. They later returned to their company quarters.

Overcome by Smoke.

Private Burch was inside the building when he was overcome by the dense smoke from the burning hay. He was removed to the sidewalk, where he was treated by a physician from the Casualty Hospital. He was later removed to the company quarters in the hose carriage of No. 6 company.

It is stated that 200 tons of hay were destroyed in the fire, which is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. The loss is partly covered by insurance.
Charles M. Floecker, manager of the store, discovered the blaze shortly after 3 o'clock. Mr. Floecker had left the office in the front part of the structure when he saw flames in a large quantity of hay which was stored on the ground floor. He ran to a telephone and called No. 3 engine company, which promptly responded.

Second Alarm Turned In.

An alarm was immediately sounded from box 647 on H street between North Capitol and 1st streets northeast, to which Battalion Chief Keliher, engine companies 6, 3 and 12 and truck company 4 responded. As soon as Chief Keliher reached the scene he saw that the few firemen on hand would have difficulty in fighting the flames, and immediately sounded a second alarm, which brought No. 10 and 14 engine companies and truck company No. 1. Chief Wagner also responded on the second alarm.
The cars of the Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric railway and those of the H street line were tied up for about three-quarters of an hour, as a result of several lines of hoses being stretched across the tracks at North Capitol and H streets, and immediately in front of the burning building. The railway companies, however, secured prompt suspension of the hose over the street and the cars were finally allowed to proceed at a slow pace.

Before the arrival of the engine companies on the second alarm, Chief Keliher directed several streams of water on the blazing hay in the center of the building in an effort to check the flames, but they had gained such headway that the water had little effect at first.

With several companies throwing streams through the front part of the building, the flames were kept from spreading further, but the power house of the Union station, which is located across 1st street, would possibly have caught on fire.

Thousands See Blaze.

Shortly after the fire started persons began to gather on the viaduct which leads to the Union station, and when the blaze was at its height several thousands of persons witnessed it from that point.

Strike on Southern Pacific.

HOUSTON, Tex., June 3.—According to the announcement of Southern Pacific officials the road is without the services of only about 10 per cent of its operating men, notwithstanding the strike order issued Tuesday by the International Order of Maintenance of Ways Employees.

To Represent P. O. Department.

Postmaster General Hitchcock has designated Fourth Assistant Postmaster General De Gray to represent the Post Office Department at the convention of the Pennsylvania Association of Postmasters, to be held at McKeesport, Pa., June 6, 7 and 8, and the convention of the Tri-State Postmasters' Association, to be held at Minneapolis, Minn., June 8 and 9.
