Miss Margaret Cook Bride of Mr. Boone

St. Anthony's Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Margaret Lynne Cook, daughter of Mrs. Robert A. Mills and Mr. W. Lynnwood Cook, and Seaman First Class Robert Thomas Boone, Jr., U. S. N.

The Rev. Father John Bailey officiated following a program of songs by Miss Anna Katherine Molster. Escorted to the altar by Mr. Mills, the bride wore with her gown of candlelight satin and chantilly lace, a heirloom cameo, which belonged to her great grandmother, the late Mrs. George A. Poe. She carried a lace handkerchief of her grandmother's, the late Mrs. George Pender Hart.

The bride had as her attendants the Misses Mary Louise Weber, Wilma Jean Wolf and Marguerite Boyer. With their gowns of pastel marquisette they carried old fashioned bouquets.

Mr. Spencer Lee Hart, Jr., was best man and the ushers were Mr. Joseph M. Mills and Mr. William E. Hart.

Following a reception at the American Newspaper Women's Club the young couple left for a southern honeymoon. Before their return they will visit the groom's parents in Blackwood, Va. Included among the out-of-town guests was the groom's sister, Miss Dorothy Boone of Blackwood, Miss Ann Hart of the Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia and Masters Spencer Darwin, Jr. and Robert E. Darwin of Salisbury, Md.

Evelyn Waugh To Be Feted

A small private reception honoring Mr. Evelyn Waugh, the English novelist, will be given Thursday evening at Georgetown University following the public lecture, which Mr. Waugh is giving there earlier that evening.

The host will be Dr. Hunter Guthrie, S. J., dean of the university's graduate school, under whose auspices Mr. Waugh is coming to Washington for the first time to lecture. Mrs. Richard J. Anthony is in charge of arrangements for both lecture and reception. Mr. Waugh is expected to remain in Washington for a few days on the occasion of his visit here. His visit to the United States is of special interest at this time since his latest work, "Scott-King's Modern Europe," is being published in this country this month. It was only recently issued in England.
