Planning Association Says U. S. Could Feed Another 130,000,000

The National Planning Association, in a detailed analysis of the world's food must face all these factors and decide upon a diet for civilians that can reasonably be set up as needed during the war.

The Army diet, according to Dr. Black, is "at least half more than the average civilian diet, but it can be revised, if need be, by substituting other animal proteins for part of the excessive meat diet."

In discussing food for occupied countries, he warned that the diet afforded these nations should not be higher than they can sustain later by their own efforts. "Any plans for ramping the agricultural production of a country must be worked out carefully with the leaders of the country and made acceptable to the people who are going to use the plans," he said.

He estimated that food for Allied countries during 1944 would be supplied approximately at the rate of production in the period of 1935-39. Such a volume of production, he said, will call for applications of more lime and fertilizer and more all-round intensity of soil management and for better feeding and livestock management.

Dr. Black, a professor of economics, is a member of the association's Agriculture Committee on National Policy. He also is on the economic panel which is advising the United Nations Interim Commission on food and agriculture.

Purple Heart Awarded Marine Killed in Action

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Corbett, 1780 Park road N.W., have been notified by Marine Corps Headquarters that the Purple Heart has been awarded posthumously to their son, First Lt. J. R. Corbett, jr., who was killed in air action in the Southwest Pacific area on July 20.

Col. John Dixon, U. S. M. C., advised them by letter received yesterday that the presentation will be made within the next two months.

Lt. Corbett was born in Beloit, Wis., October 5, 1918, and received his early education there. He graduated from the school of civil engineering at Catholic University in 1941 and was presented the Harris Trophy for ability as a scholar and athlete. He was an outstanding runner and held the university stadium records for the 1 mile and 2 mile run and numerous triangular meet records.

After graduation he joined the marines and trained at Quantico, later was transferred to the West Coast and sent overseas early this year.

He is survived by his parents and six sisters, Anne, Helen, Mary, Kathleen, Patricia and Jeanne.

Two Washington Area Youths Among 290 Killed in Action

Two soldiers from the Washington area, one a 19-year-old private who died in the landing at Salerno, Italy, were named in a list of 290 men reported killed in action by the War Department last night.

Pvt. Luther R. Weakley, Jr., whose parents live at 1217 G street S.E., was killed at Salerno, and Sgt. Jack H. Loveless, 22-year-old gunner on a Flying Fortress, was shot down in a raid over Germany.

Mrs. Doris M. Spradlin, resides at 3716 Thirty-fifth street, Mount Rainier, Md.

Mr. Weakley, sr., last night said he had not heard from his son since he was sent across, five months after he entered the service. Pvt. Weakley entered the Army last April.

A graduate of Eastern High School, Pvt. Weakley had been employed by the printing firm of Judd & Detweiler. He attended Grace Baptist Church. A brother, Alvin, 16, attends Eastern High School and the father is a salesman for the Brewer-Snyder Co.

Sgt. Loveless was reported missing in mid-August. He had been abroad six months, stationed in England, and had been on several successful missions before his plane was shot down. The fortress was dubbed "Dear Mom" by the crew.

Sgt. Loveless was born in Laurel, Md., and attended high school there. An ardent sports fan, he was active in local sandlot baseball and football circles, and also bowled. He was employed by the Stone Straw Co. before entering the service.

mediately, continuing these what-ever discussions are interrupted."

Here are other details as related by this informant:

Hitler, until he went to Munich for the November 8 anniversary of the founding of the Nazi party, had left his headquarters only a few times and then by airplane with heavy fighter protection.

In addition to Hitler's personal storm-trooper bodyguard of 500 selected men at headquarters, there also are special Gestapo and infantry units stationed within a radius of five or more miles.

Must Check Weapons.
 Anyone being received by Hitler, whether a German minister or party leader, must always check all weapons before entering.

Among the Nazis, Himmler and Goebbels are Hitler's most frequent visitors. Goering, who once was a regular attendant at all Hitler conferences, seldom has appeared in recent months. He has his own air force headquarters, of course.

Hitler in a typical day at headquarters arises at 6 a.m., and confers with his generals two hours later. His relations with the generals have become rather cool and during these meetings, which may last more than two hours, Hitler's excited, impassioned voice often can be heard outside.

After the military conference, he turns to state affairs and receives the reports of his ministers. Even at the front he is interested in the most trivial affairs and fusses with details.

Drinks British Tea.
 He takes a hasty lunch at 1:30. He has acquired a taste for tea—British brand.

In the afternoon he again receives ministers and high-ranking Nazi leaders who are summoned often for prolonged sessions. Afterward he again confers with his military staff and then has dinner—which is usually two dishes with tea.

He receives another brief report on developments at the front about midnight and retires about 2 a.m.

He apparently requires little sleep and except for a recurrent throat ailment has not been seriously ill in several months.

However, his humor is bad and he gives the impression of being constantly tired from the strain of so many conferences, at which he always speaks at length.

Does Your Face Powder Whisper

Older? Younger?

Your age is your own affair! But can your face powder keep a secret? Does the powder you use hide those first sly signs of age? Or does it cruelly accent every line—make you look a little older?

By Lady Esther

When someone asks you your age, do you hesitate, just an instant? Do you drop off a year or two? It's no crime, you know... everybody wants to look young!

But if you want to look young and attractive, why use a face powder that may add age to the appearance of your skin—even a tiny bit? Why not use the face powder deliberately planned to flatter your skin—to make it look younger and more enchanting—Lady Esther Face Powder!

You see, Lady Esther Face Powder is so flattering because it's made differently. It isn't just mixed, just sifted, in the usual way. It's blown by Twin Hurricanes—blended with the speed and power of hurricanes—to look clearer, smoother and more youthful on your skin!

Because of this patented, exclusive method of hurricane blending, the texture of Lady Esther Face Powder is much smoother and finer than ordinary powder. The first touch of your puff spreads a delicate film of beauty on your skin, hiding little lines, little blemishes. And Lady Esther Face Powder clings so much longer, too—clings smoothly and fragrantly—stays fresh four long hours!

But the most exciting difference is in the shades. Lady Esther shades have a subtle new quality—because of the way the color is blown in by hurricanes. Many women say that the Lady Esther shades are so fresh and alive—they look so youthful and appealing on the skin—that ordinary powder shades seem dull and drab by comparison.

Living Proof—
In Your Own Mirror!

Why choose a face powder because it is expensive, or because of a clever package? Judge it only by its appearance on your skin!

That's why I say—try Lady Esther Face Powder! Get the smallest size box, if you like—but try it! When you see how much softer, smoother and younger it makes your skin look—it's time enough to get the largest and most economical size. But for living proof in your own mirror that this is the most flattering face powder you have ever used, get the small-size box of Lady Esther Face Powder today!

Walker, Ulio to Talk At V-Mail Ceremony

Postmaster General Frank C. Walker and Maj. Gen. James A. Ulio, Adjutant General of the Army, will be guest speakers at the USO Club, Eighth and Market space N.W., at 5:30 p.m. tomorrow. Ceremonies there will open a two-week campaign sponsored by the USO to promote the use of V-mail.

The campaign will be concurrent with the showing of a V-mail exhibit and motion picture, compiled by the Army Postal Service, in the Eighth and Market space window of Kann's Department Store. Desks will be installed in the display window, where USO hostesses may write V-mail Christmas letters to boys overseas, using V-mail stationery furnished free to all civilians who request it.

Throughout the campaign, hostesses and soldiers at the 16 USO centers will be on duty to explain the method and distribution of V-mail to civilians. The USO next to Griffith Stadium will be formally opened next month for Negro servicemen and war workers and hosesses there will write Christmas greetings in the display window and will give an explanation of the V-mail system.

At tomorrow's ceremony, Sidney F. Tallaferrro, chairman of the Washington USO Council, will explain the organization's co-operation in the morale project. Joseph Schildkraut, stage star, currently playing at the National, also will be present.

A tea will follow the ceremony under the direction of Mrs. Tallaferrro, assisted by hostesses from other local USO clubs. The program will be broadcast over Station WINX.
