By the Associated Press.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 27.-Columbia University crews swept the Severn River today, defeating Navy Severn River today, defeating Navy oarsmen in varsity, junior varsity Penn State Team and freshman races.

Columbia's long layback stroke Columbia's long layback stroke had a telling effect over the Navy's christ rhythm as all the Rhua and abrupt rhythm as all the Blue and White crews jumped into the lead at the start and finished all 11/2mile races going away. Columbia's varsity finished ahead of Navy's crew with better than open water, completing the course in the good time of 7 minutes 53% seconds against the midshipmen's 7 minutes 593/5 seconds.

Keeping their pace low throughtheir pace to 40 strokes a minute in the last sprint and cut away from Navy by better than a length and a quarter, although Navy met its opponents' pace.

Columbia Away in Lead. Columbia had taken a slight edge at the start as both crews got off with a pace of 36. Columbia held its pace to 34 at the mile, while

Navy pulled up to 36. Columbia was leading by a quarter length at the mile and a quarter mark as both crews hit 35. With a quarter-mile to go, Navy made its last stab by pulling up almost even with the Columbia shell as both crews hit 38, but the visitors bit into the water and upped their pace steadily to shoot ahead.

The Columbia jayvees set the pattern for the varsity shell by cutting across the finish line with a two-length lead, coming down the course in 7 minutes 56% seconds to top Navy's second boat by 8 seconds.

Lions' Freshmen Star. Columbia's crack freshman crew had an easy time disposing of the ragged Navy plebe crew and came In by better than three lengths. The Columbia frosh moved easily down the course in 8 minutes 11% seconds, while the plebes finished in a minutes 27 seconds.

Dodge Entry Defeats Outstanding Rivals In Final Judging

Many Winners in Groups Come From District, Nearby Kennels

The most successful dog show ever held by the Old Dominion Kennel Club or any other club south of Washington closed yesterday with the crowning of the German shepherd, Ch. Thora von Bern of Giralda, as best in the show. Thora is owned by Mrs. Grace Rockefeller Dodge and was handled in the ring by McClure Halley. She is a mediumsized black and tan dog of no striking qualities, but thoroughly typical and sound.

Pitted against her in the final judging were at least four dogs with outstanding show careers. The victor of the sporting group was the Quay-owned English springer spaniel which has a number of best-inshow awards to its credit. Out of the hound group came another bestin-show winner, the Du Pont-owned beagle, Ch. Foxcatcher Merryman. The Scottish terrier, Ch. Barberry Knowe Larkspur, a consistent group topper, took the terrier group, and Mrs. Richard Quigley's recently imported Pekingese, Rememham Derri of Orchard Hill, another best-inshow winner, was the toy victor.

Bulldog Is Surprise Winner. The only newcomer to the group was the surprise winner, a heretofore unheard-of bulldog, George M. Beckett's Dour Dimboola. It came out of the American-bred class to go over a number of dogs that have been winning consistently at other shows. Since bulldogs seldom go up in the non-sporting group, the fact that this dark horse was rated so highly by the group judge is a tribute to the judging ability of Arthur Forbush of Washington, who donned the mantle for only the second time at this show. Clear weather, an exceptionally good gate, a high quality of dogs and a record entry combined to make of this show a gala event in the annals of the club and a source of real income to the Alexandria Hospital, which shared in the profits of the venture. Number of dogs from this region emerged as worthy show dogs. Marguerite Jones exhibited a miniature schnauzer puppy that went from puppy bitch to best of winners. Minquas Zorina is a home-bred that bids fair to rival her older brother Ch. Minquas Marko, today's best of breed winner for Miss Jones. Eberle's Delight Scores. Another local kennel that is making a mark is that of the Anderson at Glenmont, which had the reserve winning dog and bitch in that breed. Helen Samuel's Pekingese, Blue Boy's Ace, went over a hot field group winner, Rememham Derri of Unless there has been some mistake in calculation, this show saw the completion of the necessary 15 points toward the title for Dr. Ernest

Butz's beagle, Eberle's Delight, as well as a good start for the male
