and Ponca City will present an animated appearance, perhaps the most colorful since the great run was made in 1889, after the Indian Territory had been in part opened for homesteaders. Mr. Thomas Francis Bowler of Oklahoma, father of Mrs. Hull, who before her marriage was Miss Norma Bowler, will be among the pioneer citizens who participated in this memorable day in Oklahoma's history. Mrs. Hull will visit her father's home and expects to return to Washington April 30.

Mrs. Josephine C. de Lagnel will give a musicale at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening at her home, in the Menota Apartments, in honor of Dr. Gertrude Richardson Brigham, founder of the Art Promoters' Club. An invitation is extended to Miss Brigham's friends and the members of the club. No cards have been issued.

Mrs. Robinson Downey will entertain Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Willard Hotel in honor of Mrs. Percy Quin, national president of the Children of the American Revolution. The board of vice presidents of the organization will be special guests.

Miss Martha Andrews, flower page at the D. A. R. congress, and Miss Jane Virginia Andrews, delegate to the C. A. R. Congress, both granddaughters of Mrs. A. B. Andrews, for many years regent of Mount Vernon for North Carolina, and daughter of Col. and Mrs. W. J. Andrews of Raleigh, have constantly been entertained since coming to Washington. Mrs. E. W. Pou, wife of Representative Pou of North Carolina, was their hostess; Miss Jessica Randolph Smith entertained them at tea at the Club of Colonial Dames and Miss Annie Leo Graham also entertained for them. Sunday the Misses Andrews were entertained at dinner at Carvel Hall, Annapolis, with Midshipmen J. H. B. Young, W. R. Cox and William Marks.

The Countess Karl Larich of New York, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Stirling Birmingham to the Harford hunt races in Maryland, returned with them last night to New York. They were guests at tea yesterday in the palm court of the Mayflower. The countess is the niece by marriage of the late Empress Elizabeth of Austria-Hungary.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shelton will be joined today at the Wardman Park Hotel by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Paul Weston, who will pass several days here on their way from Miami to New York, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Milligan, cousins of Mrs. Shelton, have been passing a few days at the hotel with Mr. and Mrs. Shelton on their way by motor from New York to their home in Greenville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Moncill are at their new home, at 4543 Kingle street northwest, to which they moved from Potomac Heights. Mr. Moncill is connected with the Internal Revenue.

Mrs. Charles McGuigan entertained at her home yesterday at a surprise bridge shower and supper in honor of Miss Jeanne Gravatte of the Chastleton Apartments, who is marrying Lieut. Le Page Crommiller of the United States Marine Corps April 29. The guests besides Miss Gravatte were Miss Virginia Jackson, Miss Dorothy Collins, Miss Peggy Woods, Mrs. Nellie Gravatte, Mrs. Wilder Ritz, Mrs. Elmer Kintz, Mrs. Dallas Walnwright, Miss Margaret Harrison, Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. Layton McGhie, Miss Eileen Moore, who is the daughter of Mrs. McGuigan.

Mrs. H. M. Bates entertained at dinner in the palm room of the Willard last evening, covers being laid for eight guests.

The advisory council of the American Legion Auxiliary of the District of Columbia gave a luncheon yesterday at the Hay-Adams House, Sixteenth and H streets northwest, in honor of Mrs. Donald McRae of Council Bluffs, Iowa, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, who is in Washington attending the D. A. R. Congress.

The table centerpieces were of jonquils and lavender sweet peas. Between courses Mrs. Amos A. Fries, chairman of the advisory council, introduced Mrs. McRae, who spoke on the work being accomplished by the various auxiliaries throughout the country.

Mrs. Fries then introduced the presidents of the following local American Legion Auxiliary units: Mrs. George Eckels, Mrs. Mary K. Killen, Mrs. Franklin Nash, Mrs. C. Louise Fisk, and the following Gold Star Mothers: Mrs. Mary C. Costello, Mrs. John Spengler, Mrs. Mary K. Killen, Mrs. Clara Sonnenman, Mrs. George Seibold and Mrs. Clara Doocy.

Mrs. McRae was presented with a shoulder bouquet of rose buds and a handsome handmade pocketbook, the work of one of the disabled veterans in Walter Reed Hospital. Maj. Julius I. Feyer, vice president of the P. T. D. A. C., presented Mrs. McRae with a shoulder bouquet of orchids. Mrs. Robert Payvette was chairman of the luncheon.

Among those present at the luncheon were Mrs. Rice W. Means, Mrs. Amy Hammond, Mrs. Mildred Nash, Mrs. Leon Arnold, Mrs. Ada V. Murray, Mrs. E. Bach, Miss Fisher of Iowa, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Reta Callahan, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Thuney, Mrs. Ethel Will, Mrs. Dorothy B. Harper, Miss Mary Widmeyer, Miss Irene Keys, Miss Gilbert Cone, Mrs. Ethel Fowler, Mrs. Preston, Miss Edith O'Connor, Mrs. Amos A. Fries, Mrs. C. Louise Fisk, Mrs. George Eckels, Mrs. Mary K. Killen, Mrs. Franklin Nash, Mrs. George Seibold, Mrs. Mary C. Costello, Mrs. Clara Sonnenman, Mrs. Clara Doocy and Mrs. John Spengler.

A large delegation from Baltimore will attend the authors' breakfast of the National League of American Pen Women at the Willard Hotel Easter Monday, led by the president of the branch, Mrs. Blanche Smith Ferguson, who will be seated at the speaker's table. The remainder of the delegation will occupy two tables known as the "Baltimore tables," the list of those having made reservations including Mrs. Eleanor E. Carroll, Miss Janet H. Ross, Mrs. Grace S. Parks, Miss M. Theresa Dalgan, Mrs. Geneva Ziegfeld, Mrs. Emma Helena Davis, Miss Mary Stuart Bell, Mrs. Eleanor W. Hemsley, Mrs. Harvey

King-Coleket Engagement

Announced From Warrenton. At a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Burrus King at the Warrenton Hunt Club, Warrenton, Va., Saturday evening, the engagement was announced of their daughter, Mary Forbes, to Mr. Harrison Caner Colket of Philadelphia. Miss King, who entered society last year, is the daughter of the headmaster of Stuyvesant School, Warrenton. She is a granddaughter of the late Murray Forbes of Warrenton, and granddaughter of the late Capt. James North of Savannah, who was the Confederate commissioner to England for the purchase of ships and munitions of war. As a young officer in the United States Navy he also assisted in the laying of the first Atlantic cable. Through her father she is connected with the Nelson, Fish and Stuyvesant families of New York.

Mr. Colket is a son of the late Lieutenant C. Colket of Philadelphia, and is treasurer of the North American Smeling Co. of that city. He is a graduate of Stuyvesant School and of the University of Virginia.

Guests at the dinner numbered about 40 intimate friends of both families. The rooms and tables were decorated with Spring flowers, and dancing followed. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Eleanor Colket, Lippencott Colket, Richard Buchholtz and Louis Bodman of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton of Pittsburgh, Miss Jane Love, Miss Sally Harris, Robert Johnson, W. H. Ford, Herndon Phillips and Clark Brent of Washington, and Pierre C. Warwick of Richmond, Va. The wedding will take place in June.

Mrs. William Cumming Story, past president general of the D. A. R., is a guest at the Willard during the congress.

Mrs. David Hunt Blair has joined Mr. Blair in their apartment at the Wardman Park Hotel after visiting at Virginia Beach and in Winston-Salem, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bourassa have returned to the Wardman Park Hotel after passing some months in Palm Beach, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Bourassa were met in Jacksonville, Fla., by their daughter, Mrs. Rudolph Vliener, Jr., of New Orleans, who motored north with her parents. She will pass several weeks here.

Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton has arrived in Washington for the rest of the season. (Continued on Fourth Page.)
