LANSBURGH & BRO. SALESMEN.

SALESMEN.

Have you been wondering why the article you may now be selling is not salable under present conditions? Let's assume you leave the best product in its field. Let's assume. also, you are as good a salesman as you were two years ago. Now, then, where is the hitch?

THIS IS PROBABLY THE ANSWER.

Mr. Public, today, is not buying anything but absolute necessities and those things that will save him money. Why not sell him what he wants?

20 outstanding auto service dealers are offering to the public a service book, giving $30 in absolutely free services—no strings attached. The book sells for $1.00—that is why it sells. The public may not buy other things, but Mr. Car Owner must have one of these service books. You will not make $75 or $100 a week, but none of the men who are selling them now make less than $5 to $10 a day.

If you are interested, call Decatur 4536, Sunday and Monday.
