whacking a clean single over second base after the count had reached three and two, to score both English and Miller, and put the Cubs two runs to the good.

SEVENTH INNING. CHICAGO—Earnshaw reached for Grimm's bounder and snuffed him with a toss to Fox.

THIRD INNING. CHICAGO—Taylor popped to Dykes. Bush took a third strike, and McMillan, after getting a single when Fox narrowly missed making a one-hand catch of his foul, popped to Bishop.

FOURTH INNING. CHICAGO—English was earnestly applauded as he came to bat, but his best effort was a high fly which Fox caught standing on the foul line.

FIFTH INNING. CHICAGO—Earnshaw missed his target three times before getting a strike over for Stephenson.

SIXTH INNING. CHICAGO—Bush's maneuvers in the batter's box on Earnshaw brought fruit, when he drew the Cubs' first base on a foul.

SEVENTH INNING. CHICAGO—Earnshaw reached for Grimm's bounder and snuffed him with a toss to Fox.

EIGHTH INNING. CHICAGO—McMillan sent on easy ground to Boley. English was Earnshaw's ninth strikeout victim.

NINTH INNING. CHICAGO—Stephenson led off with a clean double close to the foul line in his first hit of the game.
