HALE IS PROMOTED TO MAJOR GENERAL

Succeeds Gen. March, While Col. Castner Becomes Brigadier General.

retirement of Gen. Peyton C. March, former chief of staff, has been filled by the promotion of Brig. Gen. Harry C. Hale, now commanding the 2d Brigade of the American forces in Germany.

The vacancy caused by the promotion of Gen. Hale has been filled by the promotion of Col. Joseph C. Castner, infantry, to the rank of brigadier general. Gen. Castner is at present assigned to the 80th Division for duty with the organized reserves at the conference as a sort of substitute for direct annexation of territure for direct forms for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were given for a future war.

Since the dominions were etirement of Gen. Peyton C. March, duty with the organized reserves at Richmond, Va.

Both these general officers have distinguished records. Gen. Hale was graduated from West Point in 1883. He participated in the campaign against the Sioux Indians in 1890, in the Manila campaign of 1898 and in the engagement of St. Maquiling. 1901. He was commended for gallantry and efficiency in both the Indian and Philippine warfare. He has served on the general staff and in the adjutant general's department.

adlantry and efficiency in both the Indian and Philippine warfare. He has served on the general staff and in the adjutant general's department.

Led 84th Division.

In May, 1917. Gen. Hale was appointed a brigadier general and took command of the United States troops in China. During the world war, as a major general, he commanded the 34th Division from its organization until it was utilized for replacements during the last of the fighting. After the armistice he commanded the 28th Division until it was a demobilized, and later commanded the 28th Division until it was a large demobilization plant.

Perhaps no Army officer of his years and rank has had a more colorful or any continuous career than that of Gen.

Austfalia isn't anxious to see Japan grow more and more dominant in the Pacific. Western Canada, which has received many Japanese immigrants, has virtually the same attitude toward the assimilation of Japanese with Anglo-Saxons as have the people of California. New Zealand thinks government had with the British government had with the dominion premiers. Opposition to the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance was unmistakable. America took no part, but our government was happy, to see the thing develop in just that way. The Canadian premier pointed out again and again that the Anglo-Japanese alliance was endangering friendship with the United States.

Meanwhile a series of strange friendship with the United States.

And rank has had a more colorful of friendship with the United States. Meanwhile a series of strange castner. He is a Rutgers graduate and was appointed to the Army in London came steadily to the American London came steadily to the American press, giving the impression that, of course, the British government and the Washington government were and the Washington government were consulting each other about the Anglo-Japanese alliance and that, of

BRIG. GEN. JOSEPH C. CASTNER.

had commanded a remarkable ex-ploring expedition into Alaska and was also largely responsible for the fact that all on board the ill-fated Morgan City were saved when the vessel was wrecked in the Japan sea. At another period in his service, he commanded the Tagalog Scouts in their work of clearing up the province of Cavite, P. I., during which term he performed many hazardous and important missions.

Commanded 38th Infantry.

Gen. Castner's world war service was likewise distinguished. He commanded the 38 Infantry of the 3d Division during its training period in Morgan City were saved when the vessel was wrecked in the Japan sea.

was likewise distinguished. He commanded the 28 Infantry of the 3d Division during its training period in this courtry and in France, and was commended for his efficient work by ten. Dickman. Gen. Castner commanded the 9th

Gen. Castner commanded the 9th Brigade of the 5th Division in the Vosges, during the St. Mihiel and Argonne offensives and in-Germany. For this service he was awarded the distinguished service medal and was commended by division, corps and army commanders.

In the Meuse-Argonne offensive, Gen. Castner's brigade captured Dungur-Meuse. Milly. Lion-devant-Dun.

gur-Meuse, Milly, Lion-devant-Dun-gur-Meuse, Milly, Lion-devant-Dun, Carmois Chateau, Mouzay, Cote St. Germain, the Foret de Woevre and forced the crossing of the Meuse river. Gen. Ely, commanding the division, cited Gen. Castner in orders.

to the United States to attend the force Edy. Commanding the division, cited Gen. Castner in orders.

INJUNCTION SUITS FILED AGAINST D. C. RENT BOARD

AGAINST D. C. RENT BOARD

Three Real Estate Owners Bring Action to Prevent Rents

From Being Cut.

Three owners of real estate today field suits for injunction in the District Surfer of the Commission, the tenants of their continues for their central section of the Commission, the tenants of their properties of their commission, the tenants of their properties of their commission, the tenants of their properties of their commission, the tenants of their commission, the tenants of their properties of their commission, the tenants of their properties of their commission, the tenants of their properties of their properties of their commission, the tenants of their properties of the commission reducing the rents and to complish the properties of their properties of their properties of their properties of the case.

The plaintiffs claim they were not made parties to proceedings before the brains of their commission of the claim of the commission reducing the rents and to ordinate the commission reducing the rents a

AND AND U. S. NATIONS ARE URGED ENGLAND AND U. S.

(Continued from First Page.)

India is a domestic matter—how could Viewed as Firebrand.

Rut since the original Anglo-Japanese alliance was written in 1901 many things have occurred, notably the European war. Various parts of the British empire which had there-tofore allowed London a free hand in making foreign policy for the whole empire awoke to a national con-sciousness.

when thousands of young men, the tute for direct annexation of terri-tory. Friction has developed since tory. Friction has developed since the Paris conference over the stribution of those islands—the United States, for instance, declining to recognize Japan's right over the important island of Yap, which controls cable communication between California ord the formula of the controls of Decision Pleases America.

Australia isn't anxious to see Japan

Anglo-Japanese alliance and that, of course, it was going to be renewed with the knowledge and consent of the United States. Just who was responsible for the spread of that impression nobody here knows.

But the American officials nipped the thing in the bud. They made it plain in many ways that the British government had not discussed the matter at all, and that, so far as this government was concerned it had neither sought nor been given any government was concerned it had neither sought nor been given any information about the Anglo-Japanese alliance by the British government.

Anyway, the objections to a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance began to accumulate on all sides.
Stripped of technicalities, a renewal of the alliance meant to the United of the alliance meant to the United States a working partnership between England and Japan in peacetime; whereby England's talents in naval construction and war preparations would be absolutely at the disposal of the Japanese. It is true that, in war time England would be obliged to remain neutral, but the last European war showed what the difficulties of neutrality can be and how "benevolent-neutrality" can be transferred into practical help. Furthermore, the British dominions couldn't bear to see their central government working in Showdown Inevitable.

antagonistic, Canada boldly pro-claiming her hostility to the idea and the British government in London assuring Japan on the one hand of her faith in the alliance and America on the other her permanent friendship. The showdown has become inevitable.

(Copyright, 1921, by the Evening Star.)

BRIAND KEPT INFORMED.

and the British government in Lon

TO INSURE PEACE

HENRY VAN DYKE.

"Disarm or be destroyed" summarizes the address of Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., at this afternoon's liver the address of the addr of Rochester, N. Y., at this afternoon's session of the convocation on the limitation of armaments at the new Masonic Temple, under the auspices of the National Reform Association.

"Choose between the reduction of arms and revolution," he said, "de-mobilization or dissolution; disarma-ment or death. We must destroy war ment or death. We must destroy war or be destroyed by war."

Mr. Howard is a former member of the New-York state legislature and was selected to deliver the "funeral sermon of John Barleycorn" at the sermon of John Barleycorn" at the def for your ocean transportation. mass meeting here on the day when eighteenth amendment was put

Other Speakers Heard. Other Speakers Heard.

Other speakers at today's meeting were Dr. Larrimore C. Denise of Bellevue, Pa., presiding; Mrs. Isabel W. Ball of the District Women's Relief Corps and Mrs. H. M. Kendrick of this city, representing the Women's Baptist Mission Society. Henry Van Dyke, former American ambassador to Holland, and Bishop William F. Anderson. war bishop in France and Italy, will be among tonight's speakers. ers. Dr. Denise urged establishment of a world mechanism for peace and a world mind for peace. "The mech-antsm of peace," he said, "requires world agreements, world legislation, a world court, the limitation of na-tional armaments and world police. Senator Willis Strikes Keynote.

Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio struck the keynote of the convocation last night during an address before the convocation, when he declared that "the conference will accomplish much. Navies will not be sunk, nor will armies be disbanded, but intelligent agreements among the civilized nations that control the des-tinies of the world will bring ex-penditures for armaments to a tithe their central government working in such close relationship with the Japanese, who in other parts of the world were in constant conflict with the people of the British dominions. penditures for armaments to a title of what they are now."

SENATOR FRANK B. WILLIS.

Senator Willis pointed to the "staggering" expenditures of the chief nations as evidence that the choice is now between some limitation of armaments or national bankruptcy. "If the world is to live industrially and morally some way must be found. The words of the Anglo-Japanese alliance were vague and general, yet the interpretation placed on that alliance by the Japanese military leaders and statesmen became far from vague. The truth is the British business men of China in a formal statement of the sta "If the world is to live industrially and morally some way must be found to make wars less likely. And if I may properly say it, a different spirit must and will rule at Washington than at Versailles. At that conference there was too much of greed and too little of God; men were trying, through the manipulation of human agencies, to settle a vast world problem, and the peace of Paris was a failure. I trust this forthcoming conference will not forforthcoming conference will not for get God in its deliberations-more of religion and less of rifles. CHARGES MADE AGAINST EX-AUSTRIAN SOLDIER

Friends of Bernhard Apfelbaum Make Denial and Present Recommendations.

ON BOARD THE STEAMER LA-FAYETTE, October 31 (By Wireless via. Paris to the Associated Press).—
Premier Briand of France, on his way to the United States to attend the Washington conference, is constantly kept informed by wireless of French domestic affairs and important world news. A sheaf of messages that had been decoded during the night was laid before him this morning Among them were some from Tokio, London, Washington and Peking, re-transmitted by the French foreign office.

Recommendations.

Charges of immorality, desertion from the Austrian army and criminal offense against laws of Germany, made against Bernhard Apfelbaum, an immigrant from Austria, were denied today at a hearing before Commissioner General of Immigration Husband and Theodore W. Risley, solicitor for the Department of Labor. Dr. E. B. M. Browne, honorary president of the American Jewish Seventy

FOCH'S EYES MOIST, PERSHING BITES LIP. IN LEGION WELCOME

(Continued from First Page.)

and soldiers of the great American "My Dear Comrades of the Amer-"My Dear Comrades of the American Legion:
"I cannot tell you how great is my satisfaction at finding myself amongst you, valiant soldiers of 1918, to live again our glorious memories. Three years ago, on the 1st of Nobember, 1918, the entire American Army in France took up vigorously the pursuit of the defeated enemy and did not halt until the German surrender.

"Hour of glory for the American Army, a proper culmination for a military effort, prodigious alike in its intensity as in its rapidity. One and all, you have had your share in it. You may well be proud. "In responding in mass to the call to arms of your government, in equipping, training and organizing your-selves as rapidly as possible, you had in view only the purpose to take your place as soon as possible in the line

Enumerates U. S. Achievements. Enumerates U. S. Achievements.

"In numbers: Eighteen months after the declaration of war by the United States on Germany the American Army had passed from effectives of 9,500 officers and 125,000 men to 180,000 officers and 3,500,000 men.

"Effort of organization: If, in the month of March, 1918, you had in France but six divisions, six months later you had forty-one, of which thirty-one engaged in battle.

"Effort in instruction: In order to have officers, non-commissioned ofhave officers, non-commissioned of which interfered with bringing your units from the centers of instruction to the ports of embarkation. "In France you improved the ports of debarkation, created new installa-tions, increased the traffic of the rail-road system by work of all kinds and multiplied your storehouses and hospitals.

all your needs.
"Admirable effort also in transpor-

'Your snipyards were organized for intensive production in such a way that when the war ended you utilized for your ocean transportation almost four millions of marine tonnage, instead of 94,000 available at the beginning of the war.

Cites "Splendid War Fleet." "And, meanwhile, your splendid war fleet, thanks to its vigilance and its fine military qualities, protected with an efficiency, to which I am happy to pay tribute here, the transportation of your troops and material.

"A prodigious effort on the part of your entire nation's intelligence, will power and energy. A prodigious ef-fort which has filled your associates with admiration and gratitude and confounded your enemy.
"This splendid spirit of an entire nation we find again on the battle-fields of France, where it was blazoned in the admirable virtues of brav ery and heroism.

It was the spirit of the 2d and "It was the spirit of the 2d and 3d American Army Divisions which, one month later, took part in the battle of the Marne and distinguished themselves immediately in operations around Chateau Thierry and in Belleau Wood. Again it was the spirit of those five divisions which, on the 18th of July, participated in the victorious counter offensive of the 10th and 6th French Armies between the Aisne and the Marne and contributed in great measure to that ontributed in great measure to that victory.

"Finally, it was that spirit which animated all the American Army when, on the 24th of July, Gen. Pershing formed yuor splendid units under his own direct command.
"On the 12th of September, 1918, the rain, rugged, difficult in its very na-ture and rendered more so by all the defensive organizations which had been accumulated there during the ten kilometers.

"The enemy this time retired definitely; the Stars and Strips at once took up the pursuit and, six days later, floated victoriously over the leuse reconquered.
"After St. Mihiel, after the Argonne,

"After St. Mihiel, after the Argonne, the American banners now bore the name Meuse. In a few months you had taken 45,000 prisoners and 1,400 cannon from the enemy.

"Glory to the 1st American Army: glory also to those of your divisions which, distributed among the French and British armies, contributed in great measure to the final success,

Pershing Greets Foch.

Gen. Pershing extended, on behalf of the legion and his own native state, Missouri, a formal welcome to Marshal Foch.
"I cordially, greet you." said Gen.
Pershing. "Not only recalling the affectionate relationship of other days, but also recognizing the patriotic unit that has grown out of those associations and the common purposes that exist to uphold more faithfully those ideals that lie at the foundation of this great republic of ours. great republic of ours.
"M. Le Marechal, the American Legion is peculiarly honored by your presence here among us. We extend an equally cordial welcome to that intepid leader of Italy's victorious armies that crushed the military auarmies that crushed the military autocracy of Austria, Gen. Diaz, and to the representative of the brave Belgian army whose courage defied the staggering blows of German militarism, Gen. Jacques; and to the great captain who commanded the British naval forces whose efficiency on the sees. tain who commanded the British naval forces, whose efficiency on the seas made the land victory possible, Admiral Loru Beatty. The people of America everywhere await to do you honor, personally, I am extremely Jelighted to extend to you the greetings of the American armies that crossed the sea to fight beside you. I am also honored to speak for my friends and neighbors here in Missouri, and accord you a most sincere welcome to this grand old state, where velcome to this grand old state, where was born, and where I lived in boy

Praises Work of Legion.

Gen. Pershing then turned his attention to the legion and praised its campaigns for Americanism and kindred ideals. He urged the legion to continue its efforts to bring into being a military force, "representative of the people, which in any future war will escape the results of unpreparedness that you suffered." He urged that the legion bend its efforts also toward obtaining all possible relief for incapacitated veterals of the war. He predicted that great of the war. He predicted that great good would result from the coming conference on armament in Wash-ington and that an understanding would be reached which would lessen the chances of war.

The greetings of Marshal Foch and Gen. Pershing was the principal business of the morning. This afternoon the legion's big parade is scheduled, with thousands of legionnaires, members of the Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish war veterans, and others in the line of march Legion others in the line of march. Legion Dove to Bear Message. An impressive program has been arranged, with Marshal Foch, Gen. Armando Diaz of Italy, Gen. Baron Jacques of Belgium, Admiral Beatty of Great Britain, Gen. Pershing and John G. Emery of Grand Rapids, Mich., national commander of the legion, participating.

While the memorial is being dedicated Kansas City will send to Presicated Kansas City will send to Presi-dent Warren G. Harding, at Washing-here; the quickened spirit of liberty is here—all in one accord—peace.

Swift Messenger of Peace.

Demonstration for Beatty. The first day of the convention The boys are all happy now as the re

Phone Main 7676

JAMES B. HENDERSON

Distinctive Furniture and Decorations

1108 G St.

Consistency! .

versal confidence.

Compare qualities and prices carefully and we are confident that your decision will be in favor of our fur-

Established Over 50 Years*

valuable assets.

Men have ever recognized the

The reputation for consistent quality which our furniture enjoys is unquestionably one of our most rarity and value of consistency. Whatever possesses it is lifted out of the ordinary and easily gains uni-

Diaz and Jacques Enter.

Lieut. Gen. Baron Jacques of Bel-gium and Gen. Armando Diaz of Italy, two of the legion's guests of honor, entered Convention Hall amid a blare of bands. The crowd cheered wildly. As the demonstration proceeded Gen. Jacques waved to Gen. Diaz and the Italian hero waved back. Both generals wore as their premier decoration of the day the American distinguished service medal.

"Italy remembers and appreciates." was the word Gen. Diaz brought from the Italian generating and apple in the Italian generating and apple to th the Italian government and people to the people of the United States. He when Gen. Diaz concluded, Commander Emery pinned upon his breast the official emblem which the convention authorized him to wear. Gen. Jacques, Marshal Foch and M. Charles Bertrand of France also were author ized to wear the emblem by the con vention.

When Commander Emery introduced Gen. Jacques, the hero of Liege, where, Commander Emery said, civilization was saved to the world, the crowd went wild again.

"Atta Boy!" Spurs on General. Apologizing for his inability to speak English plainly, Jen. Jacques was interrupted by a doughboy on the floor, who shouted: "Atta boy!"

"We do not forget, we cannot forget," the zeneral said, "all we owe you for the aid you brought us during the most tragic moments in the history of our glorious country." tory of our glorious country."
Maj. Gen. John A. Lejeune, commander-in-chief of the United States

mander-in-chief of the United States Marine Corps the next speaker, was introduced by Commander Emery as "Devil Dog Jack Lejeune."

Gen. McBride, who delivered the greetings of the G. A. R., emphasized the citizenship responsibilities resting upon the legionnaires.

The general's appearance evoked much enthusiasm and his address was repeatedly cheered.

Milk Supply.

Dr. W. C. Fowler, the District health officer, was the principal withness today before the Lampert submers to the House District committee of the House District committee which is conducting a hearing.

repeatedly cheered.

President Sends Message.

"We are proud of what you did as soldiers," he said. "We are hopeful of what you may do as citizens.

"In so far as you can control the direction of affairs," he counseled, "let inothing ever arise that can mar the friendship or disturb the comradeship of nations that was formed during the great war."

At any cost, however, he charged that the complete independence of the United States must be maintained.
A message from the United Confederate Veterans was delivered by R. A. Pearson of Kansas City, wearing his uniform of reary."

Non the milk supply for the National employes on dairy farms and all producers and distributors alike to pass a medical inspection before being allowed to handle the milk. "The fact that milk is parteurized tuberculin test as well as pasteurization to protect the District milk supply. "If you don't give us the tuberculin test, I do not consider makes it clean milk," Dr. Fowler told the committee. He emphasized that "it has not raised the price of milk" and he agreed with a statement made by Representative Runz urged that the bill should make it necessary for all employes on dairy farms and all producers and distributors alike to pass a medical inspection before being allowed to handle the milk. "The fact that milk is parteurized to the tuberculin test, I do not consider makes it clean milk," Dr. Fowler stone for the committee. He committee the necessity for a tuberculin test as well as pasteurization to protect the District. The fact that milk is parteurized tuberculin test, I do not consider makes it clean milk," Dr. Fowler of milk" and he agreed with a statement made by Representative Runz urged that the complex of all employes on dairy farms and all producers and distributors alike to pass a medical inspection before ducers and distributors alike to pass a medical inspection before ducers and distributors alike to pass a medical inspection before ducers and distributors alike to pass a medical inspection before ducers and distributors alike to pass a medical

D. C. DELEGATES ACTIVE. Kansas City Turned Topsy-Turvy

Special Dispatch to The Star. KANSAS CITY, Mo., November 1.

-When this city awoke this morning it looked as though a Kansas cycline had struck the town overnight. The streets were strewn in dent Warren G. Harding, at Washington, and to the nation as a whole, a message of peace. The message, which was prepared by R. A. Long, president of the Liberty Memorial Association, in the name of Kansas City, will be carried by a dove, the emblem of peace and good will. The message: "Greetings, Mr. President, greetings of peace and good will from Kansas City."

"We are all assembled in one place and with one accord, consecrating Memorial hill to the glory of God and the honor of those who won the world war. Foch, the marshal of France and conqueror of Germany, is here; Jacques, the redeemer of Belgium, is here; Pershing, the American Legion convention. The town keys were turned over to the legionaires, and it is needless to state that they were accepted and made good use of. The police force is giving them full sway, and it is needless to state that they were accepted and made good use of. The police force is giving them full sway, and it is needless to state that they were accepted and made good use of. The police force is giving them full sway, and it is needless to state that they were accepted and made good use of. The police force is giving them full sway, and it is needless to state that they were accepted and made good use of. The police force is giving them full sway. Mr. O'Brien also got into arguments of the committee was more in the health laws and regulations for a pure milk supply," said Dr. Fowler. If have been pretty successful, the very direction with confetti and destrated in to tell how he had been working to protect the people from his and the result is that it resembles over to the legionaires, and it is needless to state that they were acceptable force is giving them full sway. The result is that it resembles the inauguration days in years gone by when the 'National Capital was the inauguration days in years gone by when the 'National Capital was the tesult of the members of the Committee was more in the hore had been working to protect the people from him the nearly all nile was and regu

This morning all of the members in uniform, headed by the Vincent B. Costello Drum Corps, marched to Convention Hall, and were on hand when Marshal Foch and Gen. John J. Pershing addressed the convention. Swift Measenger of Peace.

"On the 12th of September, 1918, the first American Army delivered its first battle on the soil of France. It disable to the first battle on the soil of France. It disable to the sale to the soil of France. It disable to the soil of France. It disable to the soil of France. It disable to the sale to the soil of France. It disable to the soil of the Meuse to the eastern confines Franklin, provided quarters and meals without cost to the legionaires.

ture and rendered mints which had defensive organizations which had been accumulated there during the last four years.

"Nothing could discourage or check your army. It threw itself with generous ardor into the immense melee. The task was a rude one, but it was carried out to a thorough finish.

"Fighting without respite night and day for a month, advancing in spite of the pitfalls and the counter-attacked him to come back and talk again after Maj. John G. Emery of the pitfalls and the counter-attack Mish and the counter-attack on the milk supply for the National bill should make it necessary

BUY ON G STREET.

TUBERCULIN TEST

Dr. Fowler Opposes Lowering Standards of D. C.

Several Clashes Occur. The hearing today was featured by several clashes. The most interesting was between Dr. Fowler and M. E. O'Brien, attorney for large local distributors.
"I don't believe Mr. O'Brien cares anything about the quality of milk. He has stood against the District health office in its effort to enforce the health laws and regulations for a pure milk supply," said Dr. Fowler.

"I have been pretty successful, haven't 1?" asked Mr. O'Brien, and started in to tell how he had been working to repter the records.

ments with members of the committee, including Representatives Kunz if Illinois and Hammer of North Carolina. Mr. Hammer told Mr. O'Brien that his statement before the committee was more in the nature of a tirade against the farmers producing the milk than anything else.

Dr. Irvine had lived in this city for several years, occupying apartment 215 at the Monmouth. He was a native of Ossining, N. Y., where the body, which is now at Gawler's undertaking parlors, will be sent for burial. Dr. Irvine is survived by his ways a Remeline Irvine, and a of 1918, which was a real grand army, side by side in the war, shall stand district's representative on the cre-beginning with its commander." side by side in peace." district's representative on the cre-dentials committee. mittee some of the features of the bill which he is asking Congress to pass.

district's representative on the credentials committee.

At the conclusion of the memorial exercises for the late national commander, F. W. Galbraith, who was killed in an automobile accident last July in Indianapolis, the District delegation placed a handsome floral piece beneath the large picture of Col. Galbraith on the convention stage, being the only delegation to pay this respect.

Appointed to Committees.

The following District M. P. representatives have been appointed on the committee:

Americanization, F. F. Miller; legislation, E. J. Beaulac; credentials, John Thomas Taylor; organization, William F. Franklin; military affairs, James A. Drain; finance, A. S. Imrieresolutions, Albert E. Haan; place and time next convention. Pauline McVey; naval affairs, Howard S. Fisk, and constitutional amendments, B. C. MacNeil.

TIRFROUNTIEST

mittee some of the features of the bill which he is asking Congress to pass. It requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requires all shippers to get a permit annually from the health office; it requi nor the tuberculin test at the expense of pasteurization, as each gives a protection that the other does not. Pasteurization Proves Ineffective. He submitted also a letter from Dr. John H. Mohler, chief of the bureau of animal industry. Department of Agriculture, dated May 9 of this year, calling his attention to resolutions passed at a national convention regarding pure food, which declared that nasteurisation had not been ef-garding pure food, which declared that pasteurization had not been effective and urging that the states should adopt the tuberculin test.

Dr. Fowler introduced also testimony from the chiefs of the tuberculosis eradication division of the Department of Agriculture Milk Supply.

Dr. W. C. Fowler, the District health officer, was the principal witness today before the Lampert subcommittee of the House District committee which is conducting a hearing on the milk supply for the National bill should make it necessary for all the properties the properties of the Department of Agriculture showing of the Departmen officials expected to sandwich some convention routine into the morning proceedings, after which the gathering was to proceed to the Union station plaza, where the memorial Kansas City is to erect in honor of its dead will be dedicated.

A message from the United Content of Content of

ROBERT H. IRVINE DIES.

Is Stricken at Monmouth Apartment After Evening's Outing.

Monmouth, 1819 G street, his home, dying shortly before 12 o'clock. A certificate of death from heart failure was issued by Dr. John A.

O'Donoghue, who had been treating
Dr. Irvine for some time.
Dr. Irvine had lived in this city for Explains Health Bill.

Dr. Fowler explained to the com-

HAVE YOUR FURNITURE Reupholstered Before THANKSGIVING DAY Parlor Suite like

Velours, Tapestries, Velvets, Silk Coverings at very moderate prices. American Upholstery Co.

627 F St. N.W. Phone, White or Call Phone Main 8139

UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK You can rent second floor for enough to make monthly pay-

1215 to 1223 KENYON ST.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS N.W.

Large Lots, 20 by 150, to 15-Foot Alley 8 ROOMS—ATTIC

Take 14th Street Cars to Kenyon Street and Walk East 11/2 Squares

R. HOWENSTEIN CO.

OPEN & LIGHTED

THREE LEFT

1314 F STREET NORTHWEST