Outbreak Near Hermosillo Is Now Expected.

ZAPATISTAS SACK HOUSES

May Seek Extradition of Maderos.

GOV. GONZALES IS LIBERATED

Freed on Promise to Urge Peace North-Maytorena Escapes Over Border.

DOUGLAS, Ariz. March 1.-Revolters against the Huerta government are mob-Hizing at Colonia Morelos, an American Mormon settlement in Sonora. The de- eration of Citizens' Associations will hold serters from Agua Prieta broke camp today at Coniza Springs and started for Morolos, where they will be joined by a by President D. A. Edwards of the fedgroup from Oaxava, Bavispe and Moctezuma, etaling about 700 armed men. -Col. Obregon, formerly a federal com-Huerta and is leading revolting troops near Hermosillo, where an outbreak is expected.

Zapatistas Sack Houses.

MEXICO CITY, March 1.-Zapatistas cheamped at Cuajimalpa, in the federal burned the public records, disthe police and sacked many houses last night. They had become suspicious of the government's sincerity regarding the peace negotiations. "Alarmed by reports that a junta is be ing organized by Ernesto. Raoul and Emilio Madero and friends of the Madero mittee. family, the government is considering the question of their extradition on a charge of being implicated in various crimes. Manuel Bonilla, former minister of communications, has been arrested at Manzanillo. He will be brought to the capital execution of Col. Morelos in the state of Sinaloa at the time of the Madero revo-

Gov. Gonzales Is Freed.

Chihuahua City. Charges of sedition held against him by the military authori- through the ballot. ties are said to have been canceled on

Before his release late yesterday he issued a proclamation in which he accepted the Mexico City government. Gov. Gonzales, it is said, is not permit- ment. ted to leave the state capital, as he was a state governor may not be placed in Orozco Considering Peace.

Gen. Pascual Orozco, jr., the commander-in-chief of the northern revolution, heretofore silent regarding his stand in the Mexican dilemma, declared today that he desires to arrange peace by nego-"The government of Madero having am disposed to recognize President Huerta, and to complete arrangements have sent my representative. Col. Cordova, to Mexico City," said Gen. Orozco today. Since the battles about Ojinaga I have been attending to my health," he said. Orozco did not care to explain where he had been since his disappear-

Regarding the naming of Gen. Inez Salazar as commander-in-chief of the northern revolution at Guadalupe some weeks ago, Gen. Orozco insisted that Salazar merely had been acting commander in view of Orozco's disablement.

Still in Command, He Says.

same positions as at the beginning of the revolt against Madero." Col. Jose Cordova, Orozco's secretary,

Through his agency the rebel chief intends pacification of the north, but to see first dent Huerta and his advisers. Manuel Garza Aldape, named on Gen. Huerta's provisional cabinet, will arrive With others he will proceed by special train to Ahumada to confer with Orozco

Rebel chiefs still in arms are marching toward Ahumada, where will be held a general congress of all revolutionary leaders to reach some conclusion regarding the requests to be made on the party in power at the national capital.

Troops at Parral Revolt.

Practically all troops at Parral, Chiuahua, center of a large mining district, revolted yesterday and marched from the city with their arms, leaving only 200 trops to protect property. The mutineers, numbering 600, are ex-insurrecto volunteer troops. On their way they destroyed the branch of the Mexican Central railway running to Jiminez. There was no fighting.

Maytorena Safe in United States. TUCSON, Ariz., March 1 .- Ex-Gov. Maria Maytorena of Sonora arrived safely today at a small American border town near Nogales, Ariz. Automobiles left here today to meet him. The governor's family already is here. Hermosillo, the Sonora capital, is reported quiet. Mexican Consul E. V. Anaya. was today formally accused by his government of having conspired to bring about intervention by the United States and was answer the charge. Instead he turned over his office to his vice consul and anmain on this side of the border.

purported resignation of the late Presi- This followed the statement by the at- a tribute to that religious faith by de- labor leaders, convicted in Indianapolis the sentence of Claude Allen. When the a graduate of West Point and a former yardstick. He was a lame duck then, the Treasury, as indicated by yesterday's dent Madero was today declared by R. torneys of the United Mine Workers of claring that "these people, called Friends in the dynamite cases, will be released V. Pesquiera, a member of the Mexican before the commission to defend the men should be apprechamber of deputies, to be a forgery by chamber of deputies, to be a forgery by chamber of the Mexican before and at the conclusion of his speech. those who killed Madero, aimed to give the accused will have the privilege of noble principle and cherished a very the color of legality to the Huerta admin- calling such witnesses as they desire. the color of legality to the Huerta admin- calling such witnesses as they desire.

Pesquiera is now a refugee in San Antonio. He asserted that Madero and Vice President Suarez were killed because they refused to resign, and so they could not deny the authenticity of the resignations. Senor Pesquiera has wired his statement to Washington.

Says Diaz Tortured American.

a letter received here today by F. D. Warren, editor of the Appeal to Reason, and credited by him to John Kenneth the American ambassador for aid was Evaristo Has Not Sailed.

passage under his ewn name or any vey, a pick and hammer with handles other, so far as they know. A dele-I crossed.

gation of well-wishers which assembled at the pier to bid him good-bye came away disappointed.

Orozco, Sr., Appeals to U. S. Pascual Orozco, sr., father of the rebel States from the action of the United States court in Texas, which refused to release him from prison on habeas corpus proceedings. Orozco was arrested on a charge of conspiracy to export arms from the United States into Mexico.

Reports of Junta Alarm Huerta. CITIZENS' FEDERATION PLANS SUFFRAGE FIGHT

Introduced in Next Congress.

To consider suggestions for a new form of government for the District of Columbla the executive committee of the Feda special meeting immediately after the inauguration, it was announced last night eration

President Edwards' announcement followed statements made at a meeting of mander at Agua Prieta, has denounced the federation by William McK. Clayton to the effect that one and possibly two bills will be introduced in Congress at the next session to bring about a change in the District's form of gov-

Not only is Representative Prouty Iowa preparing a bill of this character. Mr. Clayton declared, but the speaker asserted that he is informed that a measure which would bestow suffrage upon the citizens of the National Capital is being drawn by Representative Johnson, chairman of the House District com-

Hope Lies in Wilson.

Mr. Clayton asserted that he has been informed that one of the District Commissioners favors suffrage here to the exto answer a charge of having ordered the tent, at least, of the selection of the heads of the local government by the ballot. He expressed the belief that if President-elect Wilson appoints Commissioners for the District who are representative of the people at large and not "some particu-El. PASO, Tex., March 1.-Abraham lar segment of our citizenship," much of the will, meet a great peril with no Gonzales, the Chihuahua governor, de- will be done toward relieving the present posed and jailed, is a free man today at agitation on the part of residents of Washington for a larger participation in the affairs of the local government

The executive committee will make a made by the various citizens represented in the federated body, which have under consideration suggestions for changes in the present form of govern-

But few matters of importance occupied released only because Gen. Rabago, the the attention of the delegates at last acting military governor, discovered a night's meeting. P. E. McKenney, repre-clause in the constitution providing that senting the Randle Highlands Association, presented a resolution from that favoring the establishment of a publicity commission, the duty of which shall be to educate the country to the importance of maintaining the present financial relations existing between the local and federal governments. The federation admitted to membership the Connecticut Avenue Citizens' Association.

ALLIES CRUEL AS TURKS.

man Atrocities Are Exaggerated.

Special Dispatch to The Star. miral Austin M. Knight, commander of sued his way nevertheless. the Atlantic reserve fleet and special commander of the cruisers Montana and Tentime ago to protect American lives and intensity of his contention. The quesinterests during the war, has returned to tion of the popularity or unpopularity of this city. With Admiral Knight were his his views never entered into his calculaflag secretary, Lieut. Commander Chauncey Shackford; his flag lieutenant, Lieut. The chiefs of the various columns op- Commander W. L. Pryor, and Fleet En- conquerable antagonist, with a perfect erating in the north are still under my gineer Lieut. Commander F. B. Karns. knowledge that he was unconquerable. orders," he declared. "They occupy the Admiral Knight left Turkey about three About that he never for one moment de-

Admiral Knight declared that the tales for a single instant did he cry out or of barbarism and cruelty on the part of beg for quarter. With his back to the has been with Gen. Orozco constantly. the Turkish soldiers were greatly exagger- wall, he fought doggedly, unflinchingly, ated and that the troops of the allies were albeit hopelessly, with the same unyieldto take up at once the matter of the just as guilty as the Turks in the matter ing spirit that he would have made a of atrocities. Foreign residents in Con- losing fight for a great principle in which what will be offered by Provisional Presi- stantinople were never in any great dan- he believed or as he would have contendger at any time. This, he said, was due ed though himself naked, with an armorto the presence of the fleet of warships of clad adversary. Day by day the poor the different nations. Admiral Knight mortal body weakened, but the heroic here tomorrow from San Antonio, Tex. has selected the battleship Wisconsin as soul never whined or faltered. his flagship at the navy yard and hoisted his flag this morning.

LAETARE MEDAL AWARDED.

University of Notre Dame Honors frontal lobe of the brain. There followed Dr. A. Herberman.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., March 1.-The fusion of blood; there was a momentary Laetare medal, awarded to some Cath- hesitation in his speech-long enough for olic layman in America each year by the University of Notre Dame, is given this then, with a superb effort of his wonyear to Dr. A. Herberman, editor of the derful will, he lifted the fainting soul to Catholic Encyclopedia, it was announced its task and completed his remarks and here today.

The annual medal was founded thirty years ago, the first recipient being the historian, John Gilmary Shea. Among those who have received the honor are Bourke Cochran, Dr. Thomas A. Emmett. Dr. James C. Monaghan, Dr. F. J. Quinlan and Thomas M. Murky of New

COUNSEL FOR MINERS.

Strikers at Paint Creek to Face Military Trial March 7.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 1.-Col. ordered to appear in Mexico City to the eighty prisoners held at Camp Pratt weary of the struggle, gave up the unin connection with the recent disorders able spirit refused to do until the very nounced he had resigned and would re- in the Paint creek coal country that end. they would be provided with counsel Madero's Resignation Held Forgery. the military commission, if they are un-SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 1.—The able or unwilling to employ lawyers. Heyburn the Quaker. After he had paid and Eugene A. Clancy, San Francisco Floyd Allen to the chair and commute ster, or Charles M. Eaton, jr., said to be whipped him into submission with his the democratic administration will find in broke down when she was told last night that the supreme court of appeals had decided the habeas corpus proceedings against her.

PICKS AND HAMMERS KNOCK.

Merry Time at Banquet. All formality was set aside and set revolt, Turner suffered torture at the at Rauscher's of the Picks and Hammers, hands of Gen. Felix Diaz, was three times a club composed of the employes of the threatened with death by shooting, was geologic division of the geological survey. robbed and imprisoned and his appeal to The banquet was attended by about one call him today. It is his character and hundred members and their wives. E. W.

Parker acted as toastmaster. Most of the speeches were filled with NEW YORK. March 1.-The Ward terms and allusions which could be understood only by the geological survey emline steamer Havana sailed for Havana ployes. They served, however, to keep today apparently without having the banqueters in continuous laughter. aboard Evaristo E. Madero, brother of the late President of Mexico, who left O. Ulrich, David White, W. C. Menden-

Officials of the line asserted emphatic- The Picks and Hammers derive their ally that Mr. Madero had not engaged name from the official insignia of the sur-to the Supreme Court of the United Senate Business Turned Aside for Tributes to Dead.

HEYBURN HIGHLY LAUDED

Great Bravery Dwelt Upon by Former Colleagues.

ALSO IS PRAISED

Clayton Says Two Bills Will Be Honor to Former Representatives Smith, Hubbard, Latta, Foster. Legare and Loudenslager.

> Although the life of the present of Sixty-second Congress is measured only the calendar awaiting eleventh-hour acearly last evening to pay tributes to members of the Senate and the House who have died within the past few months to express by words an appreciation of the character and public services of the deceased colleagues, and to make a final entry of tributes upon the congressional careers of these men.

Senators Weldon B. Heyburn of Idaho and Jeff Davis of Arkansas and Repreof Iowa, Lafta of Nebraska, Foster of Vermont, Legare of South Carolina and Loudenslager of New Jersey were those to whom the Senate paid honor.

"Heyburn the Brave."

Senator Heyburn was pictured "Heyburn the Brave" by practically all of the senators who spoke of him, his character and his service for his country as one intrusted with a public trust. The speakers were Senators Borah. Gallinger, Lodge, Clark of Wyoming, Mc-Cumber, Dillingham, Sutherland, Burton, Jones, Root. Thornton, Myers. Pomerene and Brady.

"If I were asked to name his most conspicuous characteristic." Senator Sutherland sa'd of Mr. Heyburn. "I should say it was his courage-physical as well as moral. Many men, indeed most men. can upon occasion, by a conscious effort outward manifestation of fear, but those who habitually and as a matter of course face every problem, however grave or threatening without a shr'nking of the soul or of the flesh are rare which for some time has existed in the indeed. Senator Heyburn was one of Senate over the nominations of President officer was not to be found. promise that Gonzales would use his in-promise that Gonzales would use his in-fluence to make peace in the border tion. At the same time reports will be mental and moral equipment the element lations mental and moral equipment the element He was, moreover, intensely in earnest motions made in the Army, Navy, Marine and intensely sincere.

"There was never about anything he said or did the slightest suggestion of the hypocrite or the timeserver During the ten years of his service in this body he met every question in a spirit of perfect cander and of utter disperard for every consideration save the intrinsic merits of the proposition. I firmly believe that in all that time it never occurred to him to consider the effect which his words or his vote might have upon his own political fortunes. Opportunism was no part of h's political creed.

Always Stood Firm.

"Convinced of the rightfulness of any Admiral Knight Says Tales of Otto- for the strength of the opposition or the others agreed with him, he pursued his way, it is true, w'th greater satisfaction, PHILADELPHIA, March 1 .- Rear Ad- but if nobody acreed with him he purunmoved by the fiercest opposition; the

"It was in this same mood that he took up the gage of battle with his last unthe gravity of his own case. But never

Example of Will Power.

"One day, as he stood at his desk addressing the Senate, he distinctly felt the breaking of a small artery in the an inrush of overwhelming sickness; one of his eyes was filled with a quick sufthose who sat near him to realize that then walked from the chamber without a word to any one. The next day I saw him, and observing the darkened eve and drooping lid, I said: 'What is the matter, senator?" Without a trace of apprehension in his voice, as though he had been speaking of another, he replied: small blood vessel has been ruptured, forming a clot on the brain in such a way as to render one of my eyes temporarily blind. The doctor says that sight will return as the clot is gradually

"For more than a year, while the inexorable fingers of death slowly, but surely, tightened about his heart. continued to discharge the daily duties of his place with a courage whose pathos appealed to every one but him-Wallace, judge advocate, today notified self. But finally the flesh, having grown Senator Lodge's Tribute. Senator Lodge spoke particularly of cused. Trials are to begin March 7, and deriding world, stood for a great and The news reached here today that Mother Jones, the aged labor leader. Ledge continued, regarding Mr. Heyburn: "He was of an old, long-established family in Pennsylvania. The blood of the men and women who 200 years before had unshrinkingly faced social ostracism. persecution and death ran uncorrupted in his veins. He feared nothing, so far as could see. You might question his opinion; you could never doubt his courage. His abilities were of a high order. He was a good lawyer, a vigorous de-GIRARD, Kas., March 1.-According to Geological Survey Employes Have bater, ready and apt in retort. He had a large command of language, and his sentences fell from his lips well framed. strong and clear. His industry was untiring, and he strove, to his own injury, Turner, the American writer, imprisoned speeches displaced by friendly gibes and but from a high sense of duty, to follow in the City of Mexico during the recent knocks at the annual banquet last night every measure which came before the

"Yet it is not of his abilities nor of his think first as with sadness I try to rehis moral qualities which come most life made a deep impression upon me.

At First Exasperated.

"I confess when I first met him here I was often exasperated by what seemed to me an almost perverse spirit of opposition, but as I came to know him bet-Ithaca. N. Y., last night for this city, hall, A. H. Brooks, E. G. Woodruff and high principles, his loyalty to his beliefs,

YESTERDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate:

Met at 10 a.m. Senator Martin issued call for democratic caucus for March 5. Adopted conference report on army appropriation bill carrying Filibuster by Senator Newlands prevented adoption of river and harbor appropriation bill conference report. Eulogies were pronounced on late Senators Heyburn and Jeff Davis

General deficiency bill passed. Confirmed a large number of army, navy and diplomatic ap-House:

Met at 10:30 a.m. Passed Webb liquor shipment bill over President's veto, 244 to 95. Considered workmen's compensa tion bill, and filibuster was started. Disagreed to conference report on post office appropriation bill. Recessed from 6:50 p.m. until 8:30 Adopted conference report on

Disagreed to conference report on District of Columbia appropriation bill and sent bill back to conference Recessed at 12:50 a.m. until 2:30 p.m., Sunday, for regular busi-army appropriation bill.

that underneath the combativeness was one of the kindest and most generous hearts that ever beat. As he cheerfully faced criticism and attack for what he believed to be right, so did he meet the coming of the end. The hand of fate knocked at the door. He did not complain; he did not flinch; he did not he went about h's work and stood his sentatives Smith of California, Hubbard ground in the debates and in the com-

> Those who eulogized Senator Davis were Senators Clarke of Arkansas, Bryan of Florida, Ashurst of Arizona, Martine of New Jersey and Kavanaugh of Arkansas. with the courage of his convictions, standing for what he thought was right and not hesitating to denounce that which he thought was wrong.

Senate at Last Confirms Appointments to Diplomatic and Consular Posts.

With Larz Anderson heading the list as ambassador to Japan, the deadlock Taft was finally broken, resulting in the confirmation of a large number of pro-Corps, revenue gutter and diplomatic

Fred W. Carpenter of California, former late hour, it was stated, his whereabouts private secretary to President Taft, also had not been ascertained. was confirmed as United States minister to Siam, and as was Theodore Marburg of Maryland as minister to Belgium. The confirmations were made during a into the confirmation of these officials, a general agreement having been reached that appointments of this character, involving promotion along definite lines of service, should not be held up.
The agreement also included the firmation of postmasters in the home towns of senators. Senator Cummins executive session. However, this did terday gathered in the boardroom of the not serve to defeat the plan deter- Municipal building to bid him farewell.

mined upon. It is expected that further presidential nominations will be acted upon today. The confirmations yesterday numbered more than 350, but they did not include any civil appointments other than those covered by the agreement. Other appointments in the diplomatic service which were confirmed are: Montgomery Schuyler, jr., of New York minister to Ecuador. Fred R. Moore of New York, minister and consul general at Liberia. U. Grant-Smith of Pennsylvania, secre tary of the embassy at Vienna, Austria. retary of embassy at Berlin. Nelson O'Shaughnessy of New York secretary of embassy at Mexico City. Ralph B. Strassburger of New York, second secretary of embassy at Tokio, Henry S. Tennant, New York, secand secretary of embassy at Mexico. Charles Campbell, jr., of Virginia, secretary of legation and consul general to Roumania, Servia and Bulgaria Cyrus F. Wicker of New York, secretary of legation at Panama. J. Butler Wright of Wyoming, secretary of legation at Brussels, Belgium. Francis T. Coxe of Pennsylvania, sec retary of legation, at Havana, Cuba The postmasters confirmed by the Senite during the afternoon were: Robert K. Brough, Alexandria, Minn.

James Clove, Provo, Utah. SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Emeroy G. Page, Hyde Park, Vt.; Mat-

Former Washingtonian, Cumberland's Health Officer, Plaintiff.

Special Dispatch to The Star. CUMBERLAND. Md., March 1.-Dr. Francis E. Harrington, health officer of Cumberland, yesterday entered suit against the publishers of the Cumberland Daily News Corporation for damages and notice was served. It is understood the amount asked will be $15,000. The suit, it is said, is the outgrowth of the publication and discussion in the Daily News of bills in the recent smallpox epidemic. Dr. Harrington is the city bacteriologist and san'tarian. He came here from Washington, D. C., where he had been connected with the health department and where his relatives reside.

LABOR MEN TO BE FREED.

Bonds of Tveitmore and Clancy, Convicted Dynamiters, Approved.

CHICAGO, March 1.-Olaf A. Tveitmore penitentiary. A $60,000 bond raised in San Francisco was approved here today by Judge Kohlsaat in the federal court. Edward Nockels, secretary of the Chicago Federation of Labor, left tonight for Leavenworth with the order for the men's release. This leaves nine of the convicted labor men still in the penitentiary, unable to secure bonds.

OLD INJURIES FATAL.

Philip Ahearn, Trinity College Foot Ball Star. Hurt in 1911 Game. HARTFORD, Conn., March 1.-Philip

Ahearn, twenty-three years old, who was the star player on the Trinity College foot ball team for several years, died worth as a lawyer and senator that I here today as the result of injuries received in the game against Brown in 1911. His back was wrenched and he resharply to my mind, and which in his ceived other injuries later which forced him to leave college. Ahearn won the trophy for best allaround Trinity athlete three consecutive Castro on Way to Capital. KEY WEST, Fla., March 1.-Cipriano Castro, exiled former President of Venehigh principles, his loyalty to his beliefs, zuela, arrived here this afternoon on the "I learned, too, that hard fighter as he during the inauguration festivities.

Marshal Unable to Serve Him in Damage Suit.

SEARCH OF CITY IS FUTILE

Retiring Commissioner Disappears After Reception at Noon.

REDFIELD LAUGHS AT NEWS

Believes He Is Exempted, However, by Reason of Being Member of Congress.

Col. William V. Judson may escape th prospect, temporarily, at least, of facing trial in the two two-hundred-and-fiftythousand-dollar damage suits filed yesterday by two local insurance companies against himself, Representative William Redfield and Edward J. Stellwagen, president of the Union Trust Company, growing out of the recent insurance investigation.

Up to a late hour last night the office of the United States marshal, it was reretreat. He had never turned his back ported, had not been able to locate the on either friend or enemy, and with the former District Engineer Commissioner same high spirit and unwavering courage and the best obtainable information was that he had left the city without having been served with a summons. It was stated by a high official of the corporation counsel's office that if Col. Judson had departed it would not be pos-They spoke of Mr. Davis as the man sible to serve a summons upon him outside the District.

> Further Action Undetermined. Charles F. Carusi, one of the attorneys for the Commercial and First National Fire Insurance companies, plaintiffs in the action, said that he did not know what would be done in the event Col. Judson has left Washington without hav ing been served with a summons. It had been the intention of the recent head of the engineer department of the local government, who yesterday formal-capacity by order of the War Department, to depart for Lexington, Ky., on the Chesapeake and Ohio train leaving Washington at 3:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A representative of the United States marshal's office, armed with a summon waited for Col. Judson at Union station

ly terminated his services in that City Systematically Searched.

and searched the train, but the engineer

Frederick C. Lee, secretary to the Com missioner during his incumbency in office. worked at the District building until late last night, but denied knowing any thing of Col. Judson's plans. Mr. Lee said that up until the time Col Judson left the District building, early vesterday afternoon, he had not been served with a summons. He stated that nell, Rhode Island; R. M. Eaches, Penn-Col. Judson had expected to leave for Kentucky and that he had no reason to jr., Iowa; W. H. Ferguson, Missouri; J. believe that he had changed his plans. That the flling of the suit came as a complete surprise to Col. Judson seems C. G. Halsel, Mississippi; C. L. Hausen, to be the prevailing opinion among ofvigorously protested against this in ficials of the local government, who yes-

Reception Held at Noon. The reception to the retiring engineer official was held shortly before noon and to friends Col. Judson announced that he would leave at 3:15 o'clock for Lexington, Ky., the home of Mrs. Judson, where he would remain for awhile, prior to sailing for Panama, where he has been ordered by the War Department to report for duty. It is understood that Col. Judson has engaged the passage on the steamer Panama, leaving New York for the Canal Zone March 6. 'The filing of the damage suits yesterday was the subject of much comment among District officials. Speculation as to what Texas; S. P. Frisbee, New York; C. course will be followed by the insurance i companies in the event Col. Judson has left the city without having been served with a warrant was rife, the general impression being that the contemplated proceedings will be delayed, to say the Redfield Laughs at News.

When Representative Redfield asked by a reporter for The Star yesterday afternoon what course he intended to follow in regard to the suit brought against him by the insurance companies he said he had not heard of the suit bethew E. McDonald, Simsbury, Conn., and > Mr. Redfield, however, gave it as his opinion that a member of Congress was not liable to such a suit, since the investigation of the insurance companies was rought about in the pursuance of his public duties as a representative. No papers, he said, had yet been served upon him in the suit. When told that the companies were suing himself and others for half a million dollars, he said, laughingly: "They would have a hard time collecting a half million dollars from me.'

MANN DELAYS DECISION.

Virginia Governor Silent Regarding Fate of the Allens.

Special Dispatch to The Star. RICHMOND, Va., March 1.-Gov. Mann has not announced his decision in the case of Floyd and Claude Allen, who are under sentence to die Friday next for shooting up the Carroll county court. It was generally expected that the decision would come before this. There is a belief around the capital that the governor has about reached the conclusion to let the men go to the death chair.

For several days the opinion has been freely expressed that he would send crime was committed Gov. Mann was student of Harvard, was arrested today too, he conceded, but no dead swan. He statement, will be about $78,000,000. The hended and given the full extent of the after a chase which lasted nearly a year. law. He based his opinion largely on the printed reports of the affair. The evidence and the facts adduced at the trial ed several Chicagoans by chattel morthave not, it is thought, been such as to gage swindles. His address was 725 East cause him to change his mind. It is understood this evening that he will make known his decision late Monday afternoon

WITNESSES MAKE CHARGES.

Alleged That Effort Was Made to Change Their Testimony.

CHICAGO, March 1.-Charges that an attempt had been made to intimidate two witnesses for the state lent interest today to the trial of Charles Cramer and his wife, charged with the murder of Miss Sophia Singer of Baltimore. The checks in New York department stores. names of the witnesses were not divulged, but one of them stated that he had been offered $5 to change his testimony and the other said he had been threatened if he did not change his. Judge Kersten said that inasmuch as neither of the witnesses had attempted to alter his testimony, the court would take no action.

Edward Kennedy, deputy coroner, testified that he had admonished the defendants that any admissions they might make would be used against them at the and his faithfulness to duty as he saw steamer Governor Cobb from Havana, trial. Kennedy's testimony was introit, a fidelity which never faltered or grew cuba. The Venezuelan left here tonight pale.

Cuba. The Venezuelan left here tonight duced to pave the way for introduction ager Edwin E. Slick. The minimum rate for Washington, where he will remain of the confessions of Cramer and his for laborers beginning today will be 17 Charles E. Malpas. forman of binding.

SENATE ADDS MILLIONS

Measure Passed at Early Hour This Morning Carries $28,000,000.

The Senate early this morning passed the general deficiency appropriations bill, carrying about $28,000,000, which s about $4,000,000 more than was provided by the bill as it was passed by the House. There were numerous amendments, many of them of special O'Connell and Lynch Traveled 800 interest to the District. An appropriation of $35,000 for the removal of the building and the grading and improvements of the land purchased for the enlargement of the Capitol grounds between the Capitol and the Union station was agreed upon. On the motion of Senator Stone, a democrat, the Senate postponed for two years the time for taking effect of the reorganization of the custom service and the consolidation of many collectors' officers. Senator La Follette also secured chosen, as has been suggested. I do not Court. the insertion of an amendment providing $500 000 to enable the interstate com- But should it happen that I become a administration will probably be nearly merce commission to determine the physical valuation of railroads.

More Money for Secretary. Another amendment proposes to fix the salary of the secretary to the President at $7,500 per year, instead of having it cut to $6,000 after March 4, as proposed last year by the democratic House. A further amendment provides $2,810 for the George Washington University Hospital as an additional amount required for the care and treatment of indigent 1912. The amount carried for the paypriation of $4,140 is made to pay Thomas W. and Alice N. Keller for damages to their property in connection with the new Union station. There was a spirited debate about o'clock this morning over a proposal to pay $6,500, or the equivalent of one year's ate agreed to grant the $6,500.

PASS MENTAL EXAM

salary, to the widow of the late Col.

Ransdell, who was sergeant-at-arms of the Senate. Senator Williams of Mississippi wanted the amount cut, but the Sen-

Seventy-One Successful Applicants for Admission as "Middies." special Dispatch to The Star.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 1.-Out of a total of 135 candidates who took the recent mental examination for adinto the Naval Academy as midshipmen, Col. Judson then became the object of 71, or 52 per cent, were successful. There a systematic search in the city. Every is one Marylander in the list, an Aneffort was made to locate him, but at a napolis boy, William S. B. Claud, who was appointed as a second alternate. Following is the list of those who passed: Principals-J. K. Allen, New Mexico; W. H. Ball, Missouri; P. L. Boehme, Illinois; C. H. Bowman, Pennsylvania; H. W. Brown and W. C. Calhoun, Pennsylvania; C. Campbell, Kansas; H. W. Clark, New York; M. Comstock, North Dakota; J. A. Curran, Maine; W. P. Davis, Idaho; W. W. Dun- man, and there will be little need for tration Miss Hagner went to the War sylvania; Welmore, Alabama; H. E. Ely, O. Goad, Illinois; C. S. Grove, 3d, Pennsylvania; E. G. Hagen, New Jersey; P North Dakota; A. Harrison, Kentucky G. Hawkins, Missouri; H. D. Hayes. Colorado; J. K. Houssels, Texas; C. T. Howard, Georgia; H. W. Jackson, Kansas; K. Keller, Pennsylvania; C. W. Kirtland, Florida; I. Lehrfeld, New York; J. P. Manton, Ohio; E. F. B. Merrell, Pennsylvania; J. T. Metcaif, Rhode Island; E. A. Mitchell, New York; E. J. Moran, Illinois; W. C. Moss, Ohio; E. E. held for Representative Wilson the more Muschlitz, Pennsylvania; A. G. Cover- fertile field of activity in the President's man, Georgia; J. W. Paige, Vermont; R. M. Parks, Nevada; C. M. Reagle, Ohio: B. M. Rock, Michigan; B. Z. Sizer, Illinois; F. T. Spellman, Massachusetts; W. H. Stanton, Georgia; L. S. Steves, Michigan; J. H. Toombs, Georgia; M. G. Twyman, Virginia; H. R. Whittaker, Alternates-L. B. Austin, Pennsylvania;

A. Byron, jr., senatorial; W. S. B. Claud, Maryland; W. S. Crane, Ohio; Gleich, Illinois: D. Glick, Pennsylvania; R. H. Harper, Texas; C. F. Holden, Maine; W. H. Hopkins, jr., Tennessee; M. A. Jacobs, Mississippi; E. J. Lowry Rhode Island; J. S. McCan, Ohio; W. J. Morcock, Georgia; E. B. Rogers, Virginia; E. R. H. Sherman, Georgia; E. Sparrow, Nebraska; R. Wyman, Wyoming, and F. W. Beltz, Pennsylvania.

FUGITIVE FOR TEN YEARS. Convicted Man Begs for the Imposition of Sentence. CINCINNATI, Ohlo, March 1.-Thomas Franklin county bar at Columbus, Ohio, and a member of a well known Ohio family, indicted and convicted of black- Mr. Wilson's having been put in jail in mail, appeared before United States District Judge Hollister today and begged to be given the punishment to avoid President and Vice President, a trinity which he had been a fugitive for ten Steele was accompanied by J. Brady an attorney of Cleveland, Ohio. He declared that after having been convicted and sentenced to a fine and thirteen months' imprisonment at Fort Leavenworth he had left Columbus while out on bail. He said he changed his name and located in a foreign country, where he has since been prosperous. Worried their tribute to Representative Wilson, by a troublesome conscience, however, and expressed the hope that he would be he recently decided to return and accephis punishment. His case was taken under advisement by the court.

ON CHARGE OF FRAUD.

Detectives Arrest Charles M. Eaton, Jr., Said to Be West Pointer.

Special Dispatch to The Star. CHICAGO, March 1 .- Elmer D. Web-

Webster's legal name is Eaton since his adoption by a New York family. His dy; Charles Winslow, James O'Connell, foster mother, Mrs. Ella M. Eaton, lives president of the metal trades department, She has several times rescued her adopted son from scrapes. Eaton is married and has two children. His wife formerly was the wife of Ed- trades department, A. F. L.; George Parward J. Morrissey, a railroad official, who has moved from Chicago to New York. Her maiden name was Mary Hayes and House of Representatives; James Mills was seen to fall by persons in Mills was seen to his assistance. gan, a telephone official. Eaton's criminal career began in 1902, lings, John A. McDonald, vice president when, it is charged, he passed forged Central Labor Union; John F. Costello and served three years, almost killing sylvania,

Ten Thousand Workmen Benefited.

the warden on one occasion.

IS BACKED BY LABOR MISS HAGNER'S DUTY

Head New Department.

for the Post.

APPLAUDED BY 11 SPEAKERS

Miles to Attend Feast of Compliment.

chairman of the House labor committee,

to the indorsement given his candidacy

Eleven speakers, including representa-

the Washington Central Labor Union in Urged by Federation.

the American Federation of Labor, of which he is president, has officially pre-

the representative of labor which labor

the uplift of mankind, and accomplishing things by energy, persistence and intelli-

Frank Morrison, secretary of the Amer-viewpoint that Providence works in mys-

defeat of Representative Wilson for re-election in the prospect for labor of his

the future, saw a better condition coming, when every man will have in his heart the sense of the brotherhood of the minister and the lawyer or other professional men, and labor will rank in Tribute of Colleague.

Representative Frank Buchanan of Chicago, himself a labor man, and associate of Representative Wilson on the House

labor committee, paid tribute to the work in Congress of his colleague, and expresed the view that his absence from loss to labor. He hoped that the future cabinet. He credited Mr. Wilson with the enactment of more labor legislation

during the last session than has passed told of his association with Representaexpressed belief in the strong probability that Representative Wilson would be a

James O'Connell, president of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor, and James Lynch, pres-

Union, both announce that, with Mr.

from Indianapolis to pay tribute to Representative Wilson at this banquet, in the name of all the organized labor bodies with headquarters at that center. Both

James A. Gleason, attorney for district

No. 2, United Mine Workers of America.

from Representative Wilson's home town, recited instances of Mr. Wilson's early struggle, when his labor principles caused him to be blacklisted, and he had not

West Virginia for his labor expressions

Representative Wilson in the next cabinet he insisted, would form, with the

of poor men who would prove a power of strength to work out things to the bene-

Others Pay Tribute.

J. M. Place, Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau; Frank A. Kidd, toastmaster, and John B. Colpoys, chairman of the committee on arrangements, all added

a member of the cabinet of President

Representative Wilson, replying, de clared he was not present to sing either his industrial or his political swan song

He admitted being a "lame duck." but men defeated for re-election.

declared that was a long way off from being a dead swan, referring to the

He told of the first strike he conducted.

when an eleven-year-old trapper in a coal

List of Guests.

in honor of Representative Wilson were Representatives James McDermott, M. H.

Mahr. Frank Buchanan and Rufus Har-

A. F. L.; Grant Hamilton, Thomas Tracey, secretary label trades department,

A. F. L.; Albert Berries, secretary metal national committeeman for the District of Public Printer Samuel Donnelly, George

government printing office.

F. N. Whitehead, Capt

In 1904 he was arrested in Baltimore Columbia; Walter Sherwood of Penn

Among the guests invited to be present

Traveled From Indianapolis.

Representative Rufus Hardy of Texas

Congress in the past sixteen years.

tive Wilson on the committee member of the next cabinet.

indorsed his candidacy.

it of labor.

the Ebbitt House, last night,

cabinet of the administration.

selection for a cabinet position.

dignity with any calling.

gent grasp of his topic.

ture of the President to become law.

of mankind.

GOMPERS IS FOR HIM HER PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Tells Banqueters He Urged Him Secretary to Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Elihu Root and Others at Intervals.

Miss Isabelle Hagner, who has been se lected by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson to act a: ner social and personal secretary, has had considerable experience in this position. She acted in a similar capacity for Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, and was also employed by Mrs. Mark Hanna, Mrs. Elihu Root, Miss Wilson, daughter of "I cannot overlook the suggestion made the Secretary of Agriculture, and others. here tonight that I may become a mem- She is the daughter of Dr. Charles ber of the cabinet of the incoming ad- Hagner, and is a descendant of one of ministration. I have no knowledge, how- the oldest families in this city, Her unever, as to whom the President-elect will cle. Justice Alexander B. Hagner, is a select as his advisers. If I should be retired Justice of the District Supreme know if I can size up to the situation. Miss Hagner's duties under the Wilson member of the cabinet, whatever energy, the same as those which she executed whatever experience, whatever intelliduring the Roosevelt regime. Every funcgence I may possess will be directed and tion at the executive mansion has a spedevoted to the extension of the welfare cial ceremony, and these, being different in many ways from functions held by This was the response of Representa- state governments, will make it necestive William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, sary that Mrs. Wilson learn numerous things in this connection for head of the Department of Labor created in the bill passed by Congress yesterday and awaiting only the signa-Arrangements for people to see Mrs. Wilson will be left entirely to the discrepatients during the fiscal years 1:0) to tives of organized labor, national and tion of the social secretary. Then, too local, associates in Congress, an execu- she will take care of the mail coming for ment of judgment against the District tive official of the present administration Mrs. Wilson. Personal letters will be and laymen, gave expression to the hope separated from the others and given to that Representative Wilson would be the Mrs. Wilson, Other letters will be read choice of Woodrow Wilson to fill the by the secretary and summarized, so prospective new office in the cabinet, in after-dinner talks at the dinner given that in a few moments the contents of in honor of the retiring congressman by each can be outlined to the President's Answering these letters wifl also be the care of Miss Hagner. In many cases she will use her own discretion and sign her own name; in others she will sign Mrs. Samuel Gompers let his audience into Wilson's, bracketing her own initials be-the secret that the executive council of neath. Besides these duties, Miss Hagner will have much to say as to decorations for sented to the President-elect the name of choosing sets of dishes and silverware to state dinners, the placing of the guests. William B. Wilson as its candidate for be used, and attending to the menus. Sh head of the Department of Labor, or, fail- may even be called upon to assist Mrs ing the creation of that department, as Wilson in shopping.

Plans for Receiving Callers.

Miss Hagner had about four years of considered itself entitled to have in the experience prior to her engagement with Mrs. Roosevelt. She made her debut in He paid tribute to "Honorable Bill Wil- society circles before the Roosevelt reson" as a conservative friend of labor, gime, and is thoroughly familiar with all working on broad, humanitarian lines for phases of social life.

Her Initiatory Work. Miss Hagner's first work, which led her ican Federation of Labor, speaking to the to the social secretaryship, was in senderious ways, saw compensation in the Later she assisted Mrs. Cornelius Bliss. wife of the former Secretary of the Interior. Following this she was asked by Mr. Morrison, optimistically forecasting several prominent women to help them in attending to their social affairs. At the end of the Roosevelt admin Department, where she had been prev ously employed, and has remained there

It is expected that Miss Hagner will have a busy time following the inauguration of the new President. The many changes in the cabinet official ranks and ing out some invitations for a friend.

in congressional and other circles will, of course, add to her duties

CONDEMNS BUNNY HUG. the next Congress would prove a great Chapter of D. A. R. Adopts Resolution and Elects Delegates. Special Dispatch to The Star. CUMBERLAND, Md., March 1.-Cresap Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, this city, has passed a resolution condemning the modern dances. such as "turkey trop," "bunny hug" and merchant marine and fisheries, and the others. The chapter also passed a resodrafting of legislation to strike the chains lution favoring Senator Webb's bill to of slavery from the wrists of seamen. He prevent the desecration of the American Mrs. Mattingly of Washington, D. C., and Miss Catherine Millman, this city. were elected delegates to represent Cresap Chapter at the national congress in Washington in April.

TURKEY BACKS DOWN ident of the International Typographical Gompers, they have traveled 800 miles Places Ottoman Cause in European > Powers' Hands. LONDON, March 1.-The Turkish government today definitely abandoned its prohibitive stipulations in connection with peace and placed the Ottoman cause un reservedly in the hands of the European powers with a request to conclude peace as advantageously as possible for Turk-money to buy shoes. He also told of ish interests. Unless, as has been the case before, Turkey changes her mind before terms can be concluded, it is believed here direct peace negotiations will be resumed speedily, with every prospect of an early ROME, March 1.-The Turkish ambassador today informed the minister of foreign affairs, Marquis di San Giulano, that Turkey appeals to the powers to nego tiate a peace settlement.

SURPLUS IN TREASURY.

Customs Receipts and Internal Revenue Boom Federal Finances.

The booming of customs receipts and the record drinking and smoking of Americans, yielding enormous internal revenue returns, have given the federal government a surplus of $7,379,000 for legend that is responsible for the now the current fiscal year, as compared with popular expression applied to congress- a deficit of $29,570,000 a year ago. Total receipts for February reached $54.803.000, from which was expended

HARRY MILLS DRINKS ACID.

No Reason Assigned by Police for Young Man's Suicide. Standing in the front yard at 3132

South street northwest last night Harry Mills, twenty-two years old, of 1252 29th street northwest drank a quantity of carbolic acid. He died while being conveyed Mills was seen to fall by persons in the her father is Dennis S. Hayes of Wauke- A. Gleason, attorney for district No. 2, house. They went to his assistance. The United Mine Workers of America, Samuel patrol wagon of the seventh precinct was According to the Pinkerton officials Gompers, Frank Morrison, Milton Snel- called. No reason for the suicide was learned by the police,

Good Road for Automobiles.

Special Dispatch to The Star.

William Wescott of California, D. CUMBERLAND, Md., March 1. - The His foster mother, Mrs. Eaton, who is prominent in eastern society, has traveled bama, Frank Feehan of Pennsylvania, work of resurfacing the old Baltimore to Baltimore and St. Louis to secure his P. J. Ryan, P. Shugrue, Luke F. Ludlow. turnpike, more popularly known as the National pike, between Cumberland and Cleary, Joseph A. Wilner, S. Edward Beach, Prof. Willis S. Moore, chief of Hancock, thirty-nine miles, is progressing the weather bureau; Oscar F. Nelson, rapidly. When completed this will be JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 1.-Ten thou. Thomas McQuard, William Clark, Arthur one of the best roads in the state, and Halder, James Lynch, president Inter- the distance between here and Hancock sand employes of Cambria Steel Company | Halder, James Lynch, president line distance of the d was affected by an increase in wages an- Dolan, president Steam Shovelmen's quicker than the time made by the fast nounced at noon today by General Man- Union; John Lorch, William S. Waudby, express trains on the Baltimore and Ohio teen miles longer.

TO THE DEFICIENCY BILL Representative Wilson May Will Serve Mrs. Wilson in Social and Personal Relation.