

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

David Cohen, 818 Maxwell st., found dead and wife unconscious on kitchen floor. Asphyxiation. Suicide pact believed.

Michael J. Healy, 50, 2249 So. Irving ave., stabbed and probably fatally wounded by Susie Pindexter, at 22nd and State sts., this morning. Said he refused her money when she begged him. Woman arrested.

Morris & Co. to pension employees who have reached 65.

Lady Clifton Robinson, London, England, society leader, in Chicago for a visit.

At last night's meeting of the stereotypers in Handel hall, the biggest meeting ever held by that organization, the members voted unanimously to "stand-pat."

John Harahan, 60, 3748 Wilcox ave., teamster, thrown from seat when Madison st. car hit wagon at Curtis st. Skull fractured. Car failed to stop. Harahan will die.

A. McMannus, 3356 Grand ave., found on I. C. tracks at 40 st. Taken to Lakeside hospital. Supposed to have been struck by train.

Mrs. Bertha Foglestad, 3129 Fullerton av., and Mrs. Martha Erickson, 6340 Evans av., twins, will today celebrate their 91st birthday.

Anna Waugh, 17, ran away from Home of Good Shepherd, 1120 Grace st., yesterday. Police searching for her.

John Hoey, Jr., 28, 711 So. Sacramento ave., son of Peter Hoey, of Hoey & Richardson, cigar manufacturers, mysteriously slugged by 3 unidentified men on W. Madison st. car at Robey st. this morning. Two policemen reported to have been on car and refused aid.

Portion of rear wall old Waldorf Hotel, 117-119 W. Madison, now being razed, collapsed yesterday, injuring 7 men.

Clarence Belli, 15, son of Frank Belli, who was recently fined $150 for selling liquor in Highwood, attempted to shoot up town for revenge.

Andrew Lindstrom, laborer, 2524 S. Harding av., found dead from asphyxiation. Accident.

George Burger, 32, owner of Superior Hotel, 719 N. Clark, fined $100 and costs for keeping disorderly place. Edna Ballinger, 22, and Mabel Scott, 28, inmates, fined $5 and costs.

Chicago asked to search for Robert, 6, and Urban Nichols, 4, missing from Cincinnati, O., since April 29.

James Monahan, 21, waiter, 416 S. Clark, who identified Robert Schultz as man he saw in front of Jacob Goodman's cigar store, 438 S. Clark, just before Goodman was shot, set upon and beaten by 5 men, believed to have been friends of Schultz.

Charles Mandelker, 26, 3245 Douglas blvd., mgr. of Garden City Furniture Co., 808 Wells st., freed of charge of receiving money under false pretenses. Arrested on complaint of Frank O. Gustavson, 4530 Clifton av.

Arthur Watts, 28, 91 E. Chestnut st., chauffeur on auto of J. S.