CHAPTER ELECTS D.A.R. ALTERNATES

Arrangements for Congress
Made by Susan Riviere
Hetzel Group.

Susan Riviere Hetzel Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Richard L. Hoxie and her sister, Mrs. Robert Clay Sherrill, 3401 Macomb street, elected alternates to the Forty-fourth Continental Congress as follows: Mrs. Otis Black, alternated to the regent, Miss Luella Chase; Miss Minerva Cullon, Mrs. Bessie W. Gahn, Mrs. Harry S. Kimball, Miss Mildred Chancellor, Mrs. Wilbur Hinman, Mrs. Harold E. Doyle, Mrs. Richard Paul-ette, Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Mabel Hiatt, delegates' alternate. Miss Hiatt was hostess.

Reports Are Read.
Reports were given by Mrs. Ryland C. Bryant, genealogical records; Mrs. George Combs, historical; Mrs. Hoxie, literature for the blind; Mrs. Kim-berly, Constitution Hall finance; Mrs. William T. Clark, Chapter House en-tertainment; Mrs. Geoffrey Creyke, approved schools; Mrs. Hoxie, stu-dent loan; Mrs. C. A. S. Sinclair, na-tional president of the C. A. R., gave an illustrated lecture on "The Historical Homes of Virginia." Miss Janet Rich-

Mrs. Wade H. Ellis, who recently moved her membership from Ohio, and Mrs. Sam Massengale, wife of Representative Massengale of Okla-homa, were guests.
An informal talk on the Y. W. C. A. Kamp Kahlert was given by Mrs. Doyle. Mrs. John Lester Barr spoke on approved schools and took leading part in a much appreciated play, "End of the Rainbow," written by Harriet Chase. Others in the cast were Mrs. Fred H. Hopkins and Mrs. H. H. Thompson.

Tea was served, when Mrs. Ander-son and Mrs. McPherson poured.

President Monroe Chapter met at the home of Miss Laura Ruff and Miss Mabel Ezell, 1730 M street. The re-gent, Mrs. John Knox Arnold, pre-sided.

It was decided to contribute a good citizenship medal to one of the junior high schools and also to aid in the purchase of a wall case for the D. A. R. Museum in honor of Mrs. John M. Beavers. The chapter ob-served National Defense week and had as speakers Mrs. R. W. Means and Ashmun Brown. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Louisa Adams Chapter met at the home of Miss Catherine Watkins and Mrs. Julia Prentiss, in the Kenesaw Apartments. The chapter voted fa-vorably upon the application for membership of Mrs. Frye. In addi-tion to the regent and vice regent, the following alternates were chosen to the congress: Mrs. Harry Morris, Mrs. Lena Ellis, Mrs. Cora Drake, Mrs. Julia Prentiss, Miss Catherine Watkins, Miss Mary Black, Mrs. Haz-el Hickey and Miss May Husted.

Appropriations were made for the camp fund for the Sons and Daugh-ters of the U. S. A., for Americanism and for chapter house.

Mrs. F. W. Holt, chairman of the Braille Committee, spoke on the Braille work. The chapter voted to pay for a set of books of history printed in Braille. Mrs. John Beavers spoke on the D. A. R. halls.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and assistants.

Emily Nelson Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Albin L. Gemeny. Mrs. Irene M. Dilsaver and Miss Olive Brearley assisted the hostess. Mrs. Lois E. Hicks, regent, presided.

The chapter contributed $10 to the Literature Committee for the Blind for a volume in Braille in memory of Mrs. Mary E. St. Clair.

The following were elected alter-nates to Continental Congress: Mrs. Alice L. Curtin, Mrs. Alice Mason, Mrs. John J. Ragan, Miss May H. Dickin-son, Miss Esther Lyster, Miss Olive Brearley, Mrs. Helen M. Collins, Miss Ella Wulfin, Mrs. Una Dorsey and Mrs. Harry G. Duvall. Miss Jane Duvall, a new member, was welcomed.

Mrs. S. H. McCrory, State historian, talked on the work of her committee. Refreshments were served.

E Pluribus Unum Chapter met at the home of Mrs. William L. Pfeiffer, the Portner Apartments, with Mrs. L. R. Mabrey, Miss Mary Pfeiffer, Mrs. Marguerite W. Gotey and Mrs. E. E. Curry assisting hostesses. Mrs. Wil-liam B. Sinnott, regent, presided.

Mrs. Evelyn K. Athey, Mrs. W. Kent Taylor, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Charles A. Tawney of Pittsburgh, Pa., are new members. The name of Miss Edna Broadhead Houser of Philadel-phia, Pa., was presented for mem-ber-ship.

Mrs. Elmer E. Curry, State chairman of genealogical records, reported the completion of one volume of church records, in addition to other data se-cured. The resignation of Mrs. Carl H. Smith as recording secretary was accepted and Mrs. Harold F. Machlan was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

The chapter endorsed Mrs. Harry Colfax Grove for the office of registrar general, on Dr. Flora M. Gilentine's ticket. A gift was presented by the chapter to Mrs. Lyle R. Mabrey, a re-cent bride. The special guests were Mrs. H. L. Bouscaren, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins of Chicago, Ill. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The National Board of Management, C. A. R., met at Memorial Continental Hall. Mrs. C. A. Swann Sinclair, the national president, presided.

Mrs. William Henry Harper an-nounced the annual party for the children of the District would be given at the Washington Club on Washing-ton's birthday.

New State directors appointed were Mrs. James Edge of New Jersey and Mrs. Herbert A. Black for Colorado. Mrs. Black will bring a number of Colorado children to the convention to present a historical pageant.

Committees were confirmed to take charge of the annual convention the week of April 19. Chairman of the Program Committee, Mrs. C. A. Swann Sinclair; Seating, Mrs. Lawrence Gu-erolli; Credentials, Mrs. Charles S. Groves; Evening Party, Mrs. William H. Wagner; Publicity, Mrs. Amos A. Fries.

Other committees were headed by Mrs. John M. Kerr, Pilgrimage to Mount Vernon; Mrs. Josiah Van Ors-del, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier of the Revolution; Hospitality, Mrs. Wil-liam H. Harper. Mrs. Fries will take charge of the "Junior officers' luncheon in the Little Scout House."

Major L'Enfant Chapter will conduct a benefit card party tomorrow evening at the Kennedy Warren to raise funds for the purchase of a talking book for the blind veterans at Mount Alto Hospital. Reservations for tables for cards should be made with Mrs. Ster-ling Bockoven, regent.

The March meeting will be held at 1927 New Hampshire avenue. Two new members, Mrs. Floyd W. Reynolds and Mrs. H. R. Smalley, will be wel-comed. Plans will be made for the celebration of the twenty-fifth anni-versary of the chapter April 8.

Mary Washington Chapter cele-brated its 43d birthday anniversary Tuesday evening at the Washington Club.

Mrs. C. A. S. Sinclair, national president of the C. A. R., gave an illustrated lecture on "The Historical Homes of Virginia." Miss Janet Richards gave a short talk on the history of the chapter.

American Eagle Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Charles F. Taylor, 2101 New Hampshire avenue. The regent, Mrs. Edwin J. Ryan, announced Mrs. M. G. Cooke, chairman of genealogical research, had presented to the State chairman the records of old St. James' Episcopal Church. Mrs. E. Clayton Fish reported that she had com-pleted the record file for the State registrar. The chapter arranged to take a table at the dinner to be given by the State Conference at the May-flower Hotel March 5.

A buffet supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Marion Brumbach and Mrs. Lydia Noland.

Potomac Chapter met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Parker, 1381 Taylor street, with Mrs. Richard Curtis, Mrs. O. L. Briggs and Mrs. F. Y. Donn as-sisting. The regent, Mrs. Roy C. Bowker, presided.

The chapter voted to sponsor the performance to be given in New York April 8 for the benefit of the Approved Schools Committee. It was also voted to send a girl of the Girl Homemakers' Committee to camp for a week.

Mrs. Jesse Hill and Mrs. Charles E. Phraenor were elected to fill vacancies in the list of alternates to the Conti-nental Congress.

A paper on Anacostan Island, now Theodore Roosevelt Island, was read by Mrs. Alfred B. Garges of Frances Scott Chapter. Other guests included

Mrs. Robert De Shazo and Mrs. Fowler Barker.
