

New Garden Memorial Church, Cornerstone To Be Laid Tomorrow

Members of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church will attend a cornerstone-laying ceremony at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow for their new $175,000 church building at 1718 Minnesota avenue S.E.

Dr. Leber.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Tudor Leber, executive secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., will lay the cornerstone.

Dr. Leber, a member of the denomination's General Council and vice president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America, also will present a trowel to Mrs. Lamar Renfro, chairman of the expansion committee.

Others who will take part include the Rev. Lester V. Bauguess, minister of the church; the Rev. Wendell S. Tredick, Jr., moderator of the Washington City Presbytery, and the Rev. Philip Goertz, and the Rev. George M. Cummings, both former ministers of the church, now retired.

The service will mark the opening of the first of a three-phase building program. Plans for this first step call for a one-story building with a basement, which will house Sunday school rooms, kitchen and recreation rooms, and a main auditorium, seating 450; a choir loft and pastor's study and choir room on the first floor.

Plans for Two More Buildings.

A proposed steeple and balcony will be omitted temporarily for economy reasons.

Plans have been completed for two more buildings, which will adjoin the present structure. One would contain a chapel and a pastor's study, and the other would be a religious education and young people's activity center. A. A. Weidner, on the staff of the Washington firm of Ronald S. Senseman, is the architect.

The Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church was founded in 1892, with a charter membership of 50. The present active membership is 415. Mr. Bauguess is the seventh minister to hold a pastorate there.

Two VFW Posts Here Install Officers Tonight

Two local Veterans of Foreign Wars posts will install new officers at 8 o'clock tonight in the Odd Fellows' Building, 419 Seventh street N.W.

William E. Mayo, of 5807 Fourteenth street N.W., will be installed as commander of Washington Post No. 2194, and William E. Mower, of 620 Powhatan place N.W., will be given the gavel for Front Line Post No. 1401.

Other officers for Washington Post include Charles Ambler, Ralph Mayo and Milton J. Steinman. Front Line Post also will install Russell L. Miller, Ralph A. Lewis, Jr., and Edward T. Spedden.

'Miss Dunbarton' Named For May 19 Festival

Maureen Cullinane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Cullinane, 6402 Eighth street N.W., has been elected "Miss Dunbarton" at Dunbarton College of Holy Cross.

She will be crowned at the college's traditional May Festival on May 19.

Her maid of honor will be Margherita Hunt. Members of the court will be Betty Gross, Louise Wilkinson, Elizabeth Mattingly, Connie Pierson, Nancy McCreary, Paula Joy, Miss Roberta Hazard and Margaret Dougherty.
