

Senate Body Fails to Act on McNary as Successor to Controller.

The nomination of D. R. Crissinger, controller of the currency, to be governor of the Federal Reserve Board, was reported favorably today by the Senate banking committee, but action was deferred on the nomination of James G. McNary, southwestern banker, to succeed Mr. Crissinger as controller.

The committee's action was regarded as paving the way for a recess appointment for Mr. McNary after Congress adjourns.
