

THE STAR'S DAILY PICTORIAL PAGE

THE EVENING STAR, WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 17, 1923.

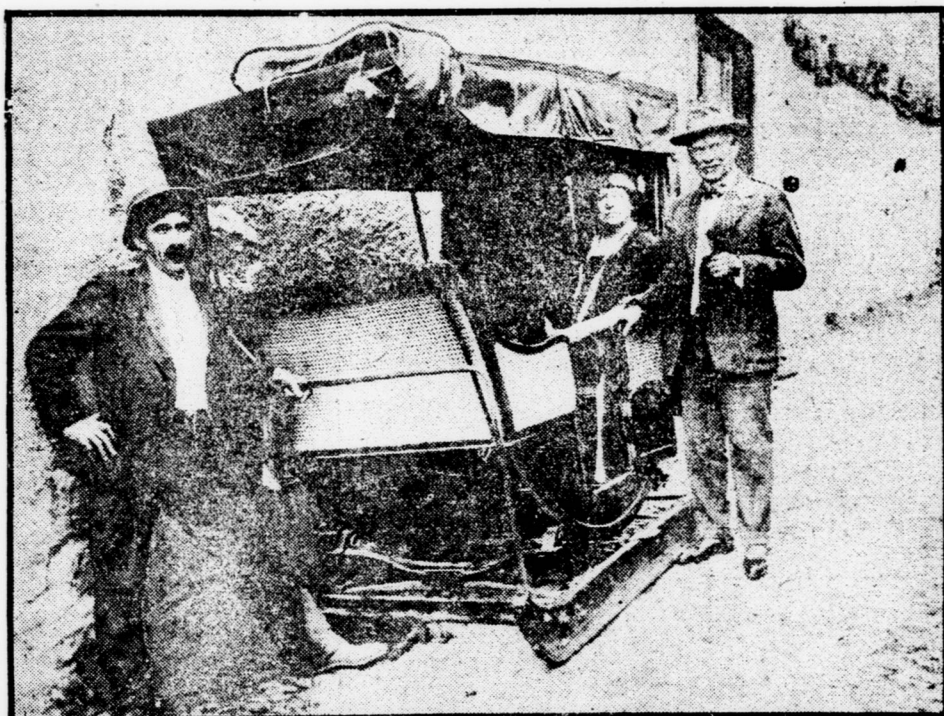

NOVELIST IN WASHINGTON. Inez Haynes Irwin, novelist, now in Washington to confer with the leaders of the National Women's Party on the equal rights bill. Mrs. Irwin is the wife of Will Irwin, also a well known novelist. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

BATTLE FORMATION IN SOUTHERN WATERS. The combined Atlantic and Pacific fleets, in maneuvers somewhere down along the line of the equator. Photograph taken from deck of the battleship Utah. Copyright by News Events Photos.

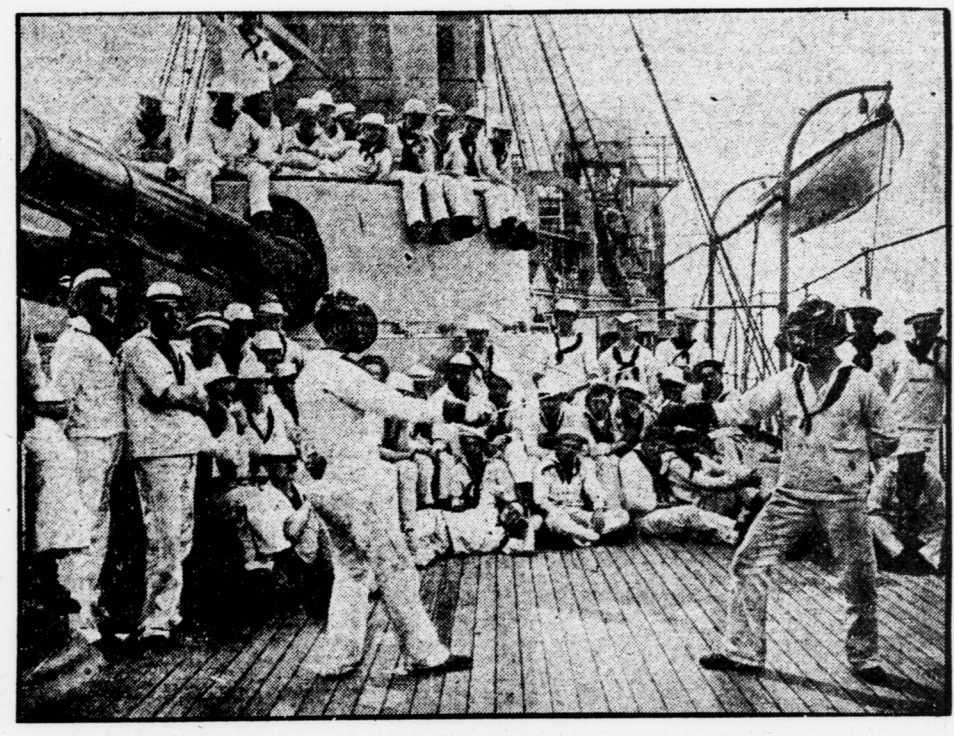

TENNIS VICTORS. William T. Tilden, 24, of Philadelphia, national singles champion, and Miss Brenda Hedstrom of Buffalo, who won in mixed doubles preliminaries in tournament being held at Longwood Cricket Club, Chestnut Hill, Mass. Copyright by Keystone.

THE GARYS TRY A "MADEIRA" TAXI. Judge Elbert H. Gary, head of the United States Steel Corporation, and wife, about to start for a ride at Bunchel, on the Island of Madeira. The unique vehicles slide down the steep, cobble hills of the town. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY AND SHAMROCKS. E. W. Hess, superintendent of the Botanic Gardens, presenting Miss Audrey King with a pot of real shamrocks, in honor of the day the Irish celebrate. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.

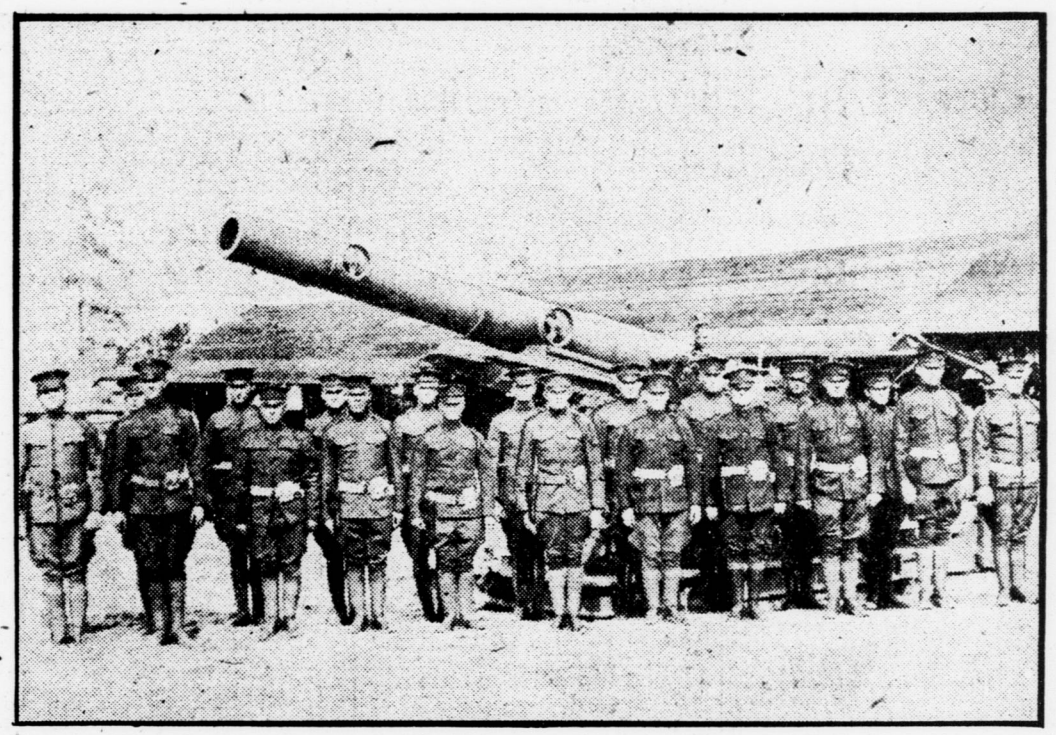

PLAYTIME IN THE NAVY. This particular phase of recreation consists of a series of thrusts and jabs, but it comes under the heading of play. Scene on deck of one of the United States battleships, in southern waters for maneuvers. Copyright by News Events Photos.

PETRIFIED BODY FOUND IN OHIO. It is believed to have been an Indian or mound builder, and was found along the bank of a creek near Cincinnati. The figure is of limestone formation. The stone body is pitted and worn by the weather. Wide World Photo.

MAY CHANGE ITS LOCATION. Statue of Andrew Jackson, in front of the White House, which, according to rumor, may change places with the statue of Washington in Washington Circle. The latter statue has been taken down for repairs. National Photo.

THIS CREW BREAKS A RECORD. First section, Battery C, of the 5th Field Artillery, United States Army, stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C., which has just broken the world record for getting a 240-m.m. howitzer into firing position. Wide World Photo.

TAKES PLANTS TO FRANCE. Miss Anne Morgan, with "good-will roses," presented to her at the New York flower show. The plants in the photograph will be taken to France by Miss Morgan for the American Committee of Devastated France. Wide World Photo.

FORMER DIPLOMAT'S WIFE CONDUCTS CLASS. Mme. Marie Hannenfeldt, widow of former aide to the Russian czar, and daughter of former naval attaché of Russian embassy in Washington, conducts cooking class. Left to right: Mrs. H. N. Darton, Mrs. Arthur Powell Davis, Mrs. J. W. Kerr, Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, Mme. Hannenfeldt, Mrs. Francis Walker, Mrs. C. H. Rose and Mrs. A. Hamel. Copyright by Harris & Ewing.

GET A REPRIEVE. R. D. Baker and two sons (latter at right and left), who were to have been hanged at Rome, Ga., yesterday, but obtained a reprieve to Friday, April 13. They were convicted for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Morton. Photo, taken in jail, also shows Mrs. Baker and two daughters. Copyright by Underwood & Underwood.