Trade Board to Elect 12 Directors Friday At Its Annual Meeting

The Washington Board of Trade will hear an address by Dr. Harold Stonier, executive manager of the American Bankers Association, and elect 12 directors at its annual meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in the Mayflower Hotel, John A. Reilly, president, announced yesterday.

The meeting, last in a series of six general membership sessions during the organization's 59th administrative year ending Friday, will include musical interludes by the Metropolitan Police Boys Club Band.

Coinciding with the meeting will be a display of products manufactured in the Washington Metropolitan Area by Board of Trade members. The display, which will be in the Chinese Room of the Mayflower, is being arranged by the board's Industrial and Wholesale Interests Committee, of which Thomas Somerville, 3d, is chairman. Martin T. Wiegand is subcommittee chairman.

Discusses Anti-Inflation Drive.
Dr. Stonier, an authority on banking and investment, will discuss the campaign against inflation now being conducted on a nationwide scope through the banking system.

Thornton W. Owen, secretary of the Board of Trade, has announced 17 men have been nominated for the 12 vacancies on the Board of Directors. The 12 receiving the most votes will be elected for three-year terms.

Candidates are: Kenneth H. Berkeley, vice president and general manager of Radio Station WMAL; J. H. Carmichael, president of Capital Airlines; Edward Carr, real estate man and builder, and former president of the National Home Builders Association; James A. Cassidy, building specialist; Maurice R. Colbert, president of Maurice J. Colbert Co., Inc.; Raymond DuFour, general agent, Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co.; Karl E. Jarrell, president of the Thomas E. Jarrell Co.

Other Candidates Listed.
Also, Clyde E. Kellogg, president of the Stanford Paper Co.; W. Russell Lamar, partner, Lamar & Wallace; Thomas M. Locraft, partner, Murphy and Locraft, architects; Maj. Gen. David McCoach, Jr., U. S. A., retired, vice president of the Chas. H. Tompkins Co.; William J. McManus, vice president of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co.; John W. Murphy, retired; Charles T. Penn, vice president of the Indiana Limestone Co., Inc.

Also, Elmer M. Pusey, business manager of Judd & Detweiler, Inc.; William C. Shelton, business manager of the Washington Times Herald; Evan A. Sholl, owner of Sholl's Colonial Cafeteria, and Charles M. Upham, engineer—director of the American Road Builders' Association.

Mr. Cassidy, Mr. Jarrell, Gen. McCoach, Mr. Shelton and Mr. Upham will be competing for second terms on the board.

Polls Open at 4 P.M.
The election, with voters limited to Board of Trade members in good standing, will be held in the Mayflower promenade, with the polls open from 4 to 9 p.m. Election judges are A. Gray Dawson, Raymond M. Florence and Alfred C. McGarraghy.

Industrial exhibits will be placed in the Chinese Room by the Potomac Electric Co.; Southern Dairies, Inc.; Washington Gas Light Co.; Capital Transit Co.; Lamb Seal and Stencil Co., Inc.; The Gold Craft Co.; Fred S. ... SAID Freda Fox to Sadie Skunk—remember Portia Possum

She's twice our age if she's a day—
How come she manages to stay
As youthful as a blossom...

It's very simple, Sadie said,

Miss Possum's plenty cunning...

She goes to Lansburgh's every year

Where expert fur men snip and shear

Then clean and shine her there and here—
no wonder she's so stunning...

If she can do it, so can I, said Freda—
so long Sadie...

I'm off to Lansburgh's for a spell

If they just treat me half as well

As Portia Possum—whb can tell—
I'll be a foxy lady...
