

18 Fairfax Selectees Report Tomorrow For Army Service

The Fairfax County Selective Service Board announces that 18 enlisted Reservists, inducted into the Army at the Richmond induction station December 6, will report to Fort George G. Meade tomorrow after completing their three-week furloughs. They are:

Inducted into the Navy on the same day were Billy Morrow, Eugene E. Smith, Lawrence H. Spilman, Mike Kephart, and Thelma E. V. Baldwin, Maurice E. Colburn, Clarke F. Dodson, Earl Hamilton, John H. Howard, Voyle E. James and William A. Manvell.

Frank J. Dailey and Leonard F. Myers, Jr., were accepted by the Marine Corps and have reported to the Marine base, Parris Island, S. C. after completing their two-week furloughs.

Zoning Board Meets.
The Fairfax County Board of Zoning Appeals meets at 11 a.m. Monday in the board rooms at Fairfax to consider four applications for exceptions to the county zoning ordinance.

Walter Ford is requesting permission to establish and operate a public cemetery for the burial of white persons on the north side of Blunt's lane, Mount Vernon district.

Jesse R. Harlowe has filed application for a permit to erect a garage with less setback than required by ordinance, on west side of lot B, Lincolnia subdivision, Falls Church district.

Andrew P. Melvin requests permission to operate kennels for boarding dogs on his premises, located on south side of Road No. 644, Accotink Creek, Mount Vernon district.

The Second Baptist Church of Merrifield has applied for a permit to establish and operate a cemetery for colored persons on a tract of three acres, located on the south side of the Lee Highway at Merrifield, Falls Church district.

Supervisors Take Oath.
Members of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors who will assume office January 1, took their oath of office last week. Members of the new board include:

G. Wallace Carper, Providence district; D. W. Blunck, Centerville district; John T. Blunck, Lee district; Maurice W. Fox, Dranesville district; Burns N. Gibson, Falls Church district; and Herbert O. Blunt, Mount Vernon district. All of the members were elected November 2.

The board will elect board officers January 5.

Miss Lucy Blake, county home demonstration agent, has arranged for meetings of one Home Demonstration Club and two 4-H Clubs in Fairfax County during the coming week.

The Kenmore Home Demonstration Club will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday to discuss the family food plan; the Chesterbrook 4-H Club meets at 10:30 a.m. Monday and the Vienna 4-H Club at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Three Appeals Boards Defer 10 in Fairfax

The 1-A classifications of 10 registrants with the Fairfax County Selective Service Board have been reversed by three different appeal boards, according to an announcement by board officials last night.

Board of Appeals No. 3, Charlottesville, Va., reversed eight of the local board's decisions and granted occupational deferments of six months to the following:

Nathan A. Emmons, Groveton, machinist; Richard B. Randolph, Route 3, Alexandria, draftsman; Ralph E. Beahm, Lorton, machinist, and James S. Parrish, Groveton, machinist, all single and without dependents, and Eugene P. Hook, Groveton, machinist, and Harry W. Hook, Groveton, machinist, who were listed by the local board as married, with two dependents other than wives. All six are employed at the Naval Torpedo Station.

Luther E. Brown, Franconia, locomotive fireman, Southern Railway, and Kirk L. Linton, Route 1, Alexandria, locomotive fireman, Potomac Yards, were granted 2-A classifications. Both men had been given previous deferments by the local board, and were listed as single.

Thomas E. Wheeler, Jr., Washington, District fireman, was assigned a 2-A classification by the District Appeals Board. Edward W. Howard, Seattle, Wash., supervisor, War Department, was deferred by the appeals board for the State of Washington.

Local board officials said pre-World War I officials had to be called in January to take the place of the group deferred.

Church Plans Memorial For Harold A. Axtell, Jr.

A memorial service will be held at the Takoma Park (Md.) Presbyterian Church at 4:30 p.m. January 2 for Lt. (j.g.) Harold A. Axtell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Axtell, 212 Tulip avenue, who was reported missing in the South Atlantic November 4, 1942.

Lt. Axtell, 24 years old, was in charge of a Navy gun crew on a merchant ship sunk near Cape Town, Africa. A graduate of the University of Maryland, he attended the first Navy Reserve class at the Naval Academy and left on active duty in the fall of 1941.

Dr. Podolnick Takes County Health Post

Dr. Nelson Podolnick of the United States Public Health Service has been assigned as director for the health departments of Fairfax, Prince William and Stafford Counties, and has assumed his new duties.

Dr. Podolnick for the past two years has been engaged in health work in Prince Georges County, Md. The Fairfax County Health Department has been without a director since last May, when Dr. James A. Dolce, United States Public Health Service, was transferred to another post.

Whitmore Honored.
M. H. Whitmore, supervisor from Leesburg district for 42 years, was honored on his retirement by a resolution passed by the board this week expressing gratitude on behalf of the board and the people of the county for the work he has done. Mr. Whitmore, who observed his 88th birthday in August, declined to be a candidate to succeed himself in the August primary. His place will be filled by Benjamin Bridges, farmer, who will take his seat at the meeting in January.

Phelan to Head Arlington's War Fund Drive in March

Mrs. Thomas W. Phillips, chairman of the Arlington County Red Cross Chapter, last night announced the reappointment of John P. Phelan to head the chapter's War Fund drive next March.

Mrs. Phillips said that although the national quota has been set at $200,000,000—largest in Red Cross history—the local campaign quota will not be announced until later.

Chapter officials also announced that members of the county motor corps aided in the delivery of Christmas toys to county children. One collection of toys was given the chapter after they had been gathered at a party at Arlington Hall. Other toys were donated by the Kiwanis Club.

Officials said the camp and Hospital council service delivered a Christmas package to each of the gun and searchlight posts in the county.

Teen-Age Club Plans Dance Tuesday Night

Plans for their Christmas dance Tuesday night at Grace Church parish hall, 207 Patrick street, have been completed by the Alexandria Teen-Age Club Committee.

The group, now numbering over 300, has held three dances during the month and plans to continue activities throughout next year.

Under sponsorship of the city recreation department, the club was organized from a nucleus of boys and girls representing schools and church groups. Membership in the club is open to any teen-ager in the city who registers with the committee, and attends one of the regular dances, held every Saturday night.

In place of the juke box which has served at previous dances, music will be provided by a teen-age orchestra led by Billy Sellers, a George Washington High School student.

Ration Board Panel Of Five Is Appointed In Fauquier County

Special Dispatch to The Star.

WARRENTON, Va., Dec. 25.—A five-man panel to pass on all applications for gasoline, tires, automobiles and bicycles has been set up by the Fauquier County Ration Board, George Sloane, chairman, reported.

The board is composed of W. H. Pool, chairman, and S. A. Appleton, Henry L. Baxley, D. H. Lees and Col. John Tysowski.

War Fund Raised.
The Fauquier War Fund went over the top this week, according to Miss Lucie Beverley Duer, chairman. The quota was $11,000.

Road To Be Studied.
The Fauquier County Board of Supervisors appointed T. K. Gray, Charles T. Grant, H. P. Kelly, P. H. Lee and H. N. Gray to view a 1.3-mile portion of Route 677, which the Government wishes closed temporarily.

The committee will report to the board at its next meeting if any in-closure would be caused by closing the road, located on Vint Hill Military Reservation.

The Fauquier County treasurer reported a balance in all funds of $108,732.01 as of November 30.

Warrenton Man Promoted.
Marshall Wallach, 26, son of Mrs. Robert R. Wallach, Warrenton, and the late Col. Wallach, has recently been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel in the Army. Col. Wallach is now on maneuvers in Tennessee. He was graduated from West Point in 1939. He attended Stuyvesant School here. He has two brothers, Robert R., Jr., and Henry Wallach, serving in the armed forces.

December Draft Quota.
Five men have been ordered by the Fauquier Selective Service Board to report for induction December 27. They are John D. Haritz, Crest Hill; Lloyd C. Hayes, Warrenton; John T. Gray, Warrenton; Carroll L. Embrey, The Plains, and James H. Vermillion, Warrenton, a transfer from the Carson City (Nev.) board.

Christmas Party.
Approximately 45 underprivileged children of the Marshall community were entertained at a Christmas party Wednesday in the high school under the sponsorship of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Edith McCarty. The entire student body attended.

Promotion Announced.
James Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Puller A. Hughes, Warrenton, has been promoted to captain. Capt. Hughes is stationed at Fort Belvoir. He was graduated from V. M. I. in 1939, and held a Government position at Fort Belvoir before entering the Army. With his wife and young son he makes his home in Alexandria. A brother, Puller A. Hughes, Jr., is also in the Army.

Seal Sale Lags.
The sale of tuberculosis Christmas seals is below the county quota, the local Tuberculosis Association has announced in an appeal for contributions.

Col. Gilbert Missing In Asiatic Area

Lt. Col. Douglas G. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis I. Gilbert, 1312 North Quincy street, Arlington, is missing in action in the Asiatic area, the War Department announced yesterday. Col. Gilbert is among 259 soldiers reported missing in action in the Asiatic, European, Mediterranean, Pacific and Southwest Pacific areas.

Col. Gilbert, whose wife, Mrs. Audrey M. Gilbert, and three small children, live in Fairfax, is a native of Arlington. He attended Western High School here, and was graduated from the Military Academy at West Point in 1933.

An infantry officer, Col. Gilbert served at Fort Washington, Md., after being commissioned, and later served at Fort Benning, Ga.; Fort Leavenworth, Kans., and at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. He returned to this country from an assignment in Hawaii just a few days before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

His parents said they received a letter from him about two weeks before receiving the War Department message that he was reported missing. He said in his letter that he liked his work and was learning to speak Chinese through his associations with the Chinese Army.

Mrs. Gilbert said her son reported that the climate in the East was good, and that he was "not very near" the fighting front. She said the family has hopes that he will be located soon.

Alexandria War Fund Drive To Be Headed by Hoffman
Elliott Hoffman, 505 Tyler place, Alexandria, has been named chairman of the Alexandria Red Cross War Fund drive scheduled for March, it was announced yesterday by Warren Grubbs, chapter chairman.

Mr. Hoffman is clerk of the Corporation Court. He is past commander of the Alexandria American Legion, past exalted ruler of the Fraternal Order of Elks, member of the Kiwanis Club, past master of the Andrew Jackson Masonic Lodge, and chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Ann Lee Memorial Home.

Members of Mr. Hoffman's committee, also named yesterday, are Francis H. Fannon, disaster chairman of the local Red Cross and chairman of the city's 1943 Community War Fund campaign; David C. Book, Community Chest budget chairman; Mrs. Edward Hulbert, member of the Red Cross Board of Directors; Mrs. Stanleigh Swann, firstaid chairman of the chapter, and Rabbi Hugo Schiff, chaplain of the chapter.

Plans for the organization of the drive will be considered shortly after the holidays, Mr. Hoffman said.

Montgomery B'nai B'rith Plans Interfaith Meeting

Plans for a Montgomery County observance of National Brotherhood Week in February will be made at an interfaith meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Silver Spring Masonic Lodge being sponsored by the Montgomery County B'nai B'rith.

Business and civic leaders in the Silver Spring area have been invited to attend the meeting.

Dr. Andrew W. Gottschall, director of the Southern region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, will speak on "Victory Through Unity."
