CARR GRAHAMS

ARE

Different

You can SEE
the difference!

You can TASTE
the difference!

Any way you test them, CARR grahams are better. No other graham cracker gives you such flavor—such thinness—such smooth, even texture. They're sweeter too!

BAKED BY CARR — BETTER BY FAR.

CARR-CONSOLIDATED BISCUIT COMPANY

der-working "quick-mix" ingredient, makes perfect cakes by any mixing method.

FLAKIER PIES THAN WITH ANY OTHER TYPE OF SHORT-ENING! Tests prove Swift' ning makes piecrust flakier than shortenings of other types. And Swift'ning is tasteless, odorless, keeps without refrigeration. You can get it in 3-lb. and 1-lb.
tins or 1-lb. cartons.

HIGHLY DIGESTIBLE! EXTRA NUTRITIOUS! No other

love Swift'ning for baking all-round results than any other shortening!

Ex-Soldier Confesses Three Holdup Killings

By the Associated Press
PIKEVILLE, Ky., Oct. 23.—Paul John Schneider, 24-year-old dis-honorably discharged soldier formerly of San Francisco, admitted to police yesterday the robbery-slays-ing of three filling station attendants—one in Denver and two in the Detroit area—between September 21 and October 8, Chief Deputy Sheriff
Robert B. Doak reported.
Mr. Doak, who headed a lengthy investigation in which two FBI agents and Kentucky and Michigan State police participated, said Schneider confessed to:
Robbing and shooting a filling station attendant held up in Denver September 21 and then proceeding to Detroit.
Holding up a second filling station attendant in suburban Detroit, beating him to death with a tire tool.

Holding up and robbing a third attendant near Detroit two hours later and killing him.
Although Schneider did not identify any of the men slain by name, Mr. Doak said it was virtually certain the Denver man was Frank J.
Ford, 46, who had been missing since the September date.
Schneider was taken into custody last Friday.
The District Court trial of the suit in which two factions of the National Woman's Party are contesting the legality of two slates of officers is to be resumed Monday, following three days of testimony ending yesterday.
Plaintiffs in the suit seek to have the court declare that a slate of officers elected last January in the Mayflower Hotel and headed by Mrs.
John L. Whitehurst of Baltimore are the legal officers of the party.
Defendants in the suit, on the other hand, contend that a meeting of the national council, which called the convention here, was in itself illegal and that the convention in the Mayflower was illegal. In turn, they assert the group headed by Miss Anita Pollitzer of New York constitutes the legal officers of the party.
The plaintiffs rested their case yesterday, after Mrs. Harvey W.
Wiley, chairman of the nominations committee at the Mayflower Hotel convention, completed her testimony as a witness for the plaintiffs.
The case is being heard by Justice
James M. Proctor.
When bank clerks in Colombo, Ceylon, went on strike recently, bank executives carried on by doing the work.
