

to smoke.

Dr. Theodore B. Templin, Gary, Ind., gave one quart of his blood to save wife's life. She suffered hemorrhage after birth of baby. All three doing well.

Lieut. Boerner, French military aviator, burned to death while giving exhibition flights at Senlis, France.

Andy Carnegie has offered $850,000 for erection in Washington of home for Federation of North American Indians, recently organized.

"Judiciary recall! The words are so inconsistent I hate to utter them together. Are we going to make our constitution a mere liquid thing so that the majority shall flood every branch of government?"—President Taft in New York speech.

Mr. Taft begins to grasp the idea. His language may be allegorical, but evidently he realizes what the people want.

Kentucky commission has discovered that average wage of 47,436 women workers of state is $5.96 a week.

That seems to suggest good reason for woman suffrage.

Roosevelt hastily cleared out of N. Y. yesterday just as Taft pulled in. And once they called each other Theodore and Bill.

Of course, it is utterly impossible that Hearst papers are giving so much space to attacks on Woodrow Wilson because Willie wants that nomination himself! The idea is ridiculous!

Wonder if French government is guarding J. Pierp. Morgan so carefully because it fears he will be harmed, or because it fears he will get away with the Louvre, or some other trinket like that?

"What we need is more all-around husbands. I know of nothing scarcer, unless it be good wives. Love cannot thrive on steam heat and janitor service."—Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood.

Mrs. Lockwood is 81 years old, has had two husbands, is a member of the bar of the supreme court of the U. S., and has had much legal divorce experience. Probably she knows.

"It is usual when a man runs for office to take aid and assistance from all sources, and be thankful."—Utica Press, referring to Wilson-Harvey, incident.

The Utica Press speaks truth. It is usual—and that's what makes some of our public officers act so funny. Consider, for instance, how varied were the sources from which Honorable Lorimer drew aid and assistance."

WEATHER FORECAST

Warmer—Mostly cloudy tonight and Tuesday; for Chicago and Vicinity: warmer tonight with lowest temperature near freezing; moderate temperature Tuesday night; light to moderate southerly winds becoming variable.

