Small and Informal Parties Given in Diplomatic Circles

Diplomats continue to hold the center of the social stage with numerous small and informal parties, most of them arranged as farewells for those departing to other posts and welcomes to those just arrived for new duties in this Capital. Such a party was that of the Australian Minister, Sir Owen Dixon, who entertained 14 men last evening as a farewell to Lt. Gen. Sturdee, head of the Australian Military Mission in Washington, and a welcome to Lt. Gen. Sir John Lavarock, who will take over his post here. The Minister and Lady Dixon will give an early evening party Saturday honoring these two Australian officers, when their guests will be both gentlemen and ladies.

The Egyptian Minister and Mme. Hassan also entertained last evening, when they gave a dinner party in the Legation, although the festivity was not planned in honor of any one guest. Those dining at the Legation last evening were the Afghan Minister, Mr. Abdul Hosayn Aziz; Senator and Mrs. Claude Pepper, Lt. Gen. G. N. Macready of the British Army and Mrs. Macready, the Counselor of the Swedish Legation and Mrs. W. W. Macready, the Commercial Secretary of the British Embassy, Mr. R. Keith Jopson, and the First Secretary of the Iraq Legation and Mme. Khandan.

Visitors from other countries who have dined or lunched at the embassies and legations within the week include Senator Valentine Boucas, who is chairman of the Brazilian Commission of the Inter-American Development. He spent some time in New York and came to Washington for conference with officials of the State Department and of the Rubber Administration of the United States Government. Senator Boucas left yesterday en route to his homeland.

Lecture on Peru Tuesday Evening

The director general of the Pan-American Union, Dr. Leo S. Rowe, and the assistant director, Dr. Pedro de Alba, have issued invitations for the first lecture in a series of three which will be given on Peru.

Dr. Javier Pulgar y Vida of the ministry of public works of Peru will be the speaker at the first lecture, which will be given Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock in the Hall of Events of the Pan-American Union. Dr. Pulgar has been in this country for some weeks. In his lecture Tuesday evening he will tell of the first attempt at colonization in the interior of Peru.

Society and ClubsMiss Harbour And Lt. Terry Wed Yesterday

The marriage of Miss Virginia Ross Harbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ewell Harbour of Marion, S. C., to Lt. Willard Biddle Gilman Terry, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Terry of Philadelphia, took place yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, the Rev. William Herbert Mayers of Olney, officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. James W. Harbour of Washington, wore a green wool suit with brown accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

Miss Christine Harbour of Washington was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, wearing a dusty rose costume with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids. Maj. Richard Ackroyd, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man, and the ushers were Mr. Frederick Hellman of New York and Mr. David Campbell Drayton of Arlington.

A luncheon for the wedding party and immediate families was given at the home of the bride's sister. Yesterday's bride is well known in Washington, having lived here for several years prior to her appointment to the staff of Walter Reed General Hospital, where she helped to organize the rehabilitation program for deafened soldiers. She has been doing this same work recently at Deshon General Hospital in Butler, Pa.

Lt. Terry attended Petty Preparatory School in New Jersey and Pennsylvania State University. He was graduated in medicine from Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia, where he also served his internship prior to entering the Medical Corps of the Army. He now is on the staff of Deshon General Hospital.

Following their wedding trip, Lt. and Mrs. Terry will reside at 313 West Pearl street in Butler.

21 DAR Chapters Get Certificates For Bond Buying

Certificates for 100 per cent participation in bond purchases were awarded to 21 District Daughters of the American Revolution chapters yesterday by Mrs. Howard G. Nichols, chairman of the women's division of the War Finance Committee at a meeting of the District DAR National Defense Committee.

Gold seals were awarded by the District DAR to chapters which bought bonds with chapter funds. Mrs. George Hartman, chairman of the District society's Bond Committee, made the awards. Bonds are owned by 48 chapters, it was announced.

The sum of $35 has been sent to a Merchant Marine floating library, and $125 to the treasurer general of the national DAR for the Blood Plasma Fund.

Paige M. Etchison of the Prisoner of War Aid Fund of the World Committee of the YMCA accepted $50 from the DAR to aid prisoners of war in camps on five continents.

John A. Kelly, chairman of the District War Finance Committee, described the recent War bond drive as "a success in every particular." He urged future support of bond drives as "this generation's purchase price for liberty."

A warning against the "sharing wealth" plans of "brains more clever than honest" was also sounded by the speaker.

The chairman of the Service Record, Miss Ruth Bennett, reported that 1,102 lineal descendants of District daughters were in the armed forces and that 551 of these are credited to the Army-Navy Chapter.

Among them 12 are prisoners of war, 17 WACS, 13 WAVES, one SPAR and six nurses.

Invocation was given by Miss Viola Reese and the American Creed was led by Mrs. Carlos Campbell, State chairman of the Correct Use of the Flag Committee.

Mrs. Arthur C. Houghton presided at the meeting, the last to be held during the present administration.

Dance Slated Tonight
