

Women Voters League Prepares Data for Absentee Voters' Use

The Voteless District of Columbia League of Women Voters is preparing absentee ballot information for persons in the service and others stationed here who maintain voting privileges in their home States. Mrs. Eugene Duffield, president of the league, announced today.

Ballot information for Kansas, Missouri, Virginia, Wisconsin, Kentucky and Vermont, States holding primaries in August, is given below. In announcing formation of the committee, which will have charge of the program, Mrs. Duffield said that "ideally, every citizen of this country should work in the party of his choice. Failing that, he can best guide his party's activities through the nomination of good candidates at the primaries."

Requirements Listed.
The league listed the following absentee voting requirements and primary dates for the August primary States:

Kansas—Must have been resident of State six months, of ward for 30 days; registration for civilians, 10 days before primary; registration for armed forces not required; ballot application for civilians may be obtained from county clerks before July 21; ballot application for armed forces from commanding officer; ballots returned by July 31; date of primary is August 1.

Missouri—Must have been resident of State one year, county and precinct, 60 days; registration in person for civilians but waived for armed forces; post card form obtainable from commanding officer; ballot returned August 2; primary, August 1.

Virginia—State residence one year, county, six months, and precinct, 30 days; poll tax, $1.50 annually; permanent registration and new registrants must appear in person up to 15 days before primary (civilians); poll tax and registration waived for servicemen; ballot application, send 23 cents to secretary of State, stating party, location and length of State residence (civilians); for servicemen, ballot application from commanding officer; primary August 1.

One-Year Residence.
Kentucky—State residence one year, county, six months, and precinct, 60 days; civilian and servicemen procedure alike, with registration application to secretary of State at Frankfort; ballot returned August 5; primary August 5.

Vermont—State residence one year and precinct 3 months; for civilians, send handwritten request for ballot to town clerk; for servicemen, post card form from commanding officer; ballots returned four days before primary, August 8.

Wisconsin—Residence one year and precinct 10 days; for civilians, registration and ballot application from town or county clerk; for servicemen, registration waived and ballot from commanding officer; ballots returned on day of primary, August 15.

N. Y. Realty Firms Ask Hearing on Rent Ceilings

Two New York real estate firms today were the first organizations in the country to take advantage of new provisions in the Emergency Price Control and Stabilization Acts under which they can request the price administrator to immediately hear their protests against maximum rent ceilings imposed by the OPA.

The acts were amended on June 30 to extend them for another year, with the new provision added. Under the proviso a hearing can be
