Accepts Command of Prince Regent to Form Government to Succeed Kiyoura

TENTATIVE

Shidehara Considered for Foreign Minister.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, June 9.—Viscount Takaakira Kato tonight accepted the command of Prince Regent Hirohito to form a new cabinet, asking, however that he be given a few days. His ministry will succeed that of former Premier Kiego Kiyoura, and will be coalition affair, according to the rnacular newspapers.

The tentative line-up of departmental ministers, as forecast by the press, includes two members of the Seiyukai party, which is considered as absolute master of the Diet; one member of the Kakushin (reform) Club, and other ministers drawn from Baron K. Shidehara, former ambassador to the United States, and Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, former minister to Paris and special envoy to the United States in 1917 when the famous Ishii-Lansing agreement was signed, are considered the likeliest candidates for the foreign office portfolio. It is believed in some quarters, however, that Baron Keishiro Matsui, who held the post under Premier Kiyoura, may retain his position.

Premier Kato conferred last night with Baron Shidehara. It is understood that if the latter does not take the foreign office, he will return to Washington the Japanese ambassador. Close family connections between the new premier and Baron Shidehara, who married sisters, is donsidered a strong reason which may quies the latter to decide not to enter the cabinet. His inclusion in the new cabinet, it is feared, might embarrass the premier and provide a basis for the charge that the cabinet was under the control of the Iwasaki interests, which are linked with the powerful Mitsubishi Company, one of the largest concerns in Japan. of the ministry.

The prince regent previously had acfused to accept the resignation of the Kiyoura government, deferring such acceptance until the selection of a successor, in accordance with Japanese tradition.

An imperial messenger consulted with Prince Saionji, the elder statesman, yesterday. Viscount Kato at one time served under Prince Saionji as a cabinet member and it was considered as a foregone conclusion that Saionji's dictum would assure selection of Kato as the new premier.

A graduate of the law college of the Imperial Tokio University in 1881, he served in the foreign office, was transferred to the finance office and eventually became director of the banking bureau and taxation bureau. Later he returned to the foreign office. From 1894 to 1899 he represented Japan in England. In 1900 and 1901 he was minister of foreign affairs and again in 1912 and 1913 he held the same post. He has sat twice in the lower house and served in two previous cabinets.

Rushing Natives to U. S. Before Exclusion Law Becomes Effective Held Not a Violation.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, June 9.—Commenting on the government subsidy of ships rushing Japanese to America before the exclusion law becomes effective, officials pointed out today that Japan still is observing the "gentlemen's agreement" with the United States and that all Japanese who will enter the United States before the exclusion measure goes into effect are entitled to do so under the arrangement.

The government is not attempting to aid an unwarranted immigration to America, they declared. Japan will continue to observe the "gentlemen's agreement" until it is formally denounced, the spokesmen asserted. Reports in the vernacular press that the United States has protested against the subsidizing of ships to carry the immigrants to America were denied at the foreign office and the American embassy. the American embassy

"It is a manifestation of a racial struggle which, unless carefully handled, may replunge the world into bloodshed." The Daily Mail expresses satisfaction that the relations of the two countries have not yet been strained beyond the point where the trouble can be mended.

The Daily Express thinks it would be the grossest foily to minimize the possibility of a sudden and malignant expansion of such demonstrations as that in Tokio. It urges the United States to attempt to bridge the differences by frank discussion with Japan, and advises Japan to condemn the demonstration and take every step to prevent its recurrence. The diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says the incident in Tokio has added to the general and increasing anxiety in diplomatic circles, and expresses fear over the outcome. matic circles, and expresses fear over
