SEIZED FOR TAXES

Collections Playing Part in Redistribution of Wealth Within Soviet Union.

By Radio to The Star and Chicago Daily News. Copyright, 1930.) MOSCOW, U. S. S. R., February 15. Tax collections are playing an important part in the redistribution of wealth within the Soviet Union. The wealth within the Soviet Union. The recent energetic levying of taxes on persons engaged in private trade has already realized more than $50,000,000, but the commissariat of finafice is now revising those levies with a view to still larger revenues for the treasury.

Few nepmen, or private traders, are able to pay the imposts in cash, so that private property is coming in instead. Wearing apparel, crockery, sewing machines and musical instruments as well as household furniture and jewelry or houses are being seized, by the thoroughgoing tax collectors. oughgoing tax collectors.

Articles Sold by Government.

Cash thus seized accrues directly to the treasury, but the clothing and chinaware and other household objects are being sold through government stores to trade unionists exclusively.

Thus many proletarians will wear clothes or use dishes and stoves once belonging to the nepmen, while the unhappy dealers are now among Russia's poorest citizenry, vying with the dispossessed kulaks or richer peasants in degree of poverty, and both classes have been evicted from their lodgings.

The original total levy on Moscow dealers was 9,000,000 rubles ($4,500,009), but on reconsideration the commissariat out on reconsideration the commissariat finance is raising its demands to 1,000,000 rubles ($15,000,000) and a imilar increase is effective every-

Death Knell to Private Trading. Taxation, together with ewiction from uarters, the withholding of goods for rivate merchandising and the denial private merchandising and the denial of transportation of such articles on the railways has sounded the death knell for private trading. But the commissariat of finance sees that the nepmen terminate business with a miniim of wealth in any form by taxation
