VALUE AND PRICE

Everyone should remember that "Value is what we receive and

No modern funeral director wishes to distress a bereaved family with needless discussion of price, but we believe that every responsible person should be shown that the price of a funeral represents more than the mere cost of the casket. The services of specially trained professional men, the use of special equipment and the facilities of a modernly planned funeral home are but a few of the factors that enter into the cost of a funeral. It will pay to remember this when it becomes necessary to make funeral arrangements.
