Interesting Bridal Processions Forecast by Announcements

Announcements of engagements come to the forefront in today's news of interest in social circles here as well as in communities in other parts of the country.

Although Capt. and Mrs. George A. Goodyear make their home in Charlottesville, their announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Goodyear's daughter, Miss Rebecca Lou Smith, to Ensign John Carlton Wheelless, U. S. N. R., is of interest here for two reasons. The bride-elect is a granddaughter of the late Col. Francis Wiley Glover and Mrs. Glover, who lived here during his assignment to Washington, and Ensign Wheelless is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carl Wheelless of this city. No date has been selected for the wedding.

Miss Smith was graduated from St. Margaret's School in Tappan, N. Y. She now is a member of the Naval Reserve and is based at Parris Island.

Ensign Wheelless is a graduate of Meson Academy in Lexington, Ga., and attended George Washington University. He is based at present at the Naval Air Station in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Jean Decker to Mr. Robert Tirrell Ferrenz is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lollis G. Decker, the wedding to take place this autumn.

Miss Decker attended the University of Maryland and Mr. Ferrenz, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tirrell J. Ferrenz, attended the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Another announcement of interest is that of Dr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Scullen of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mary Scullen, to Pvt. William Alfred Draper, son of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Draper.

No wedding date has been selected.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Jackson of Silver Spring announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Jackson, to Corp. Errett Straley, Jr., who recently returned from two years of duty in Alaska and the Aleutian Islands and whose parents make their home in Winston-Salem.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Monice Ellis, daughter of Mrs. Oscar Lee Ellis of Fort Worth and the late Mr. Ellis, to Dr. Albert S. Winer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Winer of Baltimore.

Miss Ellis, who lives in this city, is a graduate of Texas State College for Women, and Dr. Winer is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and of the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

The marriage of Miss Emma Mozell Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Kirby Moore of Fairfax, Va., to Mr. R. Windsor Yates, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Yates of Arlington, took place September 8 in the United Baptist Church in Arlington. The Rev. Elmer Lucas officiated.

Miss Dawn-Louise Irving, daughter of Mrs. George Washington Irving and the late Mr. Irving, was married to Mr. Henry Louis Dollard, Jr., U. S. N. R., son of Capt. Dollard, U. S. N. R., and Mrs. Dollard of Lake Forest, September 11. The ceremony was performed in Bethlehem Chapel of the Washington Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul. Canon Raymond L. Wolven officiating.

Lt. David Linwood Cahoon, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Linwood Cahoon of Somerville, Mass., and Mrs. Cahoon went to Palm Beach for their wedding trip. They were married September 5 in St. Mary's Church in Rockville, Father Hann officiating. The bride formerly was Miss Margaret Delight Case, daughter of Mr. Charles Samuel Case of Potomac and the late Mrs. Case.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt Riddleberger of Strasburg, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Nancy Riddleberger Hutchinson, to Dr. Henry Bunch, Jr., of Columbia, S. C., yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the Luther Place Memorial Church. The Rev. Dr. L. Ralph Tabor officiated in the presence of relatives and friends.

Miss Dorothy Riddleberger was her sister's attendant, and Dr. George Duncan of Norfolk served as best man.

Since completing the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, Mrs. Bunch has remained with that hospital in a nursing capacity. She previously attended Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg. Dr. Bunch is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Bunch of Columbia. He attended the University of South Carolina and Johns Hopkins Medical School. He now is assistant resident in surgery at Johns Hopkins.
