

Lamond Heights Citizens Vote 4-Point Program

The Lamond Heights Citizens' Association drafted a four-point program for action in 1952 at its association meeting last night.

Joel P. Sharon, president, commented on the increasing population of the Lamond area and told the group that "its needs are fast outgrowing its facilities."

The association then agreed on the following four needs as the most pressing: A post office sub-station, a junior high school and elementary school, a public library and more adequate bus service along Riggs road and Kansas avenue.

Norman Kamerow was chosen to represent the association at the December 21 hearing by the Commissioners on the plan to re-organize the District government. He was advised by the group to ask that a citizens' advisory committee be made a part of the new government.

The meeting was held in the Masonic and Eastern Star Home, Peabody street and New Hampshire avenue N.E.

Brother of Safe Thieves Held in Similar Case

The brother of two men now serving time in a $60,000 safe robbery two years ago was held for the grand jury, under $3,500 bond, yesterday, accused of trying to batter open a safe on November 17.

He is Samuel W. James, 29, colored, of the 4800 block of East Capitol street. Police identified him as the brother of Stance James, 31, and Oliver James, 26, serving terms for stealing a safe containing $61,850 in cash and jewelry from the home of Richard H. Beckley, a former police detective sergeant.

Samuel James was charged with breaking into the National Equipment & Supply Co. at 1244 Ninth street N.W., and trying unsuccessfully to break open the safe.

FBI agents testified that particles found in James' trousers and shoes matched paint and metal particles from the safe.

JESSIE'S Notebook by JESSIE DE BOTH

Partied And Easy: Spread peach or apricot jam on 12 large or 24 small ladyfingers, stack them up in layers in a loaf pan or dish and pour over them a hot prepared vanilla pudding. Chill and serve with whipped cream. For a ruby-red touch top with a spoonful of cranberry sauce. Or with a sprinkle of grated nutmegs.

To Start Holiday Meals
Gaily I serve a colorful fruit appetizer—and it's a honey! Canned Fruit Cocktail from California—which has 5 sparkling fruits mixed exactly right. Luscious California eling peaches, and pears, pineapple, cherries and grapes—which I spoon right into my serving glasses. A real delight—and a work-saver just when I need it most. This California Cocktail is also the ideal fruit mixture for easy gelatin dishes, quick appealing salads, and the gayer-up sauces folks love so much. I think these inviting fruits are wonderful eating anytime. For instance, here's a dessert I particularly like

Jeweled Mint Sherbet: Over each serving of mint sherbet pour Fruit Cocktail from California, drained and chilled.

Holiday Open House means two things to me: plenty of company—and an ample supply of Clorox! To make my kitchen and bathroom "guest-clean," I keep a bottle of Clorox in both places. Ordinary cleaning can never take the place of Clorox. It's America's favorite... a 4 in 1 product!

1. Clorox is an extra-gentle bleach in laundering, free from caustic, safe and gentle for finest linens.

2. Clorox is a dependable stain remover. A "lifesaver" when kitchen or bathroom surfaces are marred by ugly stains. Works magic in laundering, too.

3. Clorox is an effective deodorizer. It helps me keep my kitchen and bathroom fresh-smelling.

4. And Clorox is one of the world's great disinfectants—recommended by hundreds of public health departments! For easier, better, safer laundering and cleaning, there's only ONE Clorox! Directions on label.
