

describe the present scrap in picturesque language.

The convention opened with prayer and adjourned with profanity.

Mr. Staylaight—I'm not fond of the stage, Hazel, but I hear your father on the stairs, and I think I had better go before the footlights."

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

George Lanz, a painter, 1611 S. Homan av., was injured this afternoon, when a scaffold on which he was working at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, collapsed. Hospital.

Thomas Sadler, 1129 W. 103d st., fell from car at Adams and Clark sts.; bruised hip and cuts on face; hospital.

Posko Malvia, laborer, 723 Sholto court, fell 12 feet from roof in rear 226 S. Wabash this morning; fractured hip.

Otto Frank, 5957 S. Marshfield, struck and severely injured by street car at Vincennes road and W. 78th st.; St. Bernard hospital.

William Todd, Austin, Minn., reported to police he had been robbed of $300 by pickpockets.

Famous double plays—Roosevelt, to Chicago, to bolt.

Body of E. Baumgaertnor, who disappeared from Wabash hotel three weeks ago, found in Lake Michigan at foot of Harrison st., at noon. No marks of violence on body.

Mrs. Katherine Sullivan, 2540 W. Polk, left baby in carriage while she went in grocery. Wind blew carriage in front of wagon and baby was crushed to death. Driver of wagon not found.

Joseph Nicholls, 3511 Sheffield av., run down by auto driven by Dr. Norton V. Smith, 800 Belmont av., at Sheffield and Cornell avs.; fractured skull; hospital; will recover.

Chicago Ass'n of Commerce will build home on State Fair Grounds at Springfield as home for members during fair.

William Manfield, 18, 1523 York st., struck and slightly injured by street car at Clark and 12th sts.

John Hurley arrested and identified as man who held up Wm. Braun, W. 12th st. and Western av. week ago. Mask and revolver found on Hurley.

Lone robber held up saloons of Edward Peterson, 7401 S. Center av.; J. Flynn, few doors south, and D. George, 157 W. 69th st. Collected $80 in first, $70 in second and $60 in third; cleaned cash registers and patrons.

William McGuire, 14, 6663 S. Michigan av., shot in forehead in St. Bernard school, 69th and Stewart av. "Unloaded" revolver in hands of schoolmate.

Kibby Smith, negro chauffeur, 1514 W. Jackson, held to grand jury on charge of manslaughter in connection with death of M. J. Missey, killed at Clark and Indiana streets by machine driven by Smith.

William Mangler, 4672 Sheridan road, former alderman, and