WIDE HUNT STARTED FOR KIDNAPING GANG.

Plot for Wholesale Abductions Revealed After Two Victims

the Associated Press. NEW YORK, May 10.—Police yesterday sounded a general alarm for the capture of the Dougherty brothers, Charles and Samuel, notorious crim charles and Samuel, notorious criminals, wanted here as leaders of the band who, on April 28, kidnaped and held for ransom Abraham Scharlin and James H. Taylor, wealthy real estate operator. The captives were freed Friday after one of the gang had been killed by the police and another captured.

The bend, according to the police, comprised a number of Western and Midwestern crooks who singled out New York as the scene for reaping a harvest by kidnaping large bootleggers, horserace "bookies," "fences," or men through whom stolen goods are disposed of, and others keeping large sums of cash on hand.

The house in Brooklyn, where the two men were held, was a miniature arsenal, it was learned yesterday. Design 4 to ward off attack from a large number of men, it was equipped with machine guns, hand grenades, tear bombs, automatic revolvers and rifles and sawed-off shotguns. captured.
