

BARKLEY ENTERS RE-ELECTION FIGHT

Kentucky Senator Announces Candidacy With Indorsement of President.

By the Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 24.—Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley has formally announced his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate.

His announcement yesterday followed a huge testimonial dinner given in his honor Saturday during which Marvin H. McIntyre, secretary to President Roosevelt, read a letter from the President praising Barkley's service as a Representative and Senator the last 25 years.

The announcement issued for Barkley described the Roosevelt letter as "in effect, a vigorous indorsement of Senator Barkley."

Although there has been no formal announcement to that effect, it is believed generally that Gov. A. B. Chandler will be the senior Senator's opponent in the Democratic primary in August.

Text of Letter.
The Roosevelt letter, addressed to McIntyre under date of January 21, read:

"My Dear Mac:
"I understand that friends of Alben Barkley are giving a dinner in his honor in Louisville tomorrow night and since you are also a Kentuckian I wish you would go down to Louisville and tell the home folks how much we in Washington think of their senior Senator.

"Alben Barkley, during his 25 years in Congress—first as a member of the House of Representatives and now for more than a decade as a member of the Senate—has rendered distinguished service to the country in all our national affairs and the present senior Senator is not only the inheritor of a great tradition of public service, but the exemplar in modern terms of that tradition.

Declared Critical Times.
"There are critical times, times which demand that a public man can command of resources and experience. Senator Barkley's long familiarity with national affairs, his integrity, his patriotic zeal, his courage and loyalty and his eloquence in enunciating and elucidating problems and principles give him exceptional equipment as a legislator and as a leader.

"For all that he has done in his country's service, his countrymen owe him a debt of gratitude which it is difficult to estimate but which I embrace this opportunity to acknowledge. I send him and all who gather in his honor my hearty good wishes.

"Very sincerely yours,
(Signed)
"FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT."

HEROISM FUTILE

Woman's Effort to Save Trapper From Ice Creek Described.

SANDPOINT, Idaho, Jan. 24 (AP).—The futile fight of an heroic mountain woman to save a trapper from an ice-filled creek was told today by Sheriff Warren Rapp.

Mrs. Fern Gelsinger was alone in her cabin when George Ducommun broke through rotten ice on Thoroughfare Creek and cried for help. She leaped into the water with an ax and tried to hack her way to him through cakes of ice. Failing, she swam ashore and cut a pole, but only in time to see Mr. Ducommun sink. Two trappers recovered Mr. Ducommun's body.

OPPOSES JENSEN

SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak., Jan. 24 (AP).—George J. Danforth, Sioux Falls attorney, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. He will oppose Gov. Leslie Jensen in the May 3 primaries.

If nominated he would oppose the Democratic incumbent, Senator Herbert W. Hitchcock.

Roosevelt Sees W.P.A. Art Work In Smithsonian

President Roosevelt yesterday made an unexpected visit to the Smithsonian Institution to view the exhibition there of handicraft and arts work under the auspices of the Works Progress Administration.

The President was accompanied by Samuel Rosemann, chief justice of the Supreme Court of New York and close personal friend of the President, and Mrs. Rosemann, both of whom are house guests at the White House, and David Niles, assistant W. P. A. administrator. The President was enthusiastic over all that he saw and expressed the hope that Mr. Niles that the exhibit could be taken on tour throughout the country. The President expressed great interest in the exhibition of old reclaimed art craft such as the early methods of weaving blankets and rugs. He was interested also in the art works and in the two volumes of Braille books for the blind. Regarding the latter, he asked Mr. Niles if it would be possible to obtain more Braille books for distribution to public libraries throughout the country.

of the State of New Jersey and the obligations of public office, which has looted the public treasury and which has enforced a reign of virtual dictatorship. We submit further that John Milton's character, associations and the transactions in which he is engaged as an attorney or while holding public office are such that he fails to meet the standards of qualifications requisite for membership in the Senate."

The Senate is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members. By a two-thirds vote it can oust a member of the Senate after he has been seated. The Senate has exercised this power of judgment on the qualifications of members or applicants for membership on a number of occasions.

Lorimer Was Ousted.
In 1912 the Senate ousted Senator Lorimer of Illinois by a majority vote, declaring that his election by the Legislature was invalid. This action was taken after a vote to "expel" Mr. Lorimer had failed. Frank L. Smith of Illinois and the late William S. Vane of Pennsylvania were both denied the right to be seated in the Senate when improper and excessive expenditures in their primary campaigns and elections campaigns were charged against them. The elections were held in 1926, although the action of the Senate took place in 1928 and in 1929.

The demand for an investigation, if granted, would mean a congressional inquiry into the conduct of affairs in Jersey City by Mayor Hague, who is a vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee and regarded as the political "boss" of New Jersey. For the charges made against Mr. Milton are all bound up with charges of corruption against Mayor Hague. They are listed in the petition, and include many alleged transactions for real estate, in which it charged that Mr. Milton acted as paymaster for Mayor Hague, using his own checks to make payment, and that he was reimbursed by Mr. Hague with cash.

Cites Ban on C. I. O.
Referring to the fact that Mayor Hague has denied the C. I. O. the right to enter Jersey City to organize workers, the petition said the city was under a dictatorial rule of Mr. Milton and the Mayor, "which has denied civil and constitutional rights to citizens of New Jersey and of the United States and which has violated the constitutional guarantee of a republican form of government. The existence of this dictatorship has recently become a matter of wide public knowledge and self-confession. This dictatorship, however, has been in existence for the last 20 years."

It was charged, too, that "subservient grand juries issue indictments and judges, frequently former personal counsel to Mayor Hague or corporation counsel of Jersey City, impose severe sentences and issue sweeping injunctions against any who dare to oppose this dictatorship."

Mr. Milton, the petition said, was appointed by Gov. Moore, "who was elected at an election where illegal and corrupt tactics were practiced."

WOMEN WITNESSES AT DOUBLE HANGING

Two See Iowa Executions for First Time in History of State.

By the Associated Press.
PORT MADISON, Iowa, Jan. 24.—Two women were among the 100 witnesses at the second double hanging in the history of the State of Iowa today.

Those executed were John Mercer, 29, convicted of the murder of Robert Sprout of Tipton, Iowa, while fleeing from a hold-up, and Allen Wheaton, 21, convicted of murdering Henry Plummer, a Council Bluffs, Iowa, robbery victim.

The women witnesses were Mrs. Joe Perry, wife of the sheriff of Pottawattami County, who sprang the trap beneath Wheaton's feet, and Mrs. Leo P. Woolworth, wife of a Fort Dodge official.

Neither seemed moved by the hangings.

"I believe they got what was coming to them," Mrs. Perry said. "I did not feel sorry for them at all."

Mrs. Woolworth arose and chatted with Mrs. Perry during the interval from the time the men dropped until they were pronounced dead.

Soviet Patrol Reported to Have Penetrated Nearly 100 Miles Across Border.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, Jan. 24.—A new frontier clash between Manchukuoan frontier guards and a Soviet detachment was reported today in a Domei (Japanese news agency) dispatch from Seoul, Korea.

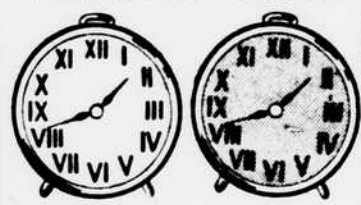

The report said a Soviet patrol had penetrated Manchukuoan territory for nearly 100 miles in Heilungkiang Province and was mapping the terrain when it encountered Manchukuoan guards.
