

here, has been appointed chief of police.

Santiago.—Reported that 1,500 negro rebels are preparing to attack company of U. S. marines at El Cuero mines.

Washington.—Collier's Weekly has jumped all over Champ Clark because he allowed testimonial published advising "all overworked, sickly women to try electric bitters because they fixed me up all right."

Brooklyn.—Politicians here believe that Tim Woodruff's switch to Roosevelt will cost him leadership of King's County Republicans.

New York.—Justice Hughes, at his summer residence, Camp Abenaki, Lake Placid, is reported to be making mild efforts to stop his boom.

Portland, Me.—At first state-wide primaries ever held here the Republicans nominated Edwin C. Burleigh for U. S. senator and Wm. T. Haines for governor. Democrats renominated Gov. Plaisted and Sen. Obadiah Gardner without opposition.

Baltimore.—If the Democratic convention becomes deadlocked Gov. John Burke, North Dakota, will be put forward as compromise candidate.

White Plains, N. Y.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is fighting against release of her husband, Harry K. Thaw, from Matteawan.

Fort De France, Martinique.—French steamer Villa de Cayenne wrecked off Saint Lucia, British West Indies. Details lacking.

Notre-Dame, Ind.—St. Mary's

Academy held commencement exercises. Katherine E. Conway, Boston, given papal decoration by Father Morrissey.

La Porte, Ind.—Isaac Hancock, 65, wealthy farmer, suicide. Gas. Grief over death of granddaughter.

Eric, Pa.—Harry Flinn, 18, son of banker, and Katherine Dooley, 15, eloped to New York and got married.

Niles, Mich.—Karl Pettibone, former student University of Michigan, rolled peanut around block because Roosevelt candidate for temporary chairman Chicago convention was defeated.

El Paso, Tex.—William C. McGown, attorney and member state legislature, suicide. Shot himself in head. Ill health believed.

London.—Reported that Italy has agreed to confer with powers in effort to settle war with Turkey.

Manila, P. I.—Michael Whalen, only American leper here, has been elected president of leper republic on Island of Culion.

New York.—Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish has been making long speeches and informing people that U. S. is on brink of reign of terror because Americans are decadent.

Washington.—House judiciary committee to vote on Archbald impeachment resolution tomorrow.

Bloomington, Ill.—Autopsy of Dr. H. W. Johnstone, University of Indiana, who died on train, showed poison. Investigation to be made.