Life Begins

More than Half the Members of the New York Women Painters * are OVER 40

Anne Goldthwaite. its President. says: "Few fine painters do their best work before they are 40"

Self-portrait, by

ANNEGOLDTHWAITE'S work has received recognition that places her in the very front rank of living American painters. She frankly says: "Before I was 40, I'd sold a picture or two -but I'd hardly begun to arrive!"

Now, her paintings in oil, her prints and water colors, are in collectors' demand. A few years ago she modeled some negro heads in rich, brown Alabama clay, "just for fun." Most of them sold right out of her studio. Last year she did her first mural. Now she's at work on the second.

She is President of the New York Women Painters, more than half of whose members are over 40. Though Anne Goldthwaite claims she "can't even remember" when she was 40, today she is doing some of the most important work of her life.

"Given natural ability," Anne Goldthwaite says, "it is the years of hard work that count. And, of course, good health. Without health, any creative work must lose much of its vitality."

YOU Can Win Back Good Health As They Have Done

Dear Life Begins:

Activelin

By the time I was in my 40's, I was holding office in my district. Then, six years ago, I was told I'd have to have 14 teeth extracted. It really amounted to a major operation. So, in prepara-tion, I began to build up my health by eating Fleischmann's Yeast. Early in my career it had helped me. Thanks to the yeast, I stood the ordeal perfectly. Now I wouldn't go without my Fleischmann's Yeast every day for anything.

I've recently moved to a new district, and already I'm in the thick of things, politically. CHARLOTTE J. SMITH

Feels Better About Job These Days Dear Life Begins:

think I was a physical wreck. I had digestive trouble, was out of the office for some weeks, and then didn't pick up. I was worried about my job, which is in the advertising end of the newspaper business-no place couldn't sleep well at night and by day the noise of the presses aggravated my strained nerves. But only a few weeks after I'd started eating Fleischmann's Yeast, the stomach troubles began to dwindle away, my nerves calmed down and I began to sleep well again. With my new health I feel a whole lot better about my job, too. EDDY McLAUGHLIN

Feeling of Age Often Due to Slower Digestion

After 40, the digestive juices have altendency to become scantier and weaker.

But, by eating Fleischmann's Yeast, many people past 40 havs been able to check digestive decline. Fleischmann's Yeast has a special stimulating action-due to the millions of tiny, live yeast plants in fresh yeast. It helps bring about a fuller, stronger flow of gastric juices.

4 health-building vitamins in Fleischmann's Yeast give you added help. They are the Nerve Vitamin, the Cold-Resistance Vitamin, the Bone Vitamin and the Vitality Vitamin.

You'll soon learn to like the fresh, malty flavor of Fleischmann's Yeast. Eat 3 cakes every day-plain or in a little water-1 cake 1/2 hour before each meal. This will help stimulate the gastric juices to flow freely and be ready to digest your food more quickly and thoroughly.
