

N'gi, the popular little Washington Zoo gorilla, taking a walk with William H. Blackburn, head keeper, in the happy days before his long battle with pneumonia.

© Harris & Ewing

A floating fortress in drydock. The U. S. S. Nevada in drydock for inspection and cleaning at Pearl Harbor, Honolulu. She is the first battleship to use the dock since it was completed in 1919.

© Associated Press Photo.

Duke's beauty queen, Miss Pauline Chase of Brockton, Mass., is only a freshman at Duke University, but she was chosen the most beautiful of its more than 500 co-eds.

© Associated Press Photo.

Full of the joy of living. So seem these crack tumblers as they tune up in their tumbling for the American Olympic tryouts in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

© Associated Press Photo.

Tall opposition for the batter. F. H. Poor, jr., candidate for Harvard University's pitching staff, stands 6 feet 9 inches.

© Wide World Photos.

A good time was had by all. This fracas on the beach at Santa Monica, Calif., seems to be a snowball battle, with ice supplying the homemade variety of snow.

© Associated Press Photo.

Rudy Vallee, the radio crooner, vacationing at Santa Monica, Calif., with his wife and her father, Police Chief C. E. Webb of that town.

© Associated Press Photo.

"War" is tough on horses. When the attacking force landed on the Hawaiian Islands in the combined Army and Navy maneuvers, horses were sent ashore too. This is how they were transferred from a transport to a lighter.

© Associated Press Photo.