Funeral Tomorrow For Bernard Frealing, Court Messenger

Funeral services for Bernard Frealing, 74, oldest messenger in years of service at District Court at the time of his retirement last November, will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at St. Augustine's Catholic Church, 1115 Fifteenth street N.W. Burial will be in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Frealing served as a messenger to six justices of the Supreme Court of the District for almost 50 years.

He began work with the court in 1902 as a messenger to Chief Justice Edward F. Bingham. The court then was known as the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and the judges were called justices.

Received Watch.

Known to hundreds of lawyers and associates as "Bill" Frealing, he served as messenger to Justices William C. Clegg, Walter I. McCoy and William H. Taft.

At the end of his service with Justice Hitz, the judge presented him a watch inscribed, "with grateful appreciation" for his helpfulness on the job.

He also worked as a messenger for Judge James M. Proctor and later Judge Edward A. Tamm, before his retirement.

Judge Proctor, on learning of his death, sent a letter expressing his sympathy to Mr. Frealing's widow, Mrs. Pearl Adams Frealing. The judge wrote, "He was my faithful friend and helper for many years and I had hoped to have him with me until my retirement."

Widow Is Teacher.

Mrs. Julia Shipley, secretary to Judge Proctor, recalled Mr. Frealing as "patient, dependable and courteous."

Mr. Frealing's widow is an English teacher at Dunbar High School, where she has taught since 1919.

In addition, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Margaret James and Miss Eliza Frealing of Steelton, Pa.

He was an active member of St. Augustine's Church and its Holy Name Society, and also belonged to Columbia Lodge, No. 85, Elks.

American U. Faculty Wives Attend Orientation Program

A fall orientation program for the wives of faculty members of American University was to be held this afternoon at the home of President Paul F. Douglas.

The faculty wives' workshop was to be presided over by Mrs. Merritt C. Batchelder, wife of the chairman of the Department of Humanities of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Mrs. F. K. Mann, wife of the chairman of the Department of Economics of the School of Social Sciences and Public Affairs, was to lead the discussion dealing with the practical details which concern a faculty wife.

Cultural life within a metropolitan university was to be the topic of Mrs. Gordon Smith, wife of the instructor of music composition.

Mrs. Helen Coleman Dies of Crash Injuries

Mrs. Helen Ferguson Coleman, a former Washington and Alexandria resident, died yesterday of injuries received in an automobile accident earlier in the day.

Mrs. Coleman and her husband, Col. William A. Coleman, U. S. A., retired, had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William H. McReynolds, 4514 Connecticut avenue N.W., and were driving back to their home in Appomattox, Va., when the accident occurred near Richmond.

Mrs. Coleman was fatally injured in a head-on collision on route 60 about 4 miles west of Richmond during a blinding rainstorm. Her husband was critically injured and was taken to the Medical College of Virginia Hospital in Richmond.

Mrs. Coleman, who was in her 50s, was born in Woodstock, Va., the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Sydney Ferguson. Her father was a Methodist minister.

Col. Coleman was transferred here in 1938 and the couple lived in Washington and in Alexandria. Col. Coleman retired in 1945 and then moved to his ancestral home in Appomattox.

Mrs. Coleman was an active member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and was president of the Virginia division in 1943. She was a member of the Episcopal Church.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Richard Janak of Appomattox; three sisters, Mrs. Ferguson Cary, Alexandria; Mrs. Oswald Lynn, Washington; and Mrs. James W. Foley, Winter Park, Fla.

Georgia Avenue Widening Due to Start Early in 1950

The widening of Georgia avenue from Wisconsin to Silver Spring to Glenmont road, a distance of 4 1/2 miles, is expected to start early next year, according to Gov. Lane.

The Governor said preliminary surveys for the dual-lane highway are about 25 per cent complete, with the remainder of the study to be
