

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Three Die in Trailer Fire

CHICOPEE, Mass., Dec. 12 (AP).—An Air Force sergeant, his Hawaiian-born bride and their 3-year-old son perished yesterday when fire swept their trailer just outside the Westover Air Force base. The victims were S/Sgt. Luther Smith, 22; his wife, Sharon, 23, and their son, Bernard.

Soldier Killed in Crash on Road Near Baltimore

By the Associated Press
BALTIMORE, Dec. 12.—A 26-year-old Army corporal stationed at the Aberdeen Proving Ground was killed at 5:10 a.m. today when his convertible crashed at high speed into the rear of a big truck on U. S. 40 just northeast of Baltimore. He was identified as Corp. Frank W. Baumgardner of Columbus, Ohio.

Atlanta Jury Is Told Poison Liquor Could
Have Killed 1,000

By the Associated Press
ATLANTA, Dec. 12.—The Director of the Fulton County Crime Laboratory estimates that 1,000 persons could have been killed by the 99 gallons of poison bootleg liquor distributed in Atlanta last October.

Dr. Herman Jones told a jury in Superior Court that he thought the estimate was conservative. Testifying yesterday in the murder trial of John R. (Pat) Hardy, 44-year-old former convict who is blamed by the State for 38 bootleg deaths, Dr. Jones said an analysis of some of the liquor showed it was 35.07 per cent wood alcohol.

Two ounces of the mixture are considered fatal, Dr. Jones added. The poisonous mixture was sold in Atlanta over a two-day period—October 21 and 22.

The crime lab director was one of 15 witnesses called by Fulton County Solicitor General Paul Webb as the 300-pound Hardy went on trial for the death of John W. Blount, colored. Hardy also is under murder indictments in four other cases.

Besides the 38 deaths from the poison liquor, four persons were blinded for life and 308 others were treated at the city's hospital for illness they said was brought on by drinking bottle liquor. In yesterday's testimony Richard A. (Snooks) Weems, 33, colored, told Fulton Superior Judge A. A. Andrew and the jury of accompanying Hardy when he bought the alcohol, helping him to mix it and of after-dark deliveries.

Luke P. Turner, a farmer, told of renting his barn in nearby Gwinnett County to Hardy and of watching the alcohol poured into and mixed with moonshine liquor, charcoal and well water.

Willie Walton testified he bought liquor from Weems and that he employed Willie Jones as a retail clerk. Jones said he sold some of the liquor to Blount and his wife Annie, who also died.

Retired CSC Chairman
Given Testimonial Dinner

Harry B. Mitchell, retired chairman of the Civil Service Commission, was honored at a testimonial dinner last night by Lodge 32, American Federation of Government Employees (AFL).

Chairman Robert Ramspeck of the commission presented Mr. Mitchell a plaque recording his 18-year tenure on the commission. The retired official also received an honorary life membership in the federation from James A. Campbell, national president.

Miss Frances Perkins and James M. Mitchell, members of the commission, also paid tribute to the former chairman.

The ex-official discussed his forthcoming autobiography, "An Immigrant Boy," due for publication soon.

It's PRESSURE PACKED
Your taste knows it—Science shows it—with Pressure it's Fresher!

Here's why: In ordinary cans many precious flavor elements escape—even when the can is sealed—freshness is lost!

In pressure packed cans, positive pressure helps prevent the coffee from losing its fine fresh flavor. That's why "Pressure Packed" Chase & Sanborn brings you coffee that is far fresher—far richer in important flavor elements than coffee packed any other way. Ask for it today!
