

Informal Gathering at Embassy; Sutherlands Feted During Visit

Diplomats and those in that circle took leading roles in the numerous festivities in the Capital yesterday, the Ambassador of Poland and Mme. Ciechanowska attending a late afternoon fete for their countrywoman, Mme. Wanda Landowska, and Senora de Michels, wife of the Chilean Ambassador, sharing honors with Mrs. Henry F. Grady at luncheon.

The Ambassador and Mme. Ciechanowska, with the Polish Minister-Counselor and Mme. Kwapiszewska, the Military, Air and Naval Attaches and their wives, were guests at the tea which the Naval and Air Attache of the Argentine Embassy and Senora de Brunet gave in honor of Mme. Landowska, famous Polish exponent of the art of harpsichord playing.

Capt. and Senora de Brunet made no formality of their party, the hostess receiving her 100 or more guests, with Mme. Landowska not far away, in the charming drawing room of their home on Woodley road. The tea table was laid in the sunroom, where Senora de Brunet, wife of the Brazilian Air Attache, and Senora de Alencastro-Guimaraes, wife of the First Secretary of the Embassy, poured delicious South American tea and the more familiar kinds to those in the United States.

Guests gathered in groups to chat about the dining room, where other liquid refreshment, with delicacies usually found at the tea hour, were served. Mme. Landowska, an old friend of Senora de Brunet, is in Washington for her first public appearance in many years, having been a soloist at the final concert of 1943 of the Chamber Music Guild Tuesday evening in Memorial Continental Hall. The other soloist with the Guild Quartet was Nan Merriam, mezzo-soprano.

The luncheon in honor of Senora de Michels and Mrs. Grady was given by Mrs. Charles J. Brand, who entertained at the shoreham. The guests numbered about 18 and were seated at one large table. Mrs. Grady, wife of the former Assistant Secretary of State, is spending some time in Washington, where she has many friends. She came some weeks ago from her present home in California.

Former Senator and Mrs. Howard Sutherland, who have been in their Washington home since Thanksgiving, shortly will be off to Florida for the winter. That is, if their children and grandchildren do not prevail upon them to remain here for Christmas and the holidays. Then, they will leave for Clearwater, the first of the year. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have spent their winters during the past few years at Clearwater, coming North in the spring for a short stay to remain here for Christmas and the holidays. They stopped in New York en route to Washington for Thanksgiving, to attend the wedding of their granddaughter, Miss Margaret Sutherland Walker, daughter of Mr. John S. Walker and the late Mrs. Walker of Huntington, W. Va., when she married Pvt. Peter Hansen, U. S. A., son of Dr. Peter Hansen of New York. The wedding took place November 24 in the Church of the Heavenly Rest in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland enjoyed a brief visit with their now-famous son, Maj. Gen. Richard Sutherland, U. S. A., who was here for a few days from his post in the South Pacific. During his stay here, Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland planned an informal family dinner party for him, and he also was entertained at dinner by his sister, Mrs. Sutherland Mayo, Gen. and Mrs. Sutherland were hosts one evening to the other members of the family living in Washington, before he started off on his present assignment.

Guest of Honor At Luncheon

Mrs. Garland S. Ferguson, jr., wife of the retiring Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given yesterday at the Army and Navy Country Club by Mrs. Robert E. Freer, whose husband will succeed Commissioner Ferguson as Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, January 1.

Others in the company included Mrs. Wiley Rutledge, Mrs. Jerome F. Barnard, Mrs. Herbert M. Bingham, Mrs. Harvey B. Bolton, Mrs. Thad H. Brown, Mrs. Thomas H. Creighton, jr., Mrs. Homer Cummings, Mrs. John V. Dolan, Mrs. Frederick Brown Harris, Mrs. Francis E. Hildebrand, Mrs. Francis W. Hill, jr., Mrs. Ira Milton Jones of Milwaukee, Mrs. John P. Lake, Mrs. John A. Maguire, Mrs. Norman L. Meyers, Mrs. George Maurice Morris, Mrs. E. Barrett Prettyman, Mrs. Val C. Sherman and Mrs. George W. Williams.

Party Planned For Sunday

Miss Ann Harcourt will be the guest of honor at a late afternoon party to be given Sunday in the Chinese room at the Mayflower by Miss Helene Kravatzke.

Miss Harcourt is an artist of note, having painted portraits of many well-known persons in Europe as well as in America. She comes by her talent quite naturally, as she is the daughter of Mr. George Harcourt, a member of the Royal Academy in London, and a sister of Miss Aletha Harcourt, who also is a prominent artist.

Envoy and Wife Honor Guests

The Ambassador of Panama and Senora de Jimenez will be the guests of honor at a buffet party to be given this evening at the Mayflower by Mrs. Louise Valerie De Jan of Panama, formerly of New Orleans, who is the house guest of Maj. and Mrs. Edward H. Conner. The guests, who will number 50, will include other Latin American diplomats, as well as other friends of the hostess in the various services.

Tea to Be Given

Mme. Wei, wife of the Ambassador of China, will be the guest in whose honor Mme. Seni Pramoj, wife of the Minister of Thailand, will entertain at a tea Friday afternoon, December 17, from 5 to 7 o'clock, at the Legation in Kalorama road.

Visit
SMALL'S
Gift Center
for
Gifts for Friends
Who Love Gardens,
Birds and Flowers

Dupont Circle Dupont 7000

MRS. CALVIN WALLACE SMITH.
—Underwood & Underwood Photo.

Marriage Ceremony Held at Home Of Friend

The marriage of Miss Nanieta Antilotti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Antilotti, of Atlanta, to Mr. Calvin Wallace Smith, U. S. N. R., of Ventura, Calif., son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith, of Carbondale, Ill., took place in Washington Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Grace Keller Cooper, the Rev. Brahmanchari John officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who with Mrs. Antilotti, came from his home in Atlanta for his daughter's wedding. She wore a white satin crepe gown and a fingertip veil, which fell from a coronet of pearls, and carried a white prayer book covered with a white orchid and showered with ribbons of the valley. She also wore a two-star diamond pendant and carried a handkerchief of Duchess lace which had been carried by brides for generations.

Mrs. Grace Keller Cooper, the matron of honor, wore a matching lace cap and a bouquet of lavender orchids, and Miss Patricia Collins of Atlanta, the maid of honor, was in blue lame, and she also wore orchids.

Mr. John Stine, U. S. R. N., acted as best man for Mr. Smith, and the ushers were Mr. George Parezo and Mr. Gerald Gibson.

A reception for those present at the ceremony followed the marriage ceremony.

Sunday's bride is an attorney with the Department of Justice in Washington. Mr. Smith is an engineering instructor in the Navy. The couple will make its home in Washington.

Contribute your junk to the great junk pile of the future—the ambitions of the Jap militarists.

Society and Clubs

Navy Daughter Wed To Mr. Willett In California

Comdr. Charles G. McCormack, U. S. N. M. C., and Mrs. McCormack announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Ellen McCormack, to Mr. Edwin Dexter Willett, U. S. A. R., son of Mr. Charles J. Willett and Mrs. Alvira Willett of Hawaii, November 3, at All Souls' Church in Alhambra, Calif.

Miss Margaret Jean Glendinning of Los Angeles was maid of honor for the bride and Dr. Bartlett K. Baker, also of Los Angeles, was best man for Mr. Willett.

The bride is a niece of Comdr. W. E. Kellum, U. S. N. M. C., and Mrs. Kellum of Bethesda. She is a former student of the Woodrow Wilson High School in this city and later was graduated from the Theodore Roosevelt High School in Honolulu. She attended the University of Hawaii and later returned to this city, where she studied music at the Washington Musical Institute. Her father, who was attached to the Naval Hospital in Bethesda in 1940 and 1941, has just returned from sea duty in the South Pacific, and is on duty at the Naval Hospital in Bremerton, Wash. The bride will make her home with her parents in Bremerton until her husband has completed his training period at Buckley Field, Colo.

Mr. Willett is a graduate of Punahou College and he also attended the University of Hawaii and Washington State College in Pullman, Wash., before joining the Army.

Engaged to Wed Clyde Tavenner

Mr. and Mrs. John T. O'Brien of Drexel Hill, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Joanne O'Brien, to Mr. Clyde H. Tavenner, U. S. N. R., son of Mrs. Isabel Tavenner of Washington and the late Representative Clyde H. Tavenner of Illinois.

Miss O'Brien and Mr. Tavenner both attended school in Washington. Mr. Tavenner is stationed now at the Naval Hospital in Chelsea, Mass. No date has been set for the wedding.

Couple to Reside In Takoma Park

Announcement is made of the marriage November 29 of Mrs. Kathryn Elizabeth Warren of Paxtang, Harrisburg, Pa., to Mr. Norman Chester Jones of Takoma Park, at the Woodside Methodist Church in Silver Spring.

The Rev. Ralph Smith officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a reception at the home of Mrs. C. M. Kyle in Takoma Park. The couple will be at home after December 15 at 312 Cedar avenue, Takoma Park.

To Be Guests

Mrs. W. Chapin Huntington will entertain the members of the Society of Woman Geographers at tea Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at her home.

Kennedy-Dozier Wedding Held At Woodside

The Woodside Methodist Church was the scene of the wedding Monday of Miss Mary Louise Dozier, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Douglas Dozier of North Woodside, and Lt. (j. g.) Robert Maurice Kennedy, jr., U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Maurice Kennedy of Pittsburgh. The Rev. Dr. Ralph D. Smith officiated at the ceremony and Mrs. Dorothy Radde Emery played the nuptial music on the organ. An informal reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Smith College, class of 1943. Lt. Kennedy, who was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1942, is stationed near Indianhead, Md., where with his bride he will make his present home. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy came from their home in Pittsburgh for their son's wedding, as did Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaughn Blaxter, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, who entertained the wedding party Saturday evening at the Statler.

Event Planned By Institute

Dr. Manuel de J. Sainz, formerly attached to the Cuban Embassy and well known in this city, will be the guest of honor at the open house to be held by the Latin American Institute Sunday afternoon.

Dr. Sainz, founder of the institute, and formerly dean of the institute's school of languages, will return as dean. Having been drafted last August, Dr. Sainz was injured on basic training maneuvers in South Carolina and only recently was discharged by the United States Army.

Aside from representatives of the various Latin American Embassies, others who are to attend will include friends and supporters of the American Institute.

Medical Auxiliary Hears Dr. Macatee

Dr. Henry C. Macatee, a past president of the District Medical Society, discussed "National Health Legislation" before the Women's Auxiliary of the society at its monthly meeting yesterday.

During the business session, donations were voted to the District Tuberculosis Association and to the In-Bed Club of the Washington Heart Association. The contribution to the In-Bed Club is to help provide Christmas cheer for sick children.

Mrs. H. S. Lewis was appointed chairman of the Finance Committee and Mrs. Don R. Johnson, chairman of public relations.

Convent Unit to Meet

The Executive Committee of the Georgetown Visitation Convent Alumnae Association will meet at 5 p.m. tomorrow with the president, Miss Christabel Hill, 2029 Hiller place N.W. Representatives of the graduating class of the junior college also will attend.

MISS JEAN E. GOCHENOUR.

The engagement of Miss Gochenour to Aviation Cadet Roger W. Moser, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Moser of Hattifax, Nova Scotia, formerly of Washington, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gochenour. A spring wedding is planned.

Plan Christmas Play

A play, "Christmas in a Cobbler's Shop" will be presented by the Amethyst Woman's Christian Temperance Union at a joint meeting with the Central WCTU at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The session will be held at All States Hotel with Miss Emma T. Watts, Central WCTU president, presiding. Mrs. Jesse Jewell of the Amethyst Union will direct the play.

Sorority to Meet

Alpha Gamma Delta will hold its Christmas dinner meeting at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the Jackson Place Coffee Shop, 736 Jackson Ashmead place N.W. The program will include a talk on radio's place in the war by Mrs. M. G. Goetzman. Mrs. L. E. Boykin is handling reservations.

The new officers of the club are: Mrs. Everett B. Wilson, president; Mrs. Willard T. Miller, vice president; Mrs. Dawson, secretary, and Mrs. John Corkill, treasurer.

THE EVENING STAR.

Washington, D. C. Thursday, December 9, 1943.  B-3

CAR Rounds Out Year's Program Of War Projects

With the purchase today of enough War Bonds to finance a jeep for the Army, the National Society, Children of the American Revolution, rounds out a triple program of war projects within a year.

The society contributed $2,000 for an ambulance for the Red Cross last December and in April presented $2,400 for purchase of a Red Cross clubmobile.

Mrs. Louise Moseley Heaton, of Clarksdale, Miss., national CAR president, was scheduled to purchase $1,184 worth of bonds for the society today in a ceremony at Memorial Continental Hall. The funds have been raised by CAR societies throughout the United States.

Five-year-old Margaret Ann Creyke, granddaughter of Mrs. Geoffrey Creyke, State regent of the District Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, was scheduled to participate in the presentation. Others included Mrs. Howard S. Le Roy, chairman of organizations for the Women's Division, District War Finance Committee, and Lt. Samuel Corcoran, U. S. A.

Those attending the ceremony were to include Miss Virginia Simmons, junior president of the District CAR; Mrs. Donald B. Adams, national chairman of the CAR war projects fund; Mrs. Creyke, Miss Lillian Chenoweth, vice president general D.A.R., and George Redfern of the war prisoners section, American Red Cross.

Wells Club Plans Luncheon Tuesday

Undergraduate and prospective students of Wells College will be honored by the Wells Club of Washington at a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at Henderson's Castle, Sixteenth street and Florida avenue N.W. Mrs. Horace Dawson, 2357 Ashmead place N.W., is in charge of reservations. All alumnae are invited to attend.

The new officers of the club are: Mrs. Everett B. Wilson, president; Mrs. Willard T. Miller, vice president; Mrs. Dawson, secretary, and Mrs. John Corkill, treasurer.

Hollins President To Be Honored

Dr. Bessie Carter Randolph, president of Hollins College, will be honored at a tea to be given at 4:30 p.m. Saturday by Mrs. William A. Disque at 1300 New Hampshire avenue N.W.

Dr. Randolph will be here to attend a session of the committee on legislative programs of the American Association of University Women. She is chairman of the committee.

The guest of honor will be greeted by Hollins Alumnae and new officers of the local Hollins Club. The officers are: Mrs. Disque, president; Mrs. Paul F. Hannah, vice president; Mrs. John H. Yingling, secretary; Mrs. Alice Bandy, treasurer; Mrs. Harry W. Harris, historian, and Mrs. Simmons B. Savage, jr., registrar.

Readers Club Plans Benefits Pageant

A Christmas pageant, "Mistletoe and Holly," will be presented by the Washington Readers' Club for the benefit of the Red Cross at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday at Pierce Hall, Sixteenth and Harvard streets N.W. Representative Randolph, Democrat of West Virginia will be guest speaker. Dr. Orris G. Robinson will pronounce the invocation.

A cast of 50 will participate in the pageant. Arranged and directed by Lenore Marie de Grange, is dedicated to her father and mother, Col. and Mrs. J. William de Grange. Several of the episodes were written by Ada Louise Townsend.

Members of the Red Cross will act as ushers for the performance, which will be attended by Red Cross officials. The program is open to the public, with a collection to be taken for the Red Cross.

Alliance to Meet

Capt. Rhoda Milliken will speak on "The Problem of Juvenile Delinquency" before the Women's Alliance, All Souls' Unitarian Church, at 2 p.m. tomorrow. The speaker is director of the women's bureau, Police Department.

A business session will be held at 1 p.m. after luncheon at noon.

gift star

PRETTY CHECKS...

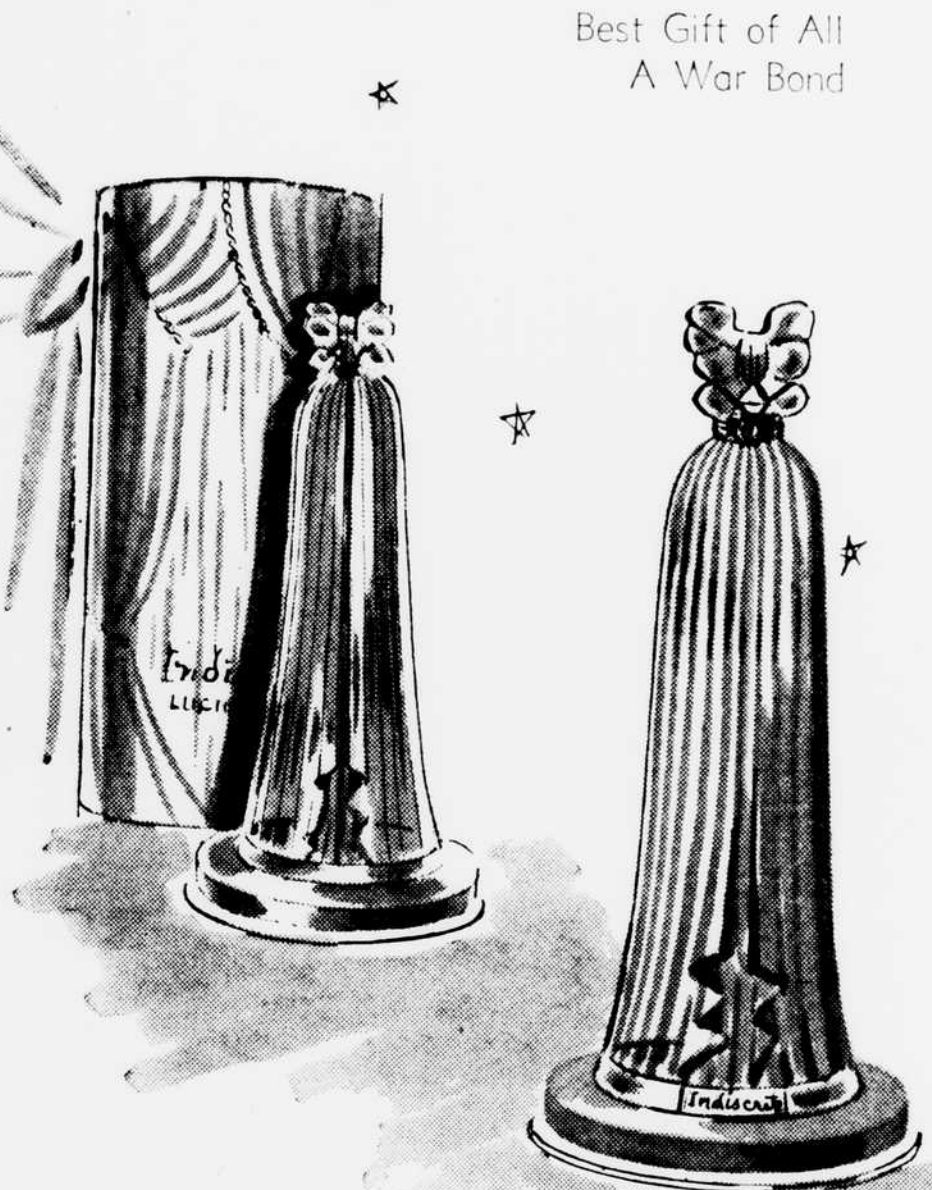

little girls love to find something nice to wear among their Christmas presents and this crisp cotton dress is sure to make a hit. It comes in pink and white, blue and white or orchid and white checks with spanking white trim.

Sizes 7, 8, 10, 12 7.95

Mail and phone orders filled
Postage prepaid everywhere in the U. S.

BEST & CO.

4433 Connecticut Avenue, N. W. 8
Emerson 7700

Lucien Le Long

CHRISTMAS ELEGANCE

Before she comes into the room you can vision a willowy creature with shining hair and dewy eyes; it's that evanescent fragrance that tells the story. Indiscrete perfume that whispers thrilling secrets, lingers tantalizingly in the holiday air.

Perfumes, First Floor.

Garfinkel's

F Street at Fourteenth

Spring Valley Shop, Massachusetts Avenue at 49th

House Warmers

Rizik Bros.

1110 Conn. Ave.

Just right for that morning snack
... Three individual robes to suit your taste.

Quilted
Satin
Breakfast
Coat

12.95

Quilted Rayon
Flowered Robe

15.95

Checked Taffeta
Robe

14.95