

Hoyas Lost $100,000 By Defeat in Opener, Schwagel Moans

By Merrell Whitlessey
Georgetown Graduate Manager of Athletics Rome Schwagel termed the Hoyas' 6-0 loss to Wake Forest a $100,000 defeat, speaking strictly from the box office standpoint, but it would have been worth a million for Coach Jack Hagerty's crew to win it, judging by the boys' disappointment over the loss.

Schwagel estimated a Hoya triumph would have meant 50,000 additional persons, at an average of $2 each, would turn out for Georgetown's four home games, starting with Fordham here Friday night at Griffith Stadium. It breaks down to $16,667 a point," Schwagel moaned. "People will forget we gave them a great game and just remember that we lost."

The Georgetown player who was inconsolable was Johnny Preston, 19-year-old halfback, who allowed Carl Haggard to get away with the touchdown pass through absolutely no fault of Preston's. Part of the field in Groves Stadium at Wake Forest had been reserved and assigned to cover Haggard here and he slipped and fell on a piece of loose turf. Babe Baronowski, who missed Haggard with a flying tackle, was not responsible for the score.

The Saturday night game drew a number of coaches, scouts and newspapermen who were in the area for the Georgia-North Carolina and Duke-N. C. State Saturday afternoon. Most felt Georgetown merited a tie at the worst and were surprised at the Hoyas' strength and particularly their defensive play. They also predicted big things for Wake Forest by midseason. The Deacons had one of the biggest teams in college football.

The Hoyas game was played in what is reported to be an average of one hour and 45 minutes from whistle to whistle. Georgetown did not draw a penalty and the Deacons lost only 25 yards.

Football scouting is becoming a chummy business. Ed Franco, the assistant coach at Fordham, and Vince Lombardi, freshman mentor, went as far as to travel on the Hoyas' special cars, spend the day with the Georgetown coaches and they sat with the team on the plane. Franco told Haggerty Fordham should cancel its schedule as the Rams had nothing. Haggerty said he wished they would as they'd probably murder Georgetown. Honors even.

North Carolina is one of the top States in football enthusiasm. Within a 25-mile radius of Raleigh Saturday more than 100,000 persons turned out for three major games. With Duke, State, Carolina and Wake Forest all playing away this week end, special trains are being chartered for all games, including the Tar Heels at Texas.

Charley Justice, the Carolina back who was conceded All-America honors before the season started, said he was disappointed in the last-minute setback in the Georgia game. The Tar Heel-Georgia game was one of the three big games in the nation and drew newspapermen from New York to Atlanta and was carried over five networks, two of them major.

But Justice was held to one gain of more than 5 yards although he played almost 60 minutes. Georgia had spent great pains in building a defense for him. The Bulldogs showed their respects for Choo-Choo, however, by being hit with the ball late on the ground, not tied up, to make sure some player would have to pick it up before it reached safety-man Justice.

Southeast A. C. Team Paces Metro League

The Southeast A. C. football team appears to be the team to beat in the Eastern division of the 160-pound class Metropolitan Football League. The Southeasterns have thrown up a solid forward wall which so far hasn't let a score seep through. Yesterday the Southeasterns took over the league lead with a 6-0 verdict over the Merrick boys' Club at Fairlawn, while the Shamrocks defeated the Maryland Mohawks, 13-7, after trailing by seven points at the half.

Riverdale Rollers took over the Western 160-pound loop lead by defeating the Brookland-Woodridge Merchants, 12-0. Bob Metz and Buckley Keedy scored the touchdowns. In the unlimited Eastern division, Car Credit and Falls Church Garage are tied for the lead, after each won yesterday. Car Credit defeated Potomac Post, No. 40, 12-0, and Falls Church Garage trounced Snug Harbor Tavern, 27-6.

In an unlimited Western division clash, Eig's Liquors swamped the Prince Georges Merchants, 33-0.

Thackara Edges Welsh In Friendly Net Rivalry

Once again Jim Thackara has the edge over Barney Welsh, the old master of local tennis, in their friendly rivalry that's been going on ever since Thackara joined the local group this spring. This time Thackara goes in front because of yesterday's win in the Northern Virginia tournament final.

That makes up for Barney's victory over Jim in the Middle Atlantic tourney, which was supposed to balance things after Jim had beaten him in the District of Columbia tourney.

Scores yesterday in the windup of men's singles at Buckingham were 6-2, 6-2, 6-7.

Morton's Puppy Sweeps Show Held by Potomac Boxer Club

Before several hundred spectators, the Fall match of Potomac Boxer Club at Fairfax, Va., yesterday came to a dramatic conclusion after three hours of spirited competition with the much-applauded win by Contemplation of Dellwood, owned by Claiborne R. Morton of Arlington, Va.

YOUNG GAINS FOR YANKS—Buddy Young (77), speedy halfback of the New York Yankees, just about to be stopped by little Doc Mobley, Baltimore back, after a 5-yard gain in the third quarter of yesterday's All-America Conference contest before more than 50,000 spectators in Municipal Stadium, Baltimore. The Yanks won, 21-7.

Stribling Stakes Good Record in Bout With Cooper Tonight

The indoor fight season opens tonight at Turner's Arena, with Ken Stribling, Irish colored middleweight, meeting local Billy Cooper in a 10-round main event. This will be Stribling's first effort under his new manager, Chris Dundee, handler of quite a string of good fighters, including Washington's George Abrams.

Stribling has developed well in the last year and now stands among the District's best fighters. He's won six in a row, the last three by knockouts over Frank Sweeney, Joe Gannon and Kayo Williams. If he continues like that over the winter circuit, he'll be ready to attract big fights by next summer.

Cooper, too, has a fair record, with J. C. Wilkins, Jerry Fiorello and Sonny Horne on his list of victims. It will be mostly local boys in the supporting bouts. Five-heaters are Puggy King against Red Gaddis in a rematch, Billy Terry against Sonny Boy Bunn and Kid Wilke against Herb Taylor. Fours are Tommy Larner against Angelo Marini and Buddy Thomas against Joe Stevens. First fight is at 8:45 p.m.

Clippers Sign Beisler

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 29 (AP)—Frankie Beisler, New Haven hockey player who formerly coached Buffalo in the American Hockey League, has been signed as general manager and coach of the Baltimore Clippers of the Eastern Amateur League.

Redskins

tiful catch. Saenz and Bob Nussbaumer put most of the foot in the team's running attack, although Jenkins did heavy duty on line plunges until put out of the game for unnecessary roughness.

The Redskins were almost only once and very briefly, early in the second period when Baugh completed the 1,000th pass of his big league career, tossing to Taylor, who negotiated a total of 62 yards for a touchdown. Dick Poillon booted the extra point to make it 14-10, and it seemed as though the Redskins would lead itself. But Van Buren took the subsequent kickoff 95 yards through the Tribe's bewildered defense and the Eagles never were headed.

The green-shirted host eleven made it 38-21 in the third period, apparently ending out the last spark of Redskin resistance, and even the most faithful Baugh followers were not prepared for the rally that followed.

Nussbaumer took Baugh's first touchdown pass with Gil Steinkamp snugging up to him in the end zone early in the second period. The second and that 62-yard romp provided the third Skin score. Baugh pitched a 4-yarder to Poillon, who was so wide open he could have picked dandelions waiting for the ball in the third period. The next went to Taylor for a total of 37 yards midway in the final period and the same combination clicked for 18 and another score near the end of the period.

Tribe Defense Jittery.
Tommy Thompson pitched his first pay-off to Pete Pihos early in the opening quarter, after Van Buren's off-tackle thrusts had made the Tribe defense as jittery as a bowl of nervous jello. Van Buren's kickoff return brought the next six-point and Al Sherman fove over from the 1 for the next, culminating a 59-yard march.

Van Buren cracked over from 1 foot, ending a 37-yard drive early in the third period and Thompson followed up with a 21-yard toss to Pihos for the fifth touchdown. The last Philadelphia score marked Neil Armstrong's debut in pro football. Virtually the league's unanimous No. 1 draft choice, Armstrong got behind De Fruiter and took a float-er for 29 yards and the score.

Prizes were donated by members of the club of which Mrs. Joett Shouse of Washington and Vienna, Va., is president, and Mrs. Claiborne Morton, secretary.

Schmeling, 43, KO's Foe in Comeback

By the Associated Press
FRANKFURT, Germany, Sept. 29.—Max Schmeling, onetime heavyweight boxing champion of the world, looked forward today to the next step in a comeback campaign he started victoriously yesterday on his 43rd birthday anniversary.

A crowd of 30,000, including hundreds of Americans, saw Schmeling knock out Werner Vollmer at 2:30 of the seventh round in a scheduled 10-round bout at Civic Stadium.

Schmeling, who weighed 194 pounds to Vollmer's 190, floored his 26-year-old opponent seven times in the one-sided contest before finally putting him away. "Sometime I will be over there again in the States," Schmeling told newsmen at the end of his first fight since 1939.

Bagby Among Four Released by Bucs

By the Associated Press
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29.—Four Pittsburgh Pirates' worse showing in 30 years were cut adrift today as the club began rebuilding for the 1948 baseball year.

Shortly after the season ended yesterday with the Bucs tied for last place in the National League, the club released pitchers Jim Bagby and Lee Howard to Indianapolis of the American Association and infielder Whitey Wietelmann and Pitchers Alvin Tate to Sacramento of the Coast League.

Bagby, 31, a son of Jim Bagby, onetime American League pitching great, was purchased early this year from the Boston Red Sox. He appeared in 37 games for the Bucs, started six and finished two. His record showed five wins and four losses. Howard, a 24-year-old south-paw rookie, appeared twice in relief roles. Wietelmann came to the Pirates in the Billy Herman deal last October and as a utility infielder appeared in 46 games, batting .244.

Judge With Oldsters Ancient Yanks Beat

Special Dispatch to The Star
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Joe Judge, former Washington first baseman, was among a bevy of American League all-time All-Stars who dropped a 3-0 verdict to a team of all-time New York Yankees as part of a Babe Ruth Foundation Fund program. Earl Combs' home run drive over the head of The Speaker in centerfield scored the Yankees' runs.

Chief Bender and Red Faber pitched one inning each for the all-league nine, while Waite Hoyt and Lefty Gomez pitched for the Yanks. Judge and Jimmy Fox played first for the league team, which also included Charley Gehring, Al Simmons, Jack Barry, Home Run Baker, Speaker, Duffy Lewis, Harry Hooper, Mickey Cochrane and Ray Schalk.

One of the game's features was a Cobbly home run and a hunt and being thrown out at first. The Yankees' lineup included Wally Pipp, Everett Scott, Wally Schang, Bob Meusel and George Selkirk. Umpiring were Tom Connolly and Billy Evans.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.
Los Angeles, 6-0; Sacramento, 1-1; San Francisco, 3-3; Salt Lake, 8-0; Portland, 4-5; Hollywood, 2-4; Oakland, 3-0; Seattle, 2-2.

The speed shown by Sophomore Lu Gambino, Maryland halfback who scored all three touchdowns in the Old Liners' 19-13 victory over South Carolina Saturday, still has the Gamecocks amazed. One of the players even dropped around to the Maryland Hotel after the game to inquire how a 202-pounder can run so fast.

Colts Display Year's Best Offense, but Can't Beat Yanks

Special Dispatch to The Star
BALTIMORE, Sept. 29.—The Colts came up with their best offense of the season, but it was too much for Spee Sanders and Buddy Young as the New York Yankees, before a stadium crowd of 51,183 yesterday.

Sanders and Young handled the ball on 40 of the Yankees' 49 plays and the former scored two touchdowns and passed to the third. The Yanks went 65 yards for one score, but the other two were made possible by Colt fumbles.

Bud Schwenk completed 20 of 34 passes for the Colts for 189 yards, but when the Colts needed a payoff pitch they couldn't connect.

All the scoring was in the first half, with the Colts' lone touchdown counted by Bud Mertes from 5 yards. Mertes fumbled as he crossed the goal line but a touchdown is good as the ball carrier has possession on, over or above the goal line.

The Baltimore line did not give Schwenk much protection and it was to his credit that he completed 19 passes. A number of times the big Yank lineman, coached by ex-Redskin mentor Ray Flaherty, were on Schwenk before he could raise his arm.

Young was a threat throughout but the Negro speedster could not get the opening to utilize his great speed. The Colts watched him too closely at times, which gave Sanders an opportunity to break away.

The Colts meet the San Francisco 49ers here next Sunday in their fifth conference game.

Roosevelt and Tech In Interhigh Battle

Roosevelt and Tech High School football teams were slated to open their seasons today in an interhigh game at Central Stadium beginning at 3:30, with the Raiders seeking a 1-0 start and Tech looking to get the season started.

Whatever today's outcome may be, the championship race looks to be a thriller all the way down the line. Coolidge and Wilson in losing to Eastern and Western over the week end, spurred with late game rallies, which failed short of scoring points. Western proved the pregame experts right in winning over Anacostia, 12-0.

Each was counting on eight return stars for today's clash, while Roosevelt boasted six, including four backfield men in Jerry Rothkin, Bernie Mead, Art Bacas and Bob Wilhelm.

Two Golfers Get Aces At Kenwood, Columbia

A three iron was the lucky club for Stalker yesterday as D. A. Stalker, a manager of the Willard Hotel, made a hole-in-one on Kenwood's 8th hole with a three and W. W. Kingswell dropped a perfect shot on Columbia's 13th with a three.

Stalker's shot was witnessed by L. W. Perce, T. McL. Davis and T. O. Lashmutt. The Kingswell foursome included J. A. Martt, M. B. Swanson and E. J. Yonkers.

Notre Dame Launches Season on Saturday Against Pittsburgh

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Notre Dame, awarded the 1947 college football crown a month ago in all states except Michigan and North Carolina, plays its first game Saturday to highlight a gridiron card that will compete with the World Series for interest.

The Irish, manned by veteran stars at virtually every post, open against Pittsburgh, a team that held Illinois scoreless for three quarters Saturday before losing 14 to 0. The stubbornness of the Panthers in their game with the defending Big Nine titleholders was one of the features of last Saturday's schedule.

Michigan and North Carolina will try to strengthen their claims to the mythical national title in a pair of intercollegiate games with the Wolverines—who bumped Michigan State, 55 to 0, in their first outing, tangling with Stanford, 19 to 16 upset victim of Dixie Howell's Idaho Vandals.

North Carolina, which sneaked by Georgia 14 to 13 in a battle that should raise temperatures in both Austin and Chapel Hill. The Longhorns, performing out of the T this year, invaded Oregon last week end and trounced the coast eleven, 38 to 13.

The lowest round of the club championship season, a 4-under-par 66 by Claude Rippey at Washington Golf and Country Club, helped him to medal honors in the 36-hole qualifying with a 139 total. Rippey had a 73 his first round. Match play begins this week.

Championship flight with 36-hole qualifying scores: Chevy Chase, 514; Mel Shorey and Eddie Auld, Indian Springs, scored 1 1/2 points for Charles Bassler and John Stewart; Volney Burrett and George Thornton, Indian Springs, scored 1 1/2 points for Ray Bogart and Turner Smith; William McCarran scored 3 points to 1 for Donald Cooke; Jim Hunt, Indian Springs, scored 3 points to 1 for W. W. Mason, Jr., and Robert Prine, Jr.; W. Curtis scored 2 1/2 points to 1 for Harry Murray; Harrison, Indian Springs, scored 2 points to 1 for Paul Gardner, 185 vs. 187; C. C. Taylor scored 2 points to 0 for Landra Platt and Don Devaux.

The Billy Shea-Walter Gallagher team won the Cummings Cup at Columbia Country Club when both parred the 18th hole and Earle Stinker and Page Cornwell missed to give the former a 1-up triumph. It was the first time the two-man team championship was played as a flight of 16.

Shea and Gallagher reached the final with a 19-hole triumph over Paul Friszel and Dr. T. D. Webb, while Stinker-Cornwell defeated Worth Lent and Dr. E. T. Rice, 4 and 3.

John F. McCarron retained his senior championship at Congressional Country Club with a round of 81. Low net honors went to Dr. E. E. Quayle with 84-13-71.

In the feature match of the Anacostia Club championship, W. W. Seay won the last two holes from Joe Kotvan to square the match and parred the 19th to win, 1 up. Seay was 4 down at one time.

Championship flight:
Joe Fleming defeated Redd Tandy, 3 and 2; Fred Lukat won by default; Benny Seaman defeated Dr. Todd, 4 and 3; John P. Fildes defeated Harry Brant, 1 up; 16 holes; Seay defeated Joe Kotvan, 1 up; 18 holes; Seay won by default; Cole defeated Matt Bettew, 4 and 3; Bob Macombe defeated E. McClister, 1 up.

E. B. Johnson and Dick Chubb will meet over the 36-hole route for the Argyle Club championship next Sunday. Johnson reached the final with a 2-and-1 triumph over Lino

Seals and Angels Play Off Flag Tie

By the Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29.—The San Francisco Seals and Los Angeles Angels tangled tonight in a single-game playoff for the Pacific Coast League pennant after winding up in tie for first place through a hectic 186-game season.

It was the first such deadlock in 45 coast campaigns starting back in 1903. Oddly enough, the previous closest finish saw Los Angeles edge San Francisco by one-half game in 1905.

Both the Angels and Seals blew second games of doubleheaders yesterday to finish all-square at 105 wins, 81 defeats and 364 percentage.

Indian Spring, Maryland Foes In Final of State Team Golf

The Country Club of Maryland, defending champions, and Indian Spring will meet for the Maryland State Golf Association team championship next week end over a neutral course, probably in Washington.

Indian Spring scored a surprisingly easy 12 1/2-5 1/2 victory over Chevy Chase on the latter's course, while the C. C. of Maryland team dropped Hillendale, 14 1/2-3 1/2.

Chicago Golf Victory Puts Hogan on Top In 1947 Earnings

By the Associated Press
CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—Little Ben Hogan doesn't go to the winner's circle so often any more, but he still is professional golf's best cash-collector.

Hogan's par-pulverizing triumph in the second International tourney at Tam O'Shanter course yesterday was only his fourth win of the year, yet it hoisted his earnings to $29,310. Last year Ben led the field with 13 tourney victories good for $42,596.

Ben scooted through Promoter George S. May's 36-hole invitational with a nine-under-par 135 to grab the $5,000 first prize in the winner-take-all test among eight titleholders.

In addition, Hogan collected $2,000 appearance money which may be paid to each entry, which boosted him from third to first in golf's money-winning column.

Second to Hogan was South African Bobby Locke with 138. Ben and Bobby posted closing 70's yesterday, but the course record-equalling 65 he posted Saturday qualified Hogan's three-stroke margin.

Jimmy Demaret, erstwhile money-winning leader, finished in a third-place tie with Lloyd Mangrum at 139, while defending Champion Sammy Snead had 145; U. S. Open Champion Lew Worsham, 146; National PGA Champion Jim Ferrier, 147; and Western Open Tiltist Johnny Palmer, 148.

The $2,000 each collected for showing up at May's exclusive party left Demaret second to Hogan in earnings, with $25,636, and Locke third with $24,927.

Dean Pitches Well, But Slides Poorly

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29.—A pulled leg muscle, not arm trouble, forced Dixie Dean out of action yesterday as the ancient St. Louis Cardinals hurler tried a one-day comeback for the St. Louis Browns against the Chicago White Sox.

The Sox won a 5-2 decision, with all runs for both teams coming in the 9th inning. Dean allowed three hits in the first four frames and exploded a slide single to left. He pulled the muscle on an unsuccessful slide into second, and, after a bit of clowning, retired from the game.

Cardinals Acquire Pair

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29 (AP)—Purchase of Max Surkont, 25, right-handed pitcher, and outfielder Harold Rice, 23, from the Rochester club in the International League has been announced by the St. Louis Cardinals.
