

San Francisco.—Chester Yates, wanted in New York, where he is alleged to have robbed aged broker of $85,000 bonds, arrested here.

North Hampton, N. H.—Burglars entered summer home of G. M. Studebaker, South Bend, Ind., millionaire, at Little Boarshead, near here. Escaped with between $12,000 and $15,000. Butler suspected.

Washington.—Comptroller of Currency issued call to have reports on national banks' condition turned in.

New York.—Tramp rescued Willie Bell, 12, from drowning in Morris canal, Richfield, N. Y. Refused offer of home for life with Bell family.

London.—Dr. Forbes Ross, who announced last week he had discovered pain killing dope, has now found cure for cancer. Not ready to explain until completed.

Trenton, N. J.—Johanna Alice Forner, Dresden, Germany, awarded $25,000 against Hans Schumann-Heink, son of contralto singer. Breach of promise.

Baltimore.—Democratic bosses in fear of influence of Bryan may not put up Alton B. Parker as temporary chairman.

Los Angeles.—George Behm, Portage, Wis., uncle of Ortie McManigal, testified that Darrow brought him to Los Angeles to get McManigal to repudiate his confession.

Venice.—Firemen on small steamboats on grand canal to Lida have gone on strike.

Washington.—Sen. Knute Nelson, Minn., will announce shortly whether he will be candidate to succeed himself when term expires March 4.

New York.—Chicago Paulist choristers gave concert in Paulist church here last night. Will arrive in Chicago Friday noon.

New Haven, Conn.—Many Chicagoans are in graduating class at Yale.

Washington, Ia.—Elizabeth Maitlen, young woman, died this morning of eating candy believed to have been poisoned. Claimed she had been out with V. Bain Asher, Chicago, salesman, Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co.

London.—Horse show has been featured by absence of notables. Attendance poorest in years.

Paris.—Dirigible Conte, French army, hung up new record for altitude in dirigible balloons. 9,925 feet.

Greenwich, Conn.—Isador De La Tora, wealthy young relative of former Pres. Diaz, Mexico, and Miss Andrews, 22, Brooklyn, motored here from New York, shortly before noon, got married and motored right back.

Kansas City.—Jack Cudahy, who treated Jere Lillis in such unfriendly fashion not long ago, and his wife, cause of the affair, have become reconciled.

Detroit.—3 children of Wellington Banks burned to death in fire that destroyed home. Banks is a negro.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—Jas. Tobin, 19, with ambition to become great ball player, suicided after he had broken pitching arm.