Is a Reactionary—Wilson's Theories "Antiquated."

MADISON, Wis., September 27 .- Gov. McGovern today issued a long open statement in which he announced that he Aside from this, the governor said he would support the republican congressional and state and legislature tickets. publican, he finds himself diametrically opposed to almost everything they represent. At great length, in explaining his position, the statement criticises the adclaims that Taft's renomination was stolen. Considerable space also is given to exman who appeared to testify against Mrs. plaining his reason for not being able to support the democratic ticket. Wilson's Theories "Antiquated." "In Woodrow Wilson there is much to admire," the statement declares. "He is clean, wholesome, gifted and patriotic American. But he is a free trade demopolitical machines." Gov. McGovern says he can see no prospect of advantage, to the progressive cause in the possible victory of Wilson over Taft. "Should it occur," he says, "it will be a moral victory only. In such event the people will have the satisfaction of having rebuked President Taft for his reactionary policies, his defiance of public opinion and his alliance with cor-they will ever get out of it." Praises Candidates and Platform. In conclusion the governor praises the progressive party, its national candidates and platform. The governor says rupt bosses, but this will be all the good "Manifestly the platform is the Wisconsin idea nationalized. It is as like the republican state platform of two years ago as two peas. The republican state platform this year is in harmony with both. How can we who have sacrise them now in the nation? I shall not attempt the role. "Col. Roosevelt's character and qualifications for public office are well known. His fitness to lead the progressive movement has been submitted to the voters themselves from Maine to California today, when objections were filed before and overwhelmingly approved.
