

PLANES MUSTERING FOR ALASKAN HUNT

Big Craft to Be Shipped
North for Search of Ei-son and Borland.

By the Associated Press.
SEATTLE, Wash., December 17.—George Montigo, pilot of one of the three big airplanes which will be taken to Alaska on the Coast Guard cutter Chelan, to be used in the search for Carl Ben Eielson and Earl Borland, Alaskan flyers, who have been missing since November 9, was here today, having his ship serviced preparatory to moving it to Alaska by boat. He arrived here yesterday.

A second plane, en route from Montreal, is expected today, and a third is being shipped from Chicago. Eight airmen will make up the rescue expedition. Most of the flyers are volunteers from the royal Canadian air force. Capt. H. A. "Doc" Oaks, noted Canadian aviator, heads the group. Montigo was held at Redding, Calif., for three days by bad weather on his way here. Work of dismantling his plane and crating it for shipment began immediately.

The expedition has a 50 per cent chance of rescuing Eielson and Borland, Maj. Howard C. DeKard, United States Reserve flyer, who is in charge of dispatching the group, said here. He pointed out that Eielson and Borland, believed down somewhere on the Bering seacoast, could exist for months in snowdrifts if not injured. The lost men, who were attempting to reach the icebound fur trading ship Nanuk, were equipped with food and a gasoline stove.

Byrd to Hear Services.

PITTSBURGH, December 17 (AP).—Christmas church services will be sent by radio to Comdr. Byrd and Sir Hubert Wilkins at Little America and Deception Island Saturday night. The explorers will sit in the warm shelter of their Antarctic homes to "attend."

Finds Family Frozen To Death as He Brings Christmas Tree Home

By the Associated Press.
HAVRE, Mont., December 17.—Returning home with a Christmas tree and supplies for the holiday season, Guy Pratt, Hill County rancher, found his wife and small daughter frozen to death.

In the absence of her husband, Mrs. Pratt had set out with the child to visit a neighbor a mile and a half away. Wading through deep snow with the girl in her arms, she fell exhausted a quarter of a mile from her destination and the two perished.

CHRISTMAS PARTY DATE IS CHANGED

Mrs. Hoover to Make Brief Address at Central Union Mission
Fete December 23.

Because of the unusually large number of persons expected to be in attendance, the annual Christmas tree party of the Central Union Mission, which was to be held at the National Theater December 24, will take place instead at the Fox Theater, and the date has been changed to December 23.

Mrs. Herbert Hoover, who acquiesced in making the necessary change, will deliver a few words of greeting to the many children who are expected to be present, and she will also assist in the distribution of the more than 1,600 "kiddie bags" among the youngsters.

The number of gift bags to be given away this year is expected to exceed by far the record of last year. Supt. John S. Bennett of the Central Union Mission said today. Contributions to fill more "kiddie bags" are still being received at the mission headquarters, 613 C street.

Prefer Male Employers.

LONDON, December 17 (AP).—George Bernard Shaw believes women prefer to work for men, because they get more fun out of it than when working for women and sometimes they find their work easier, too.
