

The bearded lady, the fat girl, the living skeleton, the tattooed man and the midget all "work" in Jackie Coogan's newest photoplay vehicle, "Toby Taylor." And Jackie had this picture posed especially for the movie-fans.

Scene at inauguration of Gov. Gifford Pinchot at Harrisburg, Pa. The oath of office was administered by Chief Justice von Moschizer of the Pennsylvania supreme court.

Underwood & Underwood

The Navy "does its stuff" during maneuvers in the Pacific, twenty miles from San Pedro, Calif. Photo shows group of destroyers putting down a smoke screen. Behind the screen are the targets, at which the guns of the battleships Oklahoma, Texas and New York fired.

© P. & A. Photos.

At the inauguration of the new Governor of New Jersey, Gov. George S. Silzer at left and Senator Edwards, former governor, at right.

Underwood & Underwood

Chinese children in New York's baby show have a little orchestra all their own.

International

She becomes a bride of former presidential candidate, Alton B. Parker. Her name was Mrs. Amelia Day Campbell, well known as a historian. Alton B. Parker was democratic candidate against Theodore Roosevelt in 1904.

International

The funny lines from "Abie's Irish Rose" are broadcasted from the Hecht Company's station in Washington. This was the first time a stage play was ever broadcasted.

Photo by Simmons

An open air dinner party in January. Photo taken in St. Petersburg, Fla., where Philadelphians were entertained.

Underwood & Underwood

Officers of the newly organized Rock Creek Hunt Club of Washington. Left to right: William Downey, whip; Melvin Hazen, president; Rowland Dawson, whip; Gen. William Mitchell, master of hounds.

Photo by Harris & Gilmore

A frock for southern wear. It is made of gray material with a striking pattern in red. The hat is trimmed with a brilliant bandanna handkerchief.

Underwood & Underwood