Catholic Doctors Hit Artificial Insemination

By the Associated Press
ROME, Sept. 28.—Delegates to the Fourth International Congress of Catholic Doctors today condemned the practice of having test-tube babies as contrary to the natural rules of parenthood.
Prof. Octave Pasteau of Paris, president of the International Medical Society of St. Luke, said: "It would be frightful if one day we will have donors of human seed as popular as donors of blood."
If Catholic doctors do not take immediate and strong action against artificial insemination, he continued, "we will shortly have in all countries state services of seed donors as we have now services of blood donors."
Dr. Jeremiah Foley, master general of the Irish Guild of St. Luke, Sts. Cosmas and Damian, said approval of artificial insemination would "prove a terrible weapon in the hands of modern totalitarian governments." He added: "We shall see the state taking in hand the breeding of subjects and the rearing of them without regard to divine law or human love."

He said that "artificial insemination deprives of personal foundation that most personal of all functions—parenthood."
Delegates to the Congress will be received tomorrow by Pope Pius XII in a special audience at Castle Gandolfo, the pontiff's summer residence. During the audience the Pope is expected to make a major pronouncement on the attitude of the church toward medical problems.

Little Damage Caused By Quake in Alaska

By the Associated Press
ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 28.—Mother Earth kicked up a tremor in her Alaskan joints yesterday, but did little more than give awakened Northerners a thrill. There were a few minor damage reports.

The earthquake was recorded here at 5:31 a.m. (10:31 a.m. Eastern Standard Time). It was felt over a wide area of the territory. It was recorded about a minute later by the Coast and Geodetic Survey station at Sitka, in Southeastern Alaska. Sitka residents did not feel it, however. A tidal "surge" of a few inches was reported at Sitka about an hour and a half later.
Joel Campbell of the Sitka Geodetic Survey station estimated the quake's center was about 450 miles to the west. That would be near the center of the Gulf of Alaska, closer to Kodiak than Sitka. Residents of Kodiak did not feel it. It was felt distinctly, however, at Fairbanks, 300 miles inland from the gulf. The Fairbanks Geodetic Survey office estimated the quake center was within 500 miles.
