WASHINGTON,

THEODORE W. NOYES.... Editor

vening Star Mewspaper Compan

Office, 11th St. and Pennsylvania Avenue W York Office: Tribune Building. D Office: First National Bank Building. D Office: 2 Regent St., London, fingland in order to avoid delays on account or absence, letters to THE STAR shoules addressed to any individual connectes the office, but simply to THE STAR, or i ditorial or Business Pepartment, according

The President and Congress.

The talk of an extra session leads to the question: How strong an influence is the President likely to possess and exert with the Sixty-fourth Congress?

At the start, and for a long time the Sixty-third Congress confessed his influence in the frankest manner. It consulted him about everything, and followed him without objection in many things. It referred disputed matters to him, and accepted his decisions. It seemed largely to surrender to him its constitutional initiative.

A change followed the November elections, which were construed by the practical politicians of both parties as anti-administration in meaning. Some democrats who before had confined their criticism of the President to private conversations now expressed themselves openly. In the Senate some of his appointments to office were rejected, democrats leading the opposition. The ship purchase bill, to which he gave full support, failed because of a democratic defection. He found himself without the power he had been exercising only a few months earlier. On March 4, when that Congress adjourned, Mr. Wilson's prestige as party leader was at a low ebb, the owest it had reached.

Recently, the President has recov ered, so far as the general public is concerned, much of the lost ground. Sharp criticism has given way to praise, which comes from all sections and both parties.

But this has not been produced by domestic questions. Business is still halted. The tariff is still under fire in the manufacturing states. The national defense is still glaringly inadequate. Several important promises made at Baltimore are as yet unredeemed.

The new Congress must deal with these questions. It will be interrogated as to the revenues, as to the business depression, as to the national defense, and in some form must answer with legislation or

In the House an abnormal and unrieldy majority has given place to a on deck. In the Senate the majority has been increased, but six of the and with a view to making effective seven democratic senators who broke use of a system of muscles that is away from the President on the ship purchase bill last winter will be in their seats next winter, ready if challenged to resume their inde-

In political circles there is much curiosity as to how all this will work out-as to whether the President can hold his new prestige, and capitalize it months hence, with a presidential campaign rapidly taking shape.

Charity for Mexico in its present destitution should go far toward breaking down the dislike for this country that has been taught as a national principle.

The republican party may experience the same old difficulty in selecting a candidate who will meet with Col. Roosevelt's emphatic approval.

In spite of the imposing picturesqueness of a great vessel, mer chantman or warrior, the submarine is now mistress of the seas.

Decoration Day, and Preparedness.

The most beautiful, impressive and significant of all our national ceremonies takes place tomorrow, when the graves of men who fought, and pat on their old opinions of one anthe great majority of whom died, in other. the service of the country will be decorated by loving and grateful hands. No other day counts for more in our national life and feeling. the young graves of the Spanish war those who profited so much by the that they are the more numerous by Property owners have entered proreason of the fact that in both crises test against this additional trackage, the country was unprepared for while other citizens have urged the war. In 1861 our small navy was not extension. At yesterday's hearing on only poorly equipped, but scattered, the subject arguments were presentand our army, then as now, negli- ed by both sides, and a strong showgible in point of numbers. Mr. ing was made by each, so that the defense of the Union, had no force a difficult task in ruling on the apto use. At the start he was all but plication of the company. Perhaps As we your diessings great company to use. At the start he was all but plication of the company. We ask one favor more: Don't shoot helpless. The north responded to his the most interesting point raised appeals, but could not at once rem- against the proposed new trackage As pictures fair entrance our eyes, edy unpreparedness. Our institutions was that action should be delayed And splendid buildings swiftly rise, trembled for a time on the verge of until it could be determined whether Some of your skill you set apart trembled for a time on the verge of destruction for the lack of trained powers of assertion.

been in fighting condition. But we Of course, this test cannot be applied such condition the inhabitants of our the car company. It may be assumed Atlantic sea-coast cities were "seeing that the promoters of the jitney serv SUNDAY May 30, 1915 things." From Maine southward, vis- ice are seeking the most profitable been trained to arms. Grant, Sher- for the utilities commission to deter-Johnston were all West Pointers. In need of traction service in the sec-Cuba, Shafter and Wheeler, in Porto tion sought to be covered by the pro Rico, Miles, and in the Philippines, jected new car line, and second Merritt and Lawton, all trained whether there is any prospect that soldiers, gave an excellent account of that need may be met by jitneys runthemselves in our little brush with ning on schedule and definitely as-

Volunteers would distinguish themimpossible to imagine a day or an occasion when American citizens would fail their country. But if war should come we should again be cursed with unpreparedness, and again be forced as a factor of weight. to heavy sacrifices in blood and treasure until the proper preparation could be made. Why delay? Why not take the stitch in time? Who really believes that in either a larger army or navy there would be anything menacing, or in contravention of the spirit of our government?

Exercise and Health. After forty years of age, warns the public health service in a bulletin, the expectation of life is at present less than it was thirty years ago, as a result of the conditions of modern living. So the service urges people of sedentary habits to take more exercise, to combat the increasing tendency toward degenerative diseases. lasting friendship. Daily use of muscles not employed in the course of the working routine is their errands without exertion. Machinery works for them. The telephone "saves them steps." The parcel post carries their bundles. This very perfection of organization militates against their use of muscles that were once their faithful, necessary servants. Digestion is weakened in consequence, and they suffer little ills that are merely symptoms of physical degeneration.

A familiar excuse for not walking to and from work is the lack of time. That is a subterfuge. There is always time for such exercise if the day's schedule is properly adjusted. Rise earlier in the morning. Have breakfast half an hour earlier, and to get the right amount of sleep go to bed half an hour earlier. If the distance to the place of business is too great to be covered afoot, walk part way. Walk after dinner, if not before dinner. Walk twice around the and take time for exercise, and the result will surely be beneficial.

The public health service has conferred a boon upon humanity by giving this emphatic warning. It be- culty than America in seeing a good hooves every person who is leading a reason for the constant upward tend- A Forest small one, which will need handling placid, artificially aided life to strike with care. A new floor leader will be out promptly on a line of exercise, not too vigorously at first, but sanely more wonderful than the most complex and efficient of the machines that now serve mankind so treacherously.

> If the dance craze increases, cities may have to take positive steps to make a large element of the population take sufficient time for eating and sleeping.

China is subject to a great deal of disapproving comment, but with all get stone-bruises." the disadvantages of her position she is better off than some of the nations of Europe.

Dr. Cook says that he will climb Mount Everest, but offers no guarantee that he will prove to the satisfaction of geographic experts that he disposition to talk back."

The gentlemen to whom 1916 looks good will now become more numerous from month to month, and will not be limited to any one party.

Switzerland is naturally a little anxious as to whether her territory s going to be made to do service as a thoroughfare.

Both Col. Roosevelt and William Barnes, jr., are doubtless standing

The 17th Street Extension.

The public utilities commission now has before it the difficult problem of The old graves of the civil war and deciding on the proposed Capital Traction extension along 17th street will alike show the remembrance of from U street south, for which various routes are suggested, designed devotion and sacrifice those graves to give north and south communication in the area between the 14th We should not forget, however, street and Connecticut avenue lines. until it could be determined whether the jitney bus service now being installed in Washington will furnish She digs anew the soldier's grave.

were not. Our army was still small unless a specific jitney service is inand poorly supplied, and our navy in stalled along the route projected by Atlantic sea-coast cities were "seeing that the promoters of the jitney servicings." From Maine southward, visions of Spanish ships kept folks awake nights.

In both wars the volunteers distinguished themselves, but the regulars were the source of the real strength. The leading commanders on both sides in the civil war had have been stringed to away. Grant Sher. man and Sheridan, Lee, Jackson and mine first whether there is a real many of the residents along the selves again in a time of peril. It is streets named for the extension oppose the laving of tracks in front of their properties, and so far as the public interests warrant their opposition should be taken into account

The Study of Spanish.

At a meeting of the Spanish-Amer ican Atheneum in this city the othe night a speaker gave statistics re cently compiled showing that of the 100,000,000 people in the United States only about 40,000 are at present percentage when the proximity of a percentage when the proximity of a vast Spanish population to this country is considered. The pan-American financial congress just closed here has developed the urgent need of closer relations between the people of the two continents, not merely for purposes of trade expansion but for the cultivation of a more genuine and the course of the working routine is essential, more walking is desirable, games in the open air are beneficial, even gymnasium work is useful, although the open field is preferable.

This is sound advice. Every modern condition tends to make men and women use their bodies less. Street cars and automobiles carry them on their errands without exertion. Maenterprise of the South and Central knowledge of the common tongue of the millions with whom we are destined in the years to come to have close intercourse. The public schools should be helpful in spreading this knowledge. Colleges should put Spanish upon the list of preferred modern languages. The 40,000 now engaged in this study should in another year be increased to half a million, at least, if the United States is to make a definite advance toward real acquaintance with the Latin American people.

> The Sultan of Turkey shows some fortitude in holding his present position without venturing any announcement that he is going to the front in person.

Predictions that this country will be involved in war are possibly based on a magnified regard for the maxim. block at the lunch hour. Make time "It is always the unexpected that happens."

> London is complaining of the high cost of meat, but is finding less diffi-

The airship raid which kills a few women and children makes "the conquest of the air" so often mentioned seem a rather pathetic boast.

SHOOTING STARS.

BY PHILANDER JOHNSON.

In Disagreement. "Can you remember when you happy, barefoot boy?" "No. And my idea of a happy boy is one who wears shoes and doesn't Murmur of a Misanthrope.

"Can't you get the telephone to an swer?"

"No." replied Mr. Growcher. "The operator is one woman I'd like to meet. She doesn't show the slightest Modes of Travel.

Though a motor may sometimes play curious pranks

That fill you with fear through an through.

If it lands you all dry and intact, just give thanks

That it wasn't a summer canoe.

Aggrieved. "Did you say that my production is thoughtful, educational and moral entertainment which couldn't offend the most refined sensibilities?" asked the manager. "Yes," replied the playgoer. "In' it true?" "Maybe it is. But I don't see why you should want to knock business by talking about it."

"Dere's a few grown folks," said Uncle Eben, "dat knows how to manage chillun; but dar's a heap mo' chillun dat knows how to manage grown folks."

Civilization.

Civilization! Mighty word, Which with all reverence is heard! You teach the world to read and write And into day transform the night.

Italy's entrance into the war, intro-ducing a fresh lot of geographical jaw-breakers, emphasizes the need of a so-ciety for the prevention of cruelty to proofreaders. When Kitchener said the war would begin in May he must have had Italy's declaration in mind. we your blessings great compute

For guns to shatter works of art. As Science seeks our lives to save Judging from the Italians' sweep into Austria and their brushes with the enemy, they must be celebrating cleanup week.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

So many new war devices have been tried that Italy may throw Vesuvius at the Austrians. in 1898 our 10e would not have the facilities needed for transport in As you are wise and resolute, given us great concern if we had the section proposed to be covered. We pray, be generous, Don't shoot!

WHAT THE GOVERNMENT IS DOING FIFTY YEARS AGO

harvesting the nation's mammoth grain partment Circular, as the best device through which to furnish the necessary information. ant Secretary of Labor Post phrased it the other day, "without human waste." Every year the farmers of the west Every year the farmers of the west need handreds of thousands of workers to harvest their grain, and every year hundreds of thousands of workers scattered over the country are in need of jobs. The men and the jobs have never been well matched, however. In signed to that route. Naturally, never been well matched, however. In conditions in the west, the Department of Labor has been steadily feeling its way toward the formation of an employment service, and just two months ago actually organized such an agency. ago actually organized such an agency. The country was then divided into eighteen districts, about fifty district headquarters and subheadquarters were established, and the business of putting man and tobe into tooch. studying Spanish. This is a trifling putting men and jobs into touch was formally begun. During the two months of active operthe cultivation of a more genuine and lasting friendship.

It is not sufficient to rely upon the leaves of agricultural Department hundreds of agricultural agents ment hundreds of agricultural agents when the sufficient to rely upon the leaves of agricultural agents when the sufficient to rely upon the leaves of agricultural agents when the sufficient to rely upon the leaves of agricultural agents when the sufficient to rely upon the leaves of agricultural agents when the leaves of the leaves of eral activities will be of an interestate character, the work wholly inside state lines being done largely through cooperation with state labor officials.

One of the most interesting phases of the bureau's work will be its operation of personally conducted trains for "vacation workers." The plan will be tried only on an experimental scale tried only on an experimental scale this season, but is looked upon by the department officials as most promising. At first the plan will be tried only with workers accustomed to high degrees of heat—probably steel and glass workers. Plans will be made for a trainload of such workers to take vacations at one time, and an agent of the government will take charge of the party and conduct it to the harvest fields. The radical change of employment, it is believed, will serve as an outing and recreation, and the workers of the serve was recently carried out in Tennessee. To arouse interest in his institution Prof. D. R. Harworth of the East Tennessee State Normal Schele received by a party of eight. trainload of such workers to take vacations at one time, and an agent of the government will take charge of the party and conduct it to the harvest fields. The radical change of employment, it is believed, will serve as an outing and recreation, and the workers will, at the same time, be reinforcing their pocketbooks. After several weeks the members of the party will be taken back to their regular jobs without economic waste. This plan is in satisfactory use by agreement between agriculturists and operators of industries in some communities.

It is the belief of Labor Department officials that, with the experience

It is the belief of Labor Department officials that, with the experience gained this season, the harvest employment service can be greatly strengthened. With the co-operation of state and municipal labor and employment agencies, they believe it can be brought in a few years to a high degree of efficiency.

For the use of his forest rangers those of his agents who are perhaps the country and all its auxiliary bancities-Uncle Sam has odern devices of urban office practice. He has just issued to all the forest officers copies of a new edition of the be "made in America" from the plant-thority and has come to be known in the forest service as "the ranger's Bible." The regulation and instructions must necessarily often be changed and amended. Keeping the manual up to date is a matter of great importance, for Congress in authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to establish rules and regulations provided that a violation of any of them should be punishion of new uses at home the commitfice and each individual a better perspective as to the relation of his specialized task to the work of the whole department.

The Agricultural Department has had

ITALY IN THE WAR.

From the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times.

From the Milwaukee Sentinel.

rom the Toronto Mail and Empire

From the Philadelphia North American

Italy caught the last car going to the front. Greece and Rumania will have to follow in jitneys.

In addition to establishing a new pub lication for its own use, the Depart ment of Agriculture has recently mad of jobs. The men and the jobs have never been well matched, however. In some places there has been a surfeit of workers and suffering, and in others, a dearth of men and loss of grain. Recognizing the need for relief, Uncle Sam, with his two-monthold employment bureau, is trying to bring order out of chaos by guiding the workers to the places where they are needed.

Since last harvest season, when little more could be done than to observe the Denartment.

At the same time the department, nonthly statistical journal,

> The steady advance in the adoption f progressive methods by the schools of the United States

Development. tion recently ered by the bureau of education, much of which tends to indicate that the progress is most marked in some of the smaller cities and towns. In Hays City, Kan., it was found the state and municipality have gone into partnership, the entire city school system having been turned over to the Fort Hays Kansas State Normal School for use as a "pedagogical laboratory." The city schools now have a free dental clinic, free medical inspection, superised playgrounds, organized athletics, vised playgrounds, organized athletics, a social center and community music. In the far west the wave of progress has caught hold of the country schools throughout the state of Washington, which are specializing in warm lunches. The teachers are trained in household arts, and while they are providing the lunches to better the physical condition of the pupils they are making use of the preparation and serving of the food to teach domestic science.

spirit of America, is Flag Materials in about nine cases Imported. out of ten not a do-most effectually separated ners that fly from thousands of public from the civilization of buildings, army posts and ships' masts adopted one of the most practically all of it imported. In the future, however, a large proportion of the government's flags will National Forest Manual in loose-leaf form.

This book, containing regulations and Instructions concerning the use. development of the general supply committee of the This book, containing regulations and instructions concerning the use, development and protection of the national forests, is the forest worker's final authority and has come to be known in thority and has come to be known in the state of the research of the Treasury Department, on the treasury Department of the treasury Departmen or Congress in authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to established as a criminal act. In the past interlineation and pasting have been resorted to, but have been unsatisfactory, so that the loose-leaf plan has been adopted. Now when an amendment is expense for insertion at the proper place and is distributed to the forest officers.

The regulations and instructions in the manual are under the headings; the manual are under the headings; "Administration and Protection," "Trespass," "Grazing Lands," "Forest Products" and "Silviculture," which latter term includes timber sales, free use, forest extensions, forest investing and working plans. The importance of these regulations on many of which financial transactions are based, can be estimated from the fact that though the forests are not administred primarily to secure revenue and though national forest work in America is in its early stages, the annual forest receipts are already approximately $2,500,000.

**

Following the example of the best organized and most efficient industrial concerns of the countaint of Agricultural try, the Department of Agriculture has thouse organ," a publication for circulation among workers of the department of the department of the propertion and protection flags and consumers of flags is the coast guard, which contains the old revenue cutter flags are used up much more quickly than in others. One of the greatest consumers of flags is the coast guard, which contains the old revenue cutter flags are used up much more quickly than in others. One of the greatest consumers of flags is the coast guard, which contains the old revenue cutter flags are used up much more quickly than in others. One of the greatest consumers of flags and a some flags in the nountain sequence of the greatest consumers of flags and some flags in the roughest weather, and the flags of many of the life-saving stations are almost constant and further expenses the community of the contains the old revenue cutters flags are used up much more quickly the cotton

ined and further experiments carried out.

In the meantime, from at least 1,000 public buildings, 250 life-saving stations, 75 coast guard cutters and 50 stations of the public health service—all The Agricultural Department has had a growth in recent years that has been perhaps greater and more rapid than a "made-in-America" fabric of cotton.

From the Spartanburg Herald.

Where the headline artists of the country got the idea that Italy "plunged" into war is beyond us. If there ever was a country that oozed into war, that country is Italy.

Italy's entrance into the war could have been worse. After Peremysl and Suczawa, why Cervignano and Terzo are mere child's play.

From the Birmingham Age-Herald.

Italy felt that she was compelled to go to war. A nation voluntarily going to war in these days of cryptic diplomacy would be a novelty.

From the Harrisburg Patriot.

From the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

INDEPENDENT TRANSYLVANIA IN THE STAR

The grand review of the armies of Potomac, Tennessee and Georgia Strong Natural and among these is took place in Wash-Grand Review ington Tuesday and Stops Trial. Wednesday, May 23 independent principality. In 1867 and 24, 1865. So keen Transylvania was forcibly seized by was the public interest in this great parade of the victorious Union troops that the trial of the conspirators was virtually forgotten. Indeed, according the Transylvanian Alps on the south possible to proceed with the case, beroom at the Washington barracks, ownue for the review. Consequently after a discussion of the matter, the in order that the proceedings might not to the military demonstration uptown session of the court strains of martial music were wafted through the open out. Upon adjournment the prisoners were removed to their cells, with the exception of Herold, who was permit write a letter, his handcuffs being temporarily removed for this purpose.

The review brought great numbers of people to Washington in addition to the troops themselves, so Washington that the capital was un-

Crowded. comfortably crowded.
The Star of May 23, 865, thus describes the congestion due o the great event:

ravel to Washington has been steadly increasing in volume, and the extra trains coming in, although nearly double the capacity of the usual trains, have proved entirely inadequate to accommodate the public. It is estimated hat each train since yesterday morning has brought in over one thousand passengers. Three hundred is the average number on ordinary occasions. Not only have the people poured in over this iria have been loaded down and the roads leading to the city thronged by country people from far and near. Such a concourse never assembled before in Washington.

"Thousands were turned away from the hotels and hundreds spent the night in the open air, and at sunrise this morning occupied points along the Avenue, commanding favorable views of the column, where they patiently waited till 9 o'clock. The Avenue, hay waited till 9 o'clock. The Avenue, having been cleaned during the night, at daybreak was well watered by the fire department, and about 8 o'clock cavalry patrols were posted at its intersection with streets, to prevent teams from crossing and pedestrians from collecting on the flag crossings.

"The pupils of the public schools assembled at an early hour, and each district, accompanied School Pupils by the trustees, teachcampaigns that has come to the notice of the bureau was recently carried out in Tennessee. To arouse interest in his institution Prof. D. R. Harworth of the East Tennessee State Normal School, accompanied by a party of educational campaigners, made a 476-mile trip by wagon through the mountain districts, sleeping often in barns. The party included a male quartet and a string band, and carried three pieces of demonstration apparatus—a milk tester, a farm gate and a model of a heating and ventilation system.

Old Glory, to which the patriotic America, is spirit of America, is pricturesque assemblage, attracting from the rustees, teachers and headed by a band of music, marchers and headed by a band of music, marchers and headed by a band of music, marchers as follows: Proportional representation in the diet and personal administration; in the judiciary and military the use of the Rumanian language; an annual national assembly; a permanent national committee: substitution of Valachs, which had been imposed upon them and which recalled their and black jackets and displaying ministre wreaths and bouquets, formed a most picturesque assemblage, attracting great attention from the restact. ers and headed by a roops.
"The movement in connection with street, the head of the column resting on 1st street east. The Engineer Brigade and the Provost Marshal's Brigade bivouacked for the night on the Virginia shore near the Long bridge and crossed at 3 o'clock this morning, taking a position on a street north. The 5th Corps, Maj. Gen. Griffin, crossed the Long bridge immediately after and moved eastwardly sufficiently far to countermarch, forming on Pennsylvania avenue, with the head of the column also on 1st street east. The 2d Corps. Maj. Gen. Humphries, moved at 7 a.m., after the 5th Corps, across the river and formed in a column on the streets of the fifth ward south of Pennsylvania avenue. The Cavalry Corps, Maj. Gen. Merritt, formed on Maryland avenue, with the head of the column abreast of the column abrea wind. The head of the column reached President and Gen. Grant. The guard presented arms, the vast assemblage cheered and the gorgeous cavalcade passed on, Gen. Meade returning to a seat in the stand and his staff forming in the adjacent streets."

cy trial was resumed on May 25, 1865, and interest shifted back to the grim Indictments building at the Washfor Treason. ington barracks. An nterlude was afforded by the indictment of Jeff Davis and John C. Breckenridge by the District grand jury fo high treason. The news is contained in The Star of May 6, 1865, in a brief paragraph, as follows:

After the grand review the conspi-

"The grand jury of the District to-day found a bill of indictment against Jeff Davis and John C. Breckenridge for high treason. Davis and Breck enridge were indicted separately. Th overt act was the raid in July last within the District of Columbia and within the District of Columbia and the jurisdiction of this court, killing citizens and destroying property, Breckenridge being present and Davis constructively so. District Attorney Carrington announced the fact in the court and asked for a bench warrant in the case of Breckenridge who is court and asked for a bench warrant in the case of Breckenridge, who is still at large. He also asked that such steps be taken as will bring Davis before the court for trial. The announcement produced no excitement in the courtroom, the indictment having been expected for some time."

The Star of the next day printed the text of the indictment and noted that the following witnesses appeared before the grand jury: Francis P. Blair, Sr.; John B. Clagett, Gen. M. D. Hardin, Thomas F. Maury, M. D.; George E. Kirk and John H. McChesney. From the New Orleans Picayune.

Next in order after its "showdown" Italy's entrance into the martial arena will not reduce the war's crop of unpronounceable names.

Reporting the Wedding.

The bells ring out,
The knot is tied,
Excited throngs
Behold the BRIDE.

Because he owns
The needful scad
A few keen eyes
Observe her DAD. But on the day
That seals his doom
The smallest type Reports the groom.

The war will bring knowledge of many obscure corners of places within the zones of conflict.

Strong Natural and among these is Fortification.

Transylvania, which in 1526 formed an independent principality. In 1867 Transylvania was forcibly seized by Austria and united to the crown.

This little known principality is sitting the union, which was the result of the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in tentions were not realized. Andress represented to the emperor that in a time of excitement a change it policy as to the principles of nationalities might produce peril for the government, particularly by any special recognition of the wishes of the Rumanians of the wishes of the Rumanians of the wishes of the Rumanians of the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in tentions were not realized. Andress with the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in tentions were not realized. Andress with the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in tentions were not realized. Andress with the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in tentions were not realized. Andress with the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the Rumanians." But these good in the return of the laws of 1848, he made it understood "that it called for a revision of a nature which would antisty the return of the la uated south of the Carpathians, with Transylvania. and east and Hungary on the west Transvivania is a natural fortification against the Carpathians with its west rn sides falling in a gentle slope to the plains. Its eastern and southern The origin of the people of Transyl-Slave, is distinctly Dacia-Traian, or Rumanian. To the Rumanians there hould be added Magyars and Saxons, nized in the constitution of Transyl-Under the protectorate of Soliman II he Great and after the battle of Mo-

Under the protectorate of Soliman II the Great and after the battle of Mohacz. Transylvania became an Indese pendent principality under Jean Sigismond. The emperor. Rodolph II of Austria, ceded Transylvania to Etienne Bocskay in 1606 and the independence of the country was recognized by the treaty of Nikolsbourg in 1621.

Sigismond Rakoczy was the first of his name to exercise power in 1607. George I and II followed. George I concluded the peace of Linz, 1648; George II died in 1660.

By the treaty of Presbourg (1687) Transylvania recognized the enthronement of Archduke Joseph and renounced her elective rights. The treaty of Carlowitz (1699) consummated these concessions and determined Austria to acquire Transylvania by force.

June 7, 1703, an insurrection broke out, insurrection led by Francols II Rakoczy, who, alded by Louis XIV, was enabled to wage serious war against Austria during eight years. The importance of the war may be understood from the fact that the diet of Onok felt itself sufficiently strong to declare the dethronement of the house of Hapsburg in 1707. Austria, however, was enabled to surmount her defeats and Rakoczy was obliged to mit Hungary for Paris, where Louis XIV accorded him a pension for the SXIV accorded him a pension for the of Onok felt itself sufficiently strong to declare the dethronement of the house of Hapsburg in 1707. Austria, however, was enabled to surmount her defeats and Rakoczy was obliged to out Hungary for Paris, where Louis XIV accorded him a pension for the remainder of his life. The peace of Szatmar (1711) closed the career of the princes of Rakoczy.

It does not appear that the treaty of Szatmar altered materially the rela-Growth of National sylvania to the crown. By the Consciousness. constitution of 1690 Transylvania continued to be attached to the chancellor's office at Vienna, whose authority was exercised by a council styled "gubernium," at Klausenbourg, the capital of Transylvanta.

The diet of Pesth voted (1848) the incorporation of Transylvania under the reserve of ratification by the diet of Transylvania. The latter appea Rumanians, who gathered in Blasen forf May 15, 1848. Since the eighteenti entury the consciousness of nationality and grown apace among the Transyl vanians. The assembly at Blasendorf adopted a Imported.

out of ten not a domestic article. For metal metal actions of the review commenced yesterday afternoon, the 9th Corps, Maj. Gen. Parke, marching across the Long bridge to the country and all its auxiliary banners that fly from thousands of public buildings, army posts and ships' masts baye been made of woolen bunting—ithe movement in connection with nal actions; universal military service and national guard; secondary and supportor schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate this morning formed on East Capitol street, the head of the column resting on 1st street east. The Engineer Bridge and the Provost Marshal's Bridge and rations; universal military service and national guard; secondary and support schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate this morning formed on East Capitol street, the head of the column resting on 1st street east. The Engineer Bridge and national guard; secondary and support schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate the value of the capitol street, the head of the column resting and rational guard; secondary and support schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate the value of the column resting and rational guard; secondary and support schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate the value of the column resting and rational guard; secondary and support schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate the value of the column resting and rational guard; secondary and support schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate the value of the capitol schools with subsidies as those of other races; dotation of taxes; elaborate the value of the capitol schools with subsidies as those of the capitol schools with subsidies as th

The war of the Crimea (1854-1855), he congress of Paris (1856) and the union of the united provinches rendered imminent of 1859 and the loss of Lombardy and mania in realid, it has been effected Venitia brought about a change of pol-tor at Vienna with reference to her sent. Since a long time Rumania postey at Vienna with reference to her sent. Since a ong time Rumania principalities, Austria's defeat at sesses official regans devoted to object. These organs are the Ru Sadowa, 1866, obliged her to surrender ner place as chief of the Germanic confederation to Prussia. Austria thereupon adopted a dualist constitution, that is to say, she divided her power that is to say, she divided nerestate it to say, she divided nerestate is to say, she divided nerestate is say, she had nerestate is say, she had nerestate is say, she divided nerestate cluded her from the sphere in which she had heretofore conquered her prestige and power. Henceforth Austria adopted the policy of conciliating the unity of the empire with the recognition of the legitimate aspirations of the several nationalities of which she was composed.

In announcing the compromise the emperor expressed the hope that the Hungarian parliament would take into consideration "the legitimate claims of the county of Saint Etienne." In sanction-rom the Brooklyn Eagle. Lloyd George as a buyer of munitions ought to be in a position to learn from Mrs. Pankhurst where the best bombs bought. From the Cleveland Leader.

It may be assumed that the Dar-danelles are not within the jurisdic-tion of the chancellor of the Duchy of From the Rochester Post-Exp

In that coalition British cabinet, rep-essentative of all the political parties, where is Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst's resentative of all the political particular is Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst seat? The original militant should near the head of the council table. From the Syracuse Post-Standard.

From the Syracuse rost-Standard.

It will be easily remembered that the Union swapped horses repeatedly in trying to cross the stream of 1861-65.

The Rumanian and Saxon deputie rotested against the adoption, without Deputies. requested that are in Hungary several nations. I oronation of June, 1867.

should be adopted as a subsistute

he address the words "Hunga"ian na tion,"and adding in explanatiod, "Ther could do nothing more to stay the tid-voted the project of communi's of at fairs and accepted to take pat in the

The law with reference to schools in discussion, of tit Ko

ing inspection in order to insure the observance of the laws.

These instructors are held to change the baptismal and even family names of their pupils, substituting therefor Magyar names. The names of places also are subject to like faniastic transformation. The Magyar is the language of all public administrations. The military is sought to be germanized by the words of command, which must be German. These constitute about eight. words of command, which must be German. These constitute about eighty words, which the Transylvanian is compelled to memorize, despite his reductance. The instructor is forced to use the Rumanian language in his explanations to the recruit, otherwise his instruction would be incomprehensible.

The Rumanian resists all attempts to absorb him by a resort to means which have proved Independent efficacy. He opposes Rumanians. tacks first by his superior numbers and second by his un shaken fidelity to his larguage and his tenacity. According to the official sta 1910 Transylvania, exclusive of Banat, Crishana and Maramureth consists of 1,540,088 Rumanians; that is to say, 57.5 per cent of the total pop-

Notwithstanding the emigrations to Notwithstanding the emigrations to Rumania which are very great, the Rumanians of Transylvania are constantly increasing in numbers. The Rumanian is refractory to the penetration of neighboring races whose language he refuses to acquire, but if they come in contact with him by residence in his country the invader is certain to be absorbed. It is acknowledged that he exercises this capacity of absorption by ercises this capacity of absorption by his natural vivacity of spirit and per-sonal charm. Although he submits to the liturgy and language of the in-vader and the infiltrations of the Slav his ethnical originality secures him successfully against both the German and cessfully against both the German and the Magyar.

The conscience that they possess elder brothers in Rum inia, in the Danubian provinces and Geyond the Carpathians lends the Translyvanian the hope of deliverance. Unconsciously, perhaps, the Rumavian is writing in Transylvania important pages in his peculiar history.

energy the inter-Intervention vention of the Ru the deliverance of manian army their brothers of the other side of the mountains. If the union of the Rumanian prov by Wars. "Italian peril." The war been effected with the kingdom of Ruthe Liga Culturala or culture of all Ruman-anian Academy, founded ian Academy, League for the lans. The Rur in 1866, comp members the f

THE BRITISH CABINET CHARGES.

Winston Churchill may be transferred from the talking to the firing line. From the Chattand ga Times.

Balfour now patting for Churchill. From the Buffalo Commercial.

From first lord of the admiralty to chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster is some comed wn.

Lord Kitcher wasn't ousted as effectually as some of the London newspapers expectes.

From the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

It was an English submarine that hit Winston Churchill.

From the Philadelphia Record.

Kitchener had a three-year contract, and he stays.