World Church Council Opens Meeting of Central Committee

By the Associated Press

TORONTO, Ont., July 8.—Protestant and Orthodox Church leaders gathered here today to begin a week-long study of worldwide religious problems.

The occasion is the annual meeting of the 90-member Central Committee of the World Council of Churches. The council includes about 160,000,000 church members in 44 countries of all major Christian confessions except Roman Catholicism.

These are some of the problems on which the delegates will act: Minority church rights in countries dominated by a single state-recognized religious group. Christian judgments on existing political and social systems. Means of bringing the Christian gospel to large industrial populations. Defining of a common function of the world council, while assuring democratic control by the 156 member churches.

1953 Meeting Set.

The World Council was formed at Amsterdam, The Netherlands, August 23, 1948. The second assembly of the council will be held at Northwestern University in 1953.

The committee is vested with authority to act for the World Council between the sittings of the Council's Assembly every five years.

Formation of the World Council removed some of the disunity in Christendom dating from the great schism of 1054, when the Christian Church divided on an East-West basis.

Through the council, member churches act together at present in such matters as inter-church aid, service to refugees, international affairs, the study of social and religious issues and the enlargement of opportunities in church life for all persons.

Bishop Dun Arrives.

The World Council has no authority to question the doctrinal positions of its member churches. The chairman of the central committee is the Right Rev. George K. A. Bell, Anglican bishop of Chichester, Eng. He is assisted by Dr. Franklin Clark Fry of New York, president of the United Lutheran Church in America.

Prominent churchmen from the United States arriving today included:

The Very Rev. Angus Dun, Episcopal bishop of Washington, D. C.

* Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam of the New York area.

Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, former president of the Federal Council of Churches, representing the Episcopal Church.

G. U. Names Dr. Burke Professor of Pediatrics

Dr. Frederic G. Burke has been named professor pediatrics at Georgetown University, the school of medicine announced yesterday.

A graduate of Georgetown and of Seton Hall College, Dr. Burke, who is 33, interned at Georgetown Hospital, later practiced at Children's Hospital and held a teaching fellowship at George Washington Hospital for three years.

Before attaining his new position, Dr. Burke was assistant clinical professor of pediatrics at Georgetown. He has written many papers for medical journals. A native of Liverpool, England, Dr. Burke lives at 5507 Lambeth road, Bethesda.

WED 50 YEARS—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Hanold of 230 V street N.E., who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mr. Hanold, 78, a native of Wuertemberg, Germany, and Mrs. Hanold, 76, have two daughters, a son, 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.
