various university and social auspices.

Mrs. Griggs was Miss Margaret Keating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Keating of Terre Haute, Ind. She is active in Westchester County, N. Y., political, charitable and social activities.

Miss Estelle Frances Cormack
Marries Mr. L. A. Patterson, Jr.

A wedding of interest to many in Takoma Park took place Thursday evening, April 18, at 8 o'clock, in Glendale, Calif., when Miss Estelle Frances Cormack, the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Cormack of Takoma Park, became the bride of Mr. Leslie Arthur Patterson, Jr., of Los Angeles, the son of Mr. Leslie Arthur Patterson and the late Mrs. Patterson of Kelowna, British Columbia. The Rev. Theodore R. Flaiz, in whose home the ceremony took place, officiated.

Mr. Robert McLennan, formerly of Takoma Park, sang, and Mr. Carl Johnson and Mr. Paul Johnson played a violin duet.

The bride, who was given in marriage by the Rev. Clifford Anderson, wore a suit of dusty rose silk gabardine with white accessories.

Her corsage bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Biggs was her only attendant.

Mr. Ellsworth Edwin Wareham of Canada was the best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given for about 50 guests and among them were several well known, Calif., the Rev. and Mrs. the Rev. and Mrs. G. F. Enoch of Lynwood, Calif., the Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Anderson, old friends of the family from Australia, and Miss Gertrude Williams and Miss Helen Thomas of Takoma Park.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Patterson left for "Little Switzerland," where they spent a few days in the hills not far from Los Angeles.

After May 10 they will be at home in their bungalow in Los Angeles.

Mr. Patterson is studying medicine in the College of Medical Evangelists. He expects to complete his course in 1941.

The bride was born in Perth, Australia, but with her parents, who were missionaries, she lived in New Zealand, India, and later in England and five years ago they came to Washington. Recently she has been studying in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson expect to spend their vacation with Mrs. Patterson's parents in Takoma Park later in the season.

Willings Are Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Homer R. Hendricks have as their guests at their home in Edgemoor, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Shippen Willing of Bryn Mawr, Pa. Mr. Willing will judge the English cocker spaniels today at the dog show of the National Capital Kennel Club.

Miss Ratcliffe Sails Tomorrow To Wed in Rome

Former Consul General and Mrs. John Ball Osborne of the Westchester have as their guest this week Miss Edith Josephine Ratcliffe of Corpus Christi, Tex., who is engaged to marry their grandson, Mr. Hugh Osborne MacAuley of the Rome Consulate. Miss Ratcliffe will sail for Italy tomorrow on the American export liner Ex-Cambion, and the wedding will take place upon her arrival in Rome.

Miss Ratcliffe, who served as a page from Texas in the recent D. A. R. Congress, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ratcliffe of Corpus Christi. She attended school in Mexico City, Mexico; Thomas Jefferson High School in San Antonio and Sullins College in Bristol, Va.

Mr. MacAuley's family has been identified with the Foreign Service for more than half a century. His mother was born in the American Consulate at Ghent, Belgium, while her father was Consul there in the Benjamin Harrison administration.

Residential

guests were Mr. and Mrs. William G. Allen, Jr., Miss Mary Virginia Horner, Miss Patricia Saylor, Miss Virginia Duffy, Mr. Jo Powell, Mr. Robert Regan and Mr. Omar Hayes.

Mr. Frank J. McLane entertained at a luncheon Saturday in her home in Cleveland Park for little Miss Lilo Janssen, who is visiting her for a fortnight.

A cake topped by a miniature May pole, and surrounded by dainty dolls holding quaint bouquets formed the centerpiece of the table. The young guests included Marjorie Ellen Umhau, Doris Jane Grant, Patricia Grant, Caroline Rankin, Gladys C. Grant, Conrad Grant, John Umhau, Dean Martin, Roger Martin, Ivan Hopsom and Eugene Calman.

Mr. Elmon V. Carr, junior past president of the 1935 Matrons and Patrons Association, will entertain the association at a card party Saturday evening at the New Eastern Star Temple at 2600 Sixteenth street.

Envoys Are Patrons
For Sacred Heart
Shrine Party

The spring card party of the Shrine of the Sacred Heart will be held Wednesday, May 8, and will be sponsored by the League of the Sacred Heart. In addition to the card party, plans also call for the amusing and interesting game of musical quiz.

Among the patrons and patronesses are the French Ambassador, Count de Saint-Quentin; the Italian Ambassador, Prince Colonna; the Spanish Ambassador, Senor Don Juan Francisco de Cardenas; the Venezuelan Ambassador, Dr. Don Diogenes Escalante; the Brazilian Ambassador, Senhora de Martins; the Minister of Dominican Republic, Dr. Andres Pastoriza, and numerous members of the clergy, officials and residential Washington.

Auxiliary Doubles Mission Building Pledge of $1,000

The Evening Auxiliary of the Women's Guild of Central Union Mission has announced it will double its pledge of $1,000 to the building fund drive to raise $100,000 for an addition to the institution. A check for the first $1,000 was presented at the opening dinner of the campaign at the Calvary Baptist Church. Mrs. Merwyn Lanham is the auxiliary president.

The Women's Guild, parent body of the auxiliary, also has pledged $1,000 to the fund. Individual pledges are being made, while a large proportion of the membership is on the teams working in the drive. Mrs. William H. Ramsey is guild president.

The formal vote by the auxiliary to double the original pledge was taken at a recent session on the motion by Miss Charlotte Darrow, honorary lifetime president of the club. Members explained that action was taken because "we had so much fun raising the first $1,000."

Mrs. Jean Bennett, superintendent of the mission, is head of the women's division of the campaign, which is set for April 24-May 3.

Mrs. Morris Gives Party Tuesday

Mrs. Henry C. Morris will open her house at 3006 Albemarle street Tuesday afternoon for a desert-bridge party. The party, which will begin at 1:30 o'clock, is sponsored by the Women's Association of the Universalist National Memorial Church.

Patrons not wishing to play bridge may play other games or take their knitting and enjoy the social hour.

Mrs. Frank W. Ballou is chairman of arrangements and is assisted by Mrs. William H. McGlaughlin, Mrs. C. I. Hendrickson, Mrs. Charles E. Uppercue, Mrs. Francis Erdman, Mrs. G. T. Hawkins, Mrs. H. Jerome Graham, Mrs. H. G. Copeland, Mrs. Martin E. Jansson, Mrs. G. S. Holman and Mrs. Arthur G. Wiley.

Dakota Visitors
En Route Home

Dr. and Mrs. John Leo Devine, Jr., who have been the guests of the latter's grandmother, Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, for 10 days, left yesterday by motor for New York, and later this week will start the return trip to their home in Minot, N. Dak.

Mrs. Devine, before her marriage a year ago, was Miss Mary Virginia Williams, daughter of Mrs. M. Harrison Williams, and she came to be matron of honor for her sister, the former Miss Martha Harrison Williams, at her marriage Saturday to Mr. Paul Franklin Traynham.

New 1812 Officers
Guests at Luncheon

Mrs. John Francis Weinmann, honorary national president of the United States Daughters of 1812, entertained newly-elected officers of the society at a luncheon yesterday at the Sulgrave Club. Guests included two other honorary national presidents, Mrs. Robert Johnston and Mrs. Arthur J. O'Neill, and the new national president, Mrs. Percy Y. Schelly of Philadelphia.

Others present included Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy, Detroit; Miss

Edla Gibson, Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Lewellyn Edwards, Maine; and Mrs. John Porter Gibson, Huntington Park, Calif., vice presidents; Mrs. Franklin Miller, Chicago, chaplain; Mrs. Loren Rex, Kansas, historian; Mrs. Claude W. Pound, Toledo, Ohio, treasurer; Mrs. John S. Adams, Dublin, Ga., curator; Mrs. Lane Schofield, Washington, registrar; Mrs. Albert L. Craig, Tennessee, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Harold Sayre, Point Pleasant, W. V., librarian.

Yugoslav Concert Scheduled Tonight

The Yugoslav American Association of Washington is sponsoring a concert this evening to be given in the Knights of Columbus Auditorium, at 920 Tenth street N.W., for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the association. The program this evening will be given by the Duquesne University Tambrizita Orchestra at 8 o'clock, and among those expected to attend are members of the Yugoslav Legation staff.

Alumnae to Dine

Mrs. Roland Whitehurst of Chevy Chase will be the guest of honor tonight at a farewell dinner given by the Washington chapter of the Hunter College alumnae, of which she has been president for a number of years. The dinner will be held at the A. A. U. W. clubhouse.

Mrs. Whitehurst and her family will leave Washington soon to live in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hull Joins Mrs. Daugherty

Mrs. William E. Hull of Peoria, Ill., has returned to Washington, where she visited last week, from a short trip to Virginia. She joined Mrs. Harry K. Daugherty, wife of the chief counsel for the State Highway Department of Pennsylvania, who has been here for 10 days. Mr. and Mrs. Daugherty formerly lived in Washington when he was a judge of the Spanish-American Claims Commission and later when he was assistant solicitor for the Treasury.

Mrs. Hull, who also has many friends in Washington, where she lived for some years while Mr. Hull was a member of Congress, will accompany Mrs. Daugherty to her home in Harrisburg for a visit before returning to Illinois.

Mrs. Keen to Show Works of Art

Mrs. James L. Keen, Jr., of Dublin, Ga., who is staying at the Wardman Park Hotel, is receiving a number of guests Sunday, Monday and Tuesday afternoons for a private showing of her water colors and other works of art in the Madison suite.

Mrs. Keen recently had an exhibition of heralding painting in connection with the D. A. E. Congress at Constitution Hall. She will submit a number of her works for the summer exhibition at Wesley Hall Galleries, which will be open May 12.
