Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Financier's Widow, Dies of Long Illness

NORTHPORT, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Mrs. Rosemond Lancaster Vanderbilt, 50, widow of William K. Vanderbilt, died at her home yesterday after a long illness.

A native of Worcester, Mass., she married Mr. Vanderbilt in 1927. She previously was married to Barclay H. Warburton, Jr., of Philadelphia. This marriage ended in divorce. Mr. Vanderbilt died January 8, 1944.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lancaster, and her marriage to Mr. Warburton, who was a grandson of John Wanamaker, took place at Elkton, Md., in December, 1919.

Mr. Vanderbilt was divorced from his first wife, Mrs. Virginia Fair Vanderbilt, in Paris, on June 2, 1927, and he and the former Mrs. Warburton were married in that city on September 5 of the same year.

Attending the ceremony, which took place in the Mayor's office of the 16th arrondissement, were only a few relatives, friends and newspaper correspondents.

Mrs. Vanderbilt's second husband was the second in his family to bear the name William K., and he was a great-grandson of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt. At one time he was president of the New York Central Railroad. He was noted as a sportsman.

Surviving Mrs. Vanderbilt are her mother, two brothers, John Lancaster of New Canaan, Conn., and Robert Lancaster of New York, and two children by her first marriage, Mrs. William C. T. Gaynor of Southampton, N. Y., and Barclay H. Warburton III of Beverly Farms, Mass.

A funeral service for Mrs. Vanderbilt is to be held Thursday, August 30, at 11 a.m. at St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church on Fifth avenue.

He had been in the House since 1939, when he was elected to the 76th Congress. He was re-elected to the 77th and 78th Congresses.

I. H. Hirsch, 71, Importer, War-time Adviser, Dead

The body of I. Henry Hirsch, 71, commodity importer and member of the Industry Advisory Committee of the Army and Navy Munitions Board, is being sent to New York aboard the S. S. Del Sud, it was learned today.

He died last week in Rio de Janeiro where he had been spending the summer.

Mrs. Hirsch's home was in New York City, but he lived in Washington during the war at the H. A. Adams House. He was a consultant on strategic materials for the War Department, the War Production Administration and the Reconstruction Finance Corp.

Formerly he served on the Board of the Commodity Exchange, Inc., and later was president of the New York Cocoa Exchange, Inc., and Adolph Hirsch & Co., Importers and commodity merchants.

He began his career in Bahia, Brazil, in 1903 and was one of the founders of a leading export firm there. Mr. Hirsch was regarded as an expert on international commodity affairs.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen C. Hirsch; a daughter, Miss June Hirsch, and two sisters, all of New York.
