

WHAT HAPPENED IN CHICAGO TODAY

"Fingy" Connors, New York Democratic boss, stole some of Chauncey Depew's stuff, by saying that Republicans were preparing for funeral to be held next fall.

Valentine McCarthy told Judge Owens at Court for Insane that he had received message from spirit land telling him that Teddy would be nominated. Teddy-bug.

Fifty prominent Chicagoans met Paulist choir at Hammond, Ind. Marched to City hall, where mayor addressed them.

Theodore Berg, 1720 Burling st., injured by street car at Clybourne av. and Willow st., fought with company's agents when they tried to kidnap him to private hospital. Alexian Brothers hospital.

More than 12,400 pupils received diplomas at Chicago public schools this week.

Mrs. Grace Abrams, vaudeville actress, granted divorce because her husband gambled and would not work.

Clayton Sanderson, 67, night watchman State hotel, 555 So. State st., found dead in bed.

Mrs. Anna Barsaloux, 2949 N. Halsted st., filed $25,000 damage suit against Mrs. Lena Jackson, Lemont, Ill. Alienated husband's affections.

Mrs. Madeline Rooney, 414 E. 31st st., in night robe chased burglar who had taken 2 diamond rings, valued at $225, and some currency. Man escaped.

William McLaren, 5, 808 E. 42nd st., run down and injured by Cottage Grove ave. car at 42nd st. Will recover.

Sarah Missner, wife of Abraham Missner, dry goods merchant, 2121 N. Hoyne av., who disappeared, and creditors, have petitioned court to have receiver appointed for his affairs.

Mrs. Tillie Davis, 4234 Drexel blvd., who started hysterical Roosevelt demonstration Wednesday by kissing Teddy's picture, accuses Taft men of hounding her to make her admit she was paid for it.

D. W. Smeyers, Irving Park, on way to Mayor Harrison with petition of protest against robberies in his district, had pockets picked of $78. Managed to retain petition.

Joseph E. Howard, actor and composer, given discharge in bankruptcy by Judge Landis.

Nathan Pollack, 25, N. Sangamon, bartender, and Phillip Shapiro, 6109 Wentworth ave., hotel owner, held to grand jury for harboring Katherine O'Brien, 16.

Trial of George W. Fitzgerald, former teller of sub-treasury, charged with theft of $175,000, Feb., 1907, deferred indefinitely by Judge Carpenter.

Walter Snider, chauffeur Esanay Film Co., 443 Beethoven place, who struck and killed Mrs. Elizabeth Falvey, 60, 1048 Orleans st., with his auto truck, June 13, at Wells and Hill sts., held to grand jury. Manslaughter.

Bertha Stoepal, 16, who disappeared from Big Sisters' Home, Racine, Wis., some weeks ago,