

A canoe race in the Hawaiian style. Each manned by six paddlers, these native outrigger canoes are starting a race for the championship of the islands at Waikiki Beach.
© Underwood & Underwood.

Warming up to take a swim! On a Midsummer visit to Rocky Mountain, Miss Margaret McCulley, Denver diving champion, finds enough snow to use her skis on Lake before diving in.

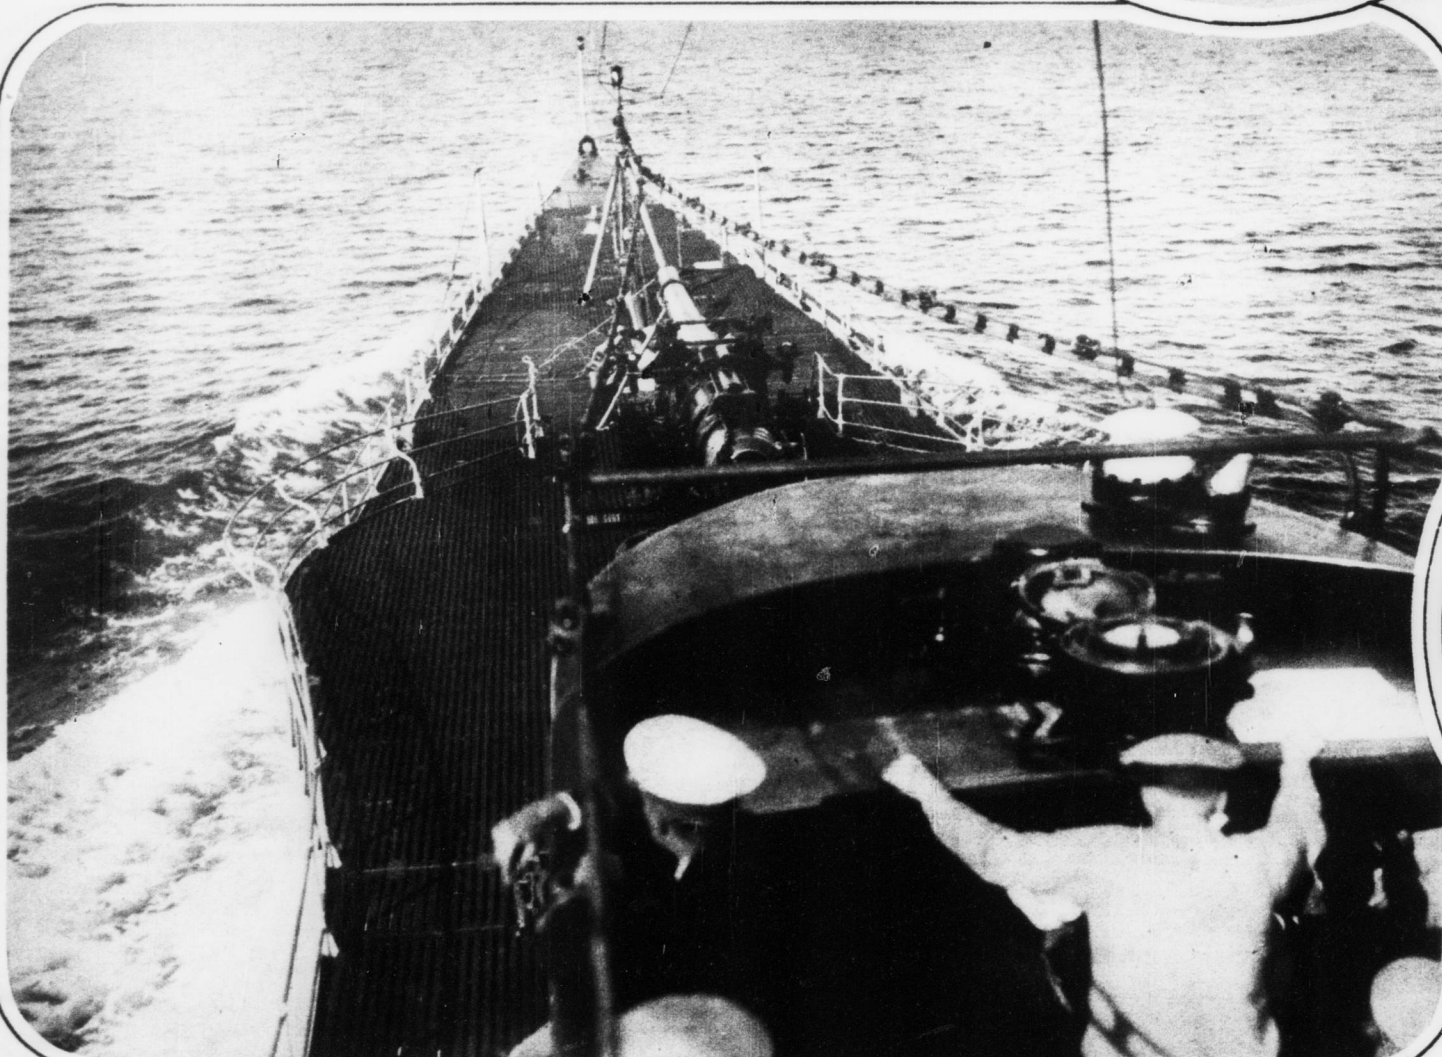

Teddy takes a ride at Brighton, England. The chain seems the only thing that convinces Teddy he isn't old enough to get out and walk.
© Associated Press Photo.

A far cry from the motor age! A fair Parisienne is borne in the medieval manner through the streets of Paris in a recent transportation pageant.
© P. & A. Photos.

Sweethearts of the rodeo. With this sort of competition it was no light task for judges to pick Miss Margaret McCulley (right) as "Sweetheart of the Rodeo" in Las Vegas, Calif.
© Associated Press Photo.

Uncle Sam's largest submarine on her trial run. A view from the bridge of the V-5, which in dimensions is almost a disappearing cruiser. With a surface speed of 17 knots, the V-5 has a cruising radius of 15,000 miles and carries 7 officers and 81 men.
© Associated Press Photo.

Paris celebrates Bastille day. The patriotic fervor of the national holiday is traditionally expressed by dancing on the streets and other gayeties, rather than with firecrackers and skyrockets.
© P. & A. Photos.